GETTYSBURG TO BE PROMINENT AT GAR SESSIONS

Gettysburg will figure prominently in deliberations at the annual national convention of the allied orders of the Grand Army of the Republic to be held at Cincinnati, O., next week.

The annual sessions will open Sunday at Sheraton Gibson Hotel with all five groups allied to the GAR meeting together for the first time since 1949.

O. G. MacPherson, Carlisle St., and other members of a committee appointed by the state unit of the Sons of Union Veterans will present to the national convention a proposal adopted by the state group last month urging the burial of the last two surviving veterans of the North and South side by side here at Gettysburg. If the national organization adopts the idea, it will seek joint action by the Sons of Confederate Veterans sponsoring the proposal as a symbol of the reunion of the states after the Civil War.

Resolutions And Statue

Also listed for national action, by the Daughters of Union Veterans, is a resolution adopted by the Pennsylvania DUV which would provide for a college loan fund from the GAR Living Memorial to be placed

Ten Die And Towns, Cities Are Isolated By Heavy Rains

PHILADELPHIA, (AP) — Rain-swollen rivers rampaged through eastern Pennsylvania today, causing at least ten deaths and isolating towns and cities. The threat was still increasing in some communities.

The swiftly rising waters marooned 650 youngsters on two island camps in the Delaware River about 10 miles north of Philadelphia. They virtually cut off Scranton and smaller communities from passage, and brought a major flood warning at Bethlehem.

Another 310 persons were stranded in two Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad trains in the Pocono Mountains between Cresco and Tobyhanna. The railroad said the 2nd Army had promised helicopters would try to remove the passengers.

In addition to the known deaths, other persons were unaccounted for.

Rains totaled more than 9 inches in one sector.

While Pennsylvania was hardest hit by what was left by Hurricane Diane, there were floods throughout a wide area of the northeast United States.

Southeastern New York state, bordering on Pennsylvania, was inundated and children from a number of summer camps were evacuated to higher ground. Port Jervis, a city of 10,000, was put under a state of emergency by Mayor James E. Cole as more than 7 inches of rain in 24 hours

The Annie M. Warner Hospital Building Fund has now reached a total of $220,202.77, including $1,000 contributed by the Gettysburg Riding Club as a result of its recent horse show.

Hospital officials report that prospective contributors who were not contacted during the drive are now beginning to make donations as a result of a follow-up campaign. Approximately $2,800 has been received from this source and it is expected that similar contributions will be coming in steadily. Letters are now being mailed to those from whom responses have not been hitherto forthcoming.

MORE THAN 1500 SEE AIR FORCE EXHIBITS HERE

Despite rain which cut the period the van was open to viewing, more than 1,500 Gettysburg area residents saw two Air Force engines on display on Baltimore St. Thursday.

Airmen Charles Birkel and Bill Goodin, of Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, O., operators of the van oearing the two engines, said the display was one of several on tour through Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The vans, with Air Force equipment, will converge on Philadelphia September 3 for the National Air Show there.

The airmen explained that the displays, such as the one here Thursday, "are part of the publicity for the National Air Show, to be held September 3, 4 and 5. The Air Force will have every type of plane and equipment it owns at that show and we hope that great numbers of people will be on hand to see what their Air Force has."

Two Types Of Engines

The display here showed a J-47 jet engine, such as used on the Sabrejet F-86 and similar type aircraft. The engine was separted into various parts to show spectators an idea of how the engines of that type are constructed.

Also on display was a cut-away conventional piston engine, an R-3350, such as is used on the B-29 bombers.

The airmen had planned to have the engines on display throughout Thursday, but because of the rain did not open the van until 5 o'clock Thursday evening. They continued the display until 9 o'clock and said they were "highly pleased" with the interest shown.

The next regular meeting of the auxiliary will be held September 7 at the post home.

CHILDREN MAY EARN OVER $600

Thomas C. McSherry, representative of the director of internal revenue for the Philadelphia District, today reminded parents and employers that in many cases young people employed during the summer months need not stop work before they have earned $600 in order that their parents may retain their exemption deduction.

Under the new liberalized regulations, a parent may claim the exemption or a child who earns more than $600.00, if the child will be under 19 years of age at the end of the year; or if the child is a student at a recognized educational institution or pursuing a full-time farm training course, regardless of age. But, in both cases, the exemption can be claimed only if the parent furnished more than half the total cost of the support of the child.

McSherry added that children who earn $600 or more must file their own income tax returns, like everyone else, and may claim their own exemption, even though their parents are claiming them as dependents.

McSherry said the new rules were introduced to benefit the parent, the child and the employer. Further information concerning these regulations may be obtained at the district office by calling Gettysburg 830.

August Rains Here Heaviest Since '40

With 12 days to go, this month has become the wettest August in Gettysburg in 15 years and Hurricanes Connie and Diane get most of the credit for the copious rains that broke the summer drought.

Hurricane-connected showers that ended Thursday evening totaled 6.90 inches and dated from a week ago with the approach of Hurricane Connie. She accounted for more than four inches of rain while showers on Wednesday and Thursday of this week added more than two inches to the total.

Not since August of 1940 has so much rain fallen here in August. The total that year for the full 31-day period was 8.88 inches.

This month has a long way to go to set a new August rainfall figure, however, for in 1911 the month received a total of 12.99 inches of rain. The total so far this month is 7.97 inches.

Many county streams were bankfull or overflowing but no flood damage was reported here.

Democrats Hold Registration Lead

The Democrats continued to lead in registration Thursday as the traveling registrars sat at New Oxford. A total of 67 Democrats, 20 Republicans and three non-partisan voters were listed there.

So far in the traveling registration 263 Democrats and 73 Republicans have signed for permission to vote at the forthcoming election.

Two Little Girls Injured In Falls

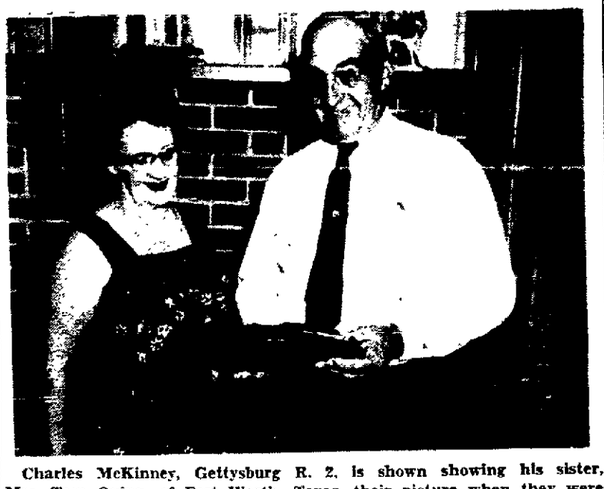
Sister, Believed Dead, Visits Brother Here After 39 Years



Charles McKinney, Gettysburg R. 2, is shown showing his sister, Mrs. Tom Quinn, of Fort Worth, Texas, their picture when they were at school together more than a half century ago. George P. Black, Baltimore St., was teacher of the school. Mrs. Quinn, who left home 39 years ago and was believed dead, recently contacted the family here from Fort Worth and now is visiting the McKinneys. (Times Photo)

Mrs. Tom Quinn, a nurse in Fort Worth, Texas, who disappeared from her home near Barlow 39 years ago, today was meeting with members of her family whom she had not seen for nearly four decades.

Charles McKinney, Gettysburg R. 2 painter, who had thought his sister dead for many years, claims it is "almost unbelievable" that Mrs. Quinn has returned to join the family circle.

Mrs. Quinn is just as thrilled—because she had almost despaired of ever again seeing any members of her family.

Located Family In July

She had learned, she said, that the family had moved to the Harrisburg area, after she left home 39 years ago. She wrote to the Harrisburg post office and her letters were returned—the family was unknown to the post office there.

Finally, in July she decided to make one last attempt, writing to "Bureau of Census," Gettysburg.

The letter was turned over to the local registrar of vital statistics, Ralph Geiselman, who discovering from Mrs. Quinn's letter that she was a native of the Barlow area, called Mrs. Melvin Bishop, near Natural Dame area, who in turn recalled that Mrs. Grover Yingling, Gettysburg R. D., was a McKinney. Geiselman called Mrs. Yingling. She read Mrs Quinn's letter and realized

Dr. Kadel's "Dial A Prayer" Phone Busiest In Orlando, Fla.

The busiest telephone in Orlando, Fla., today is "Prayer of the Day — 2-2454" and the voice that responds is that of the Rev. Dr. William H. Kadel, native of Gettysburg and pastor of the new First Presbyterian Church there.

The "prayer by telephone" service was made available to Orlandoans recently through the generosity of a Presbyterian layman who has remained anonymous. The dial-a-prayer idea has caught on like Davy Crockett.

The gadget that makes the service possible is the Bell System Automatic Answering and Announcing Service. The device records the prayer as Dr. Kadel speaks into a telephone hooked to an electronic device the size of a portable radio.

Non-Sectarian And Timely

From then on it's entirely automatic and the minister returns to his study or goes home to dinner. The text of the prayer can be changed at any time by the flip of a switch and another recitation by Dr. Kadel.

Orlandonas think theirs is the second city in the country — or the world for that matter — to convert the telephone mechanism to dial a prayer. The first was Scarsdale, N. Y., population 15,000. An Orlando Presbyterian read about the experience there and wanted to try it in Orlando. He approached his pastor, Dr. Kadel, and after Session approval was secured the stage was set when Dr. Kadel recently returned from vacation.

Dr. Kadel has made the service non-sectarian and is kept timely with news events on the world level and takes notice of religious and patriotic special days.

The telephone prayer setup in Orlando caught on quickly and soon was handling a call every 45 seconds, 80 an hour. The phone company estimates that at least 1,800 are handled in a 24-hour period. There's no way of knowing how many persons are getting a busy signal but Dr. Kadel said a counter is being installed. Because of the flood of calls a second unit has been added and a third will be used if it is needed.

Daughter Coming Here

Letters and telephone messages have poured into First Church's office. One woman who said the Dial-a-Prayer line was busy all day set her alarm clock for midnight to receive the prayer for the day. Another said she got a busy signal at 3 a.m.

Dr. Kadel is recording a 40-second prayer each morning and night.

He is the youngest son of Mrs. J. H. Kadel, 415 W. Middle St. His eldest daughter, Barbara Ann, will enter Gettysburg College next month as a Freshman. Her father is an alumnus of the college. Dr. and Mrs. Kadel have four children, two sons and two daughters.

Hulks Of Greek Fleet Sunk 2,368 Years Ago Believed Found Off Coast Of Sicily

SIRACUSA, Sicily (AP) — Divers have found water-logged hulks experts believe are those of a Greek war fleet lost 2,368 years ago in one of the greatest naval defeats of ancient history.

The first skeletal wreckage was sighted this week by men who have been working for almost a month in the silt at the bottom of the broad Bay of Siracusa, on the southeast coast of Sicily.

They described the gaunt ribs and sharp prow of what appeared to be an ancient trireme, a galley with three banks of oars. The wooden wreckage crumbled at their touch.

"There can be no doubt," said Prof. Luigi Barnard Brea, director of the Siracusa Historical Museum, "that the wreckage is from the Athenian fleet that beseiged ancient Siracusa.

"We stand at the threshold of a discovery of perhaps the most ancient warships ever found on earth."

The search for the sunken fleet was started by the Italian navy and the Sicilian Department of Antiquities on clues furnished by Arthur Baker, British consul in Siracusa and an ardent student of Sicilian history.

Last summer Baker figured out from ancient records where the 119 Athenian ships probably were sunk in 413 B. C. He fished around the bottom of the bay 100 yards off the Ortigia Islands and brought back pieces of ancient pottery which spurred Italian authorities

COUNTERCLAIM FILED HERE BY VERNON G. RIFE

Vernon G. Rife, New Oxford R. 2, filed his answer to the action in trespass against him by Newlin Jones, New Oxford, Thursday, in the prothonotary's office. In it he took issue with Jones' version of an automobile collision Dec. 17, 1954, in New Oxford, and presented his own counterclaim for $106.55 damages.

Jones filed the original suit July 29. He stated that both men were driving west on U. S. 30 in New Oxford, when Jones, operating at a low speed and signaling his intentions, tried to make a left turn into the Kohler Road. Rife was trying to pass him on the left at the time, and the two collided, he said. Jones asked $238.90 damages for car repairs, averring that Rife was responsible for the accident by driving too fast and trying to pass another car at an intersection and over a solid white line in the center of the highway.

Rife, in his answer, said that Jones was in the right lane of the highway, with his two right wheels off the hard surface, when he made a sudden left turn. He claimed that Jones was responsible for the mishap, by not watching for oncoming traffic before making his turn and by not giving any visible signal. He asked $106.55 for the damage done to his auto.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

Some 45 million vacationing Americans will take to the highways this summer. The advance guard is well on the move.

These and other travelers will pile up, by year's end, well over 400 billion passenger-car miles. For most of them, their road maps will be as essential as the car itself.

Maps have marked the route for fighter and trader for at least 2,500 years — since the days of ancient Greece.

The free road map, however, is still largely peculiar to the United States and Canada. Giving them away is a $10 billion annual business, with oil companies providing about half the estimated annual total of 300 million maps.

Equally uncommon outside North America are the free touring services which provide up-to-the-minute information on routes to any part of the nation and, in some cases, to many other parts of the world.

The advent of the low-wheeled "safety" bicycle in the late 1800s generated the first quantity demand for road maps. The "bikes" brought a new kind of personal mobility and made real, though short-range touring popular for the first time. "The Cyclist's Road Map of Connecticut," issued in 1888, was one of the first of its kind. Nevertheless, lack of accurate route information se-

SEMINARY GRAD ACCEPTS CALL

Rev. E. M. Clapper, Altoona, has accepted the pastorate of Grace Lutheran Church, Red Lion, a church official announced Thursday.

Last Sunday the congregation authorized the issuance of a call to the 44-year-old minister to assume the pastorate, which has been vacant since the death of Rev. William C. Day last February 15.

Rev. Clapper will begin his duties September 15. A native of Williamsburg, Pa., Rev. Clapper is a graduate of the Lutheran Seminary at Gettysburg. He served five and one-half years in the Lutheran parish at Carinbrook.

In February, 1943, Rev. Clapper enlisted in the Army chaplains' corps and was graduated from the chaplains school at Harvard University. His 41 months of military service included 27 in the southwest Pacific. He retained his major's commission upon his discharge in 1946.

Rev. Clapper assumed the pastorate of Grace Lutheran Church, Altoona, on June 1, 1946. In 1948, he was president of the Lutheran Pastors' Association of Altoona and vicinity and in 1952 president of the inter-denominational Altoona-Blair County Ministerium. Last year, was chairman of the Blair County cancer crusade.

Some years ago his grandmother gave an account of the early "Bleakneys and the Indian troubles" to the Adams County Historical Society.

The Compiler, founded in 1818, is the second oldest newspaper published in Adams County. The Star and Sentinal, founded in 1800, is the oldest.

This year the picnic will feature ham and chicken dinners, games and refreshments, mountain music and dancing. Paul "Mac" McKenrick, who plays six different instruments at one time, is the picnic's headliner.

Last year women of the parish served approximately 1,700 dinners and the picnic attracted about 2,500 people.

PAROLE MOTHER BUT SHE FACES CHARGES IN TWO OTHER COUNTIES

A Pen-Mar mother Mrs. Jeanette Stine Bupp, 35, was placed on parole for one year today "because of the hardship to your family and because your husband has to go to the hospital," she was told by the Adams County court.

The court told Mrs. Bupp, who was sentenced to from 11 to 23 months in the Allegheny Workhouse on charges of burglary, larceny, and contributing to the delinquency of a minor, that it was releasing her after 6½ months only because of the family problems. Her husband suffered a back injury in an auto accident some time ago. He has since been trying to work and support and care for the children while his wife was in jail.

It was not immediately determinable however whether the action of the county court will immediately restore Mrs. Bupp to her home. This afternoon she was released to Franklin County officials to face burglary and larceny charge there, and there is a detainer listing four charges for breaking and entering and grand larceny against her from Washington Co., Md. At the time of her arrest police reported her home was filled with articles she had taken in the three counties.

Drops Check Charge

The charge of giving a worthless check to defraud, brought by Daniel L. Yingling, Gettysburg R. D., against George H. Mellott, Chambersburg, was "not prossed" after Yingling told the court he wished to drop the charge and was willing to pay the costs. Mellott had been charged with issuing a worthless check for $2,025 for farm machinery over a year ago. Mellott recently paid $1,700, Yingling told the court.

Ten Children To Pay

Francis Fogle, 30, Chambersburg St., was found guilty of contempt of court for failing to keep current support payments and was sentenced to three months in jail.

Walter Clapper, Hanover, who had previously been given a suspended sentence on a charge of operating his car following a suspension of his license, was brought before the court, the suspension was revoked and he was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail and ordered to pay the costs.

Ten children of James Shultz were ordered to pay $4 per month each for the support of their parents following a hearing before the court held in the law library. The children, Clair Shultz, Bendersville; Alma B. Herman, 25 Breckenridge St.; Mae Shultz, 22 Breckenridge St.; Mildred F. Shultz, 151 W. High St.; Helen R. Spence, 52 South St.; Blance E. APPEALS FROM ASSESSMENTS FAR BELOW '54

Adams County's new assessment program is apparently working out to the satisfaction of countians—at least, according to present indications, the number of appeals from assessments this year will be much lower than last year.

Last September, when the new assessment had gone into effect for the first time, the county commissioners heard approximately 600 appeals from property owners throughout the county.

This year, approximately 4,000 changes made in assessments of property throughout the county, but only 40 have been appealed so far.

275 Changes In Biglerville

Because most people planning appeals generally notify the commissioners almost immediately upon receipt of the notice of their change in assessment, it is not expected that many more appeals will be filed.

Notices of the changes in assessment went out last week. No notices were sent to owners whose assessments did not change.

The number of changes is far greater in some sections than in others. In Biglerville 275 out of 300 assessments were changed, with all but about two of the changes being revisions upwards.

Brought Into Line

Littlestown and one ward of McSherrystown were other sections in which a great number of changes occurred.

Those were among sections found last year to be "out of line" with the other districts of the county. Chief Assessor D. Walker Woods said the card system of listing the properties has been "a tremendous help in working toward equalization of assessments."

Errors that may have occurred last year when cards were made on

SHOWERS STRIKE MANY AREAS; N. ENGLAND SOAKS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thundershowers and showers were reported over widely scattered areas of the country this morning. In some areas, the rain brought temporary relief from the current heat wave in the midcontinent.

Light rain fell along the New England coast after heavy downpours drenched many Northeastern States. The Weather Bureau reported rainfall in 24 hours at Windsor Locks, Conn., amounted to 9.41 inches, and at Boston it measured 7.39 inches.

Showers and thundershowers were reported in the Rockies, the Northern and Southern Plains, the Great Lakes region, states bordering the Gulf and parts of the upper and middle Mississippi Valley.

Some Cooling

Some cooling came to the Northern Plains and it also was cooler from Nevada northwestward to the Pacific Northwest Coast.

But the hot weather of this week showed no general break in the midcontinent and South with temperatures in the 90s in prospect again today.

Temperatures this morning were in the 80s or above in the Far Southwest and in the 80s in the Central Plains, Illinois and southern Wisconsin.

In the cool belt readings were in the 50s from western Washington and the higher elevations of the Rockies to mostly in the 60s elsewhere. They were in the 70s in other sections of the country.

40 MISSING IN FLOODED AREA

STATE TO TEST MILK HERDS IN 15 TOWNSHIPS

The second "ring test" of milk herds in 15 Adams County townships will begin next Tuesday, John A. Sheffer Jr., operator of the state's mobile testing unit, announced today.

Arrangements for collectors to obtain samples of milk for the testing were completed by the county agricultural extension office.

Sheffer, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheffer, Gettysburg R. D., will have the mobile testing unit at Sheffer's Park from Tuesday until the test is completed.

In the brucellosis eradication campaign, three testings of each herd are necessary before a brucellosis-free certificate can be granted.

Assign Collectors

The new test will not only be the second for those herds tested by the ring-test several months ago, but also will be used for those which were given individual tests previously as a second test. The "ring test" however will be applied only to those signed on the area plan for testing.

The collectors will report to the mobile unit Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock to secure bottles and equipment, then will visit the herds and bring back samples of the milk from each herd for the "ring test" which determines whether there is brucellosis within the herd. If the test shows a suspicion of the disease, then each animal in the herd is tested to determine which ones have the illnss.

The townships and the collectors secured so far include: Berwick, Stewart Lucabaugh; Butler, Martin T. Walter; Conewago and Straban, Fred Crouse; Cumberland, Howard Waybright and Clement Redding; Franklin, George E. Kane; Hamilton, Chester Loper; Highland, Walter Hay; Huntington, B. J. Griffie; Latimore, Paul King; Menallen, Myles Starner; Mt. Pleasant, Ralph Sanders; Reading, Raymond Spahr; Tyrone, Joel Carved and Wilmer Lady, and Union, James R. Erb Jr.

Rain-Swollen Rivers Take Heavy Toll In Worst Flood In Area's History; 92 Dead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain-swollen rivers in the Northeastern States kept on rampaging over their banks today, rolling up a heavy toll in life and property in the worst flood of the area's history.

With the peak of the flood still to come in some sections, the number of known dead in seven states had mounted to 92. Many others were missing.

Thousands Homeless

While downstream communities built hasty sandbag dikes and evacuated low - lying districts, stricken cities upstream reported with relief that the flood crest there had been passed.

Thousands were homeless and whole cities went without drinking water, electricity and gas. There was no news, good or bad, for worried relatives outside some flood areas. Telephone circuits remaining in operation were reserved for emergency use.

The governors of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut declared a state of emergency.

Bridges Out, Dams Gone

Bridge after bridge was reported washed out. Dams burst and torrents of water tore mercilessly at buildings and anything else in the way. Hazardous rescues were routine.

Troops and facilities in the 1st and 2nd Army areas were ordered to give all aid possible to flood-ravaged areas. Bailey bridges to provide temporary river crossings were being moved in from as far away as Marion, Ohio.

Helicopters fluttered overhead dropping supplies and rescuing people from roof tops and isolated scraps of high ground. The aircraft, a welcome sight to stranded

Here And There

News Collected At Random

American business has created close to nine million new jobs since World War II, neatly keeping pace with the demand, according to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

That, says the Chamber, should throw just about the last spadeful of earth over the grave of the notion that improved technology causes unemployment.

The nine million new postwar jobs cover all industries except agriculture. Government jobs are excluded. During the same period, the Chamber reports, the number of persons of working age also increased by about nine million.

These events took place during an era of expanded technology the like of which the world has never seen, the Chamber points out. New machines, new production methods, new sales and management skills exploded all over the industrial landscape.

The biggest boost in jobs came in the retail trades, in manufacturing, construction and the service industries. And while the number of farm jobs decreased due to increased productivity, these workers found jobs elsewhere, the Chamber points out.

The lesson these figures teach, the Chamber suggests, is that the net effect of better ways of doing things is to create rather than to destroy jobs.

Traffic Light Tragedy Ends As Ruined Victim Hangs Self

BALTIMORE (AP)—Louis Nezbed has added a pathetic paragraph to the story of a burned out traffic light.

The light is at the intersection of Milton Ave. and Orleans St., which carries heavy U. S. 40 traffic across Baltimore's east side.

One red signal burned out around midnight March 17, 1951.

Wrecks House

At 1:30 a.m. a big tractor-trailer truck breezed into the intersection, no light against it. A car, with the green, shot in from the left. They hit. The big truck careened into the building on the corner where Louis Nezbed ran a little plumbing supply shop and lived upstairs with his wife, Otila.

The Nezbeds were thrown from their bed. Louis almost was killed. His wife was hurt. The place caught fire. The shop and the house were a wreck. Louis Nezbed's hair turned white overnight.

He spent all his savings on medical bills and repairing the building. There wasn't enough left to get the business going again.

Awarded Appeal

The Nezbeds sued the trucker and a jury awarded them $21,000 in damages.

But the Maryland Court of Appeals at Annapolis said the accident was not the truck driver's fault. The burned out light was to blame — the city's responsibility. But the city cannot be sued for damages when something goes wrong in the exercise of its police powers. There was no way the Nezbeds could recover.

Everyone was sorry for them and a public subscription campaign raised $5,000.

Hangs Self

The Nezbeds bought another house and tried to make a new start. But Louis was 71. He still had aches and pains from his injuries. He brooded.

Late Thursday, Mrs. Nezbed found him hanging by his neck from a rope in the garage.

HEARINGS BRING LONG SESSION OF COURT ON FRIDAY

The Adams County court disposed of a number of domestic relations cases and other matters Friday afternoon in a session that ended at 5:30 o'clock, a half hour later than the usual closing time for court.

Daniel J. Scott, Gettysburg R. 3, was found guilty on a speeding charge following a hearing and was fined $10 and costs, with the fine to be paid to Cumberland Township.

Paul Wisler, Aspers R. 1, was found guilty of contempt of court because of an $199 arrearage on a support order of $32 per week for the support of four children. Sentence was suspended on the contempt charge however on condition he pay $40 per week until he had made up the arrearage. He was told that "failure to pay one week will cause the sheriff to lock you up on the contempt charge."

To Support Mother, 90

Following a rather lengthy hearing on a desertion and non-support case Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Eugene Austin, New Oxford R. D. agreed to "try again" to make their marriage successful and the case was continued generally.

The children of 90-year-old Louise C. Snyder, Gettysburg R. 3, reached an agreement in court by which each will pay $10 per month and the mother will reside with a daughter, Mrs. Myrtle B. Cassatt, New Oxford R. 2, who will receive $30 per month plus the mother's blind pension for her services. The remainder of the money will go into a fund to be administered by the probation officer for use in case of emergencies, such as sickness and for the funeral expenses. The children entering into the agreement included Mrs. Cassatt, Mrs. Emma V. Murray, Gettysburg R. 3; Harry W. Snyder and John S. Snyder, Philadelphia; Maurice C. Snyder, Harrisburg, and May S. Spellman, Gettysburg R. 3.

Richard M. Ripka, Emmitsburg, was ordered to continue paying $5 per week support, pay the costs and make up a $75 arrearage, following a long hearing.

Man In Wrong Court

James H. Smiley, Arendtsville, found himself in the wrong court, through no fault of his, when he appeared for a hearing on a desertion and non-support case brought by his wife. As the hearing progressed it was determined that Mrs. Smiley had previously brought a support suit against Mr. Smiley in York

CUSTODY FIGHT OVER SCHMIDT BOY IS LIKELY

RED BLUFF, Calif. (AP)—A custody fight loomed today over the 2½-year-old son whom Airman Daniel Schmidt saw for the first time when he returned last week from a Red Chinese prison.

Schmidt, 22, grimly filed a divorce complaint here yesterday against his 21-year-old wife, Una, who says she married logger Alford Fine last September when she thought Schmidt was dead. Schmidt asked custody of the boy, Danny, charging Una with being an "unfit mother" and with "extreme cruelty."

She Won't Consent

Her attorney, Harold Berliner, said in Nevada City:

"Una won't consent to giving up her son."

Una and Fine, he said, will continue living apart as "both consider it inappropriate that they live together until this is settled."

Schmidt, after meeting Una briefly in Nevada City, was quoted last week as saying she had done a "terrific job" with the little boy and pointed out it wasn't easy for a girl to bring up a child all by herself.

Schmidt filed the divorce suit at the Tehama County Court House stopping here en route to Portland, Ore., where he will visit his mother, Mrs. Nellie Peters.

Schmidt is traveling with Una's mother, Mrs. Walter F. Ferguson.

His attorney, Howard P. Welch of Sacramento, said he would serve Una with a copy of the divorce complaint as soon as he finds her. She is hiding out in the San Jose area with the little boy who, she says, calls Fine "daddy."

Schmidt's attorney, Welch, said the Air Force has advised him it is withholding the $200 monthly allotment from Schmidt which Una has been getting "until the matter is clarified." He said the divorce would be the usual California type—an interlocutory decree with a final decree after a year's wait.

JOHNSTOWN'S FLOOD IN 1889 IS RECALLED

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Some 66 years ago an earthen dam above this industrial and coal mining center in western Pennsylvania gave way with a tragic result that is recalled whenever the nation is confronted with a flood disaster.

Within an hour after the dam broke — May 31, 1889 — more than 2,000 persons in the Conemaugh Valley had been swept to their deaths.

Big Dam Broke

Twelve miles above Johnstown, then a city of 30,000, the dam on the south fork of the Conemaugh River filled to the brim. Spillways spewed water to their capacity.

The dam held back a lake 4,000 feet long and 500 to 3,050 feet wide. Its depth was estimated at about 70 feet. Millions of tons of water pushed against the earthen walls, reinforced with clay.

In the middle of the afternoon, it gave way.

777 Unidentified

Water pushed down the narrow valley toward this city, standing at the junction of the Stony Creek and Conemaugh River, at 70 miles an hour.

Within an hour it had swept bridges, houses, communities into its churning waters — and people, an estimated 2,200 of them. In Johnstown's Grandview Cemetery lie 777 victims of the flood, still unidentified.

The scene of horror and devastation has seldom been equalled in this country.

Police Close Down Young Boys Business

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Choate Kirby, 7, who lives near the Tulsa entrance to the Oklahoma City-Tulsa turnpike, noticed a lot of travelers were throwing empty pop bottles along the shoulders. He decided he could make some spending money picking up the bottles. To get into the fenced super-highway Kirby found a culvert big enough for him and his wagon.

Business was good for a few days until patrolmen found the boy pulling his loaded wagon along the shoulder. They warned him his business was illegal and closed him down.

GALLAGHER CASE TRIAL VERDICT TO BE APPEALED

NEW YORK (AP)—Sgt. James C. Gallagher says he will go as high as the U. S. Supreme Court if necessary in appealing a court-martial verdict that convicted him of murdering two fellow prisoners of war.

The court-martial yesterday announced its verdict after deliberating five hours. In addition to the unpremeditated murder of two Americans in a Korean POW camp, Gallagher was found guilty of collaboration with the Chinese Reds, mistreating fellow prisoners and informing on them to gain favored treatment for himself.

The military court of eight officers then sentenced him to life in prison at hard abor, the maximum penalty. Unpremeditated murder is equivalent to second degree murder in a civilian court.

Subject To Reviews

The decision is subject to two automatic reviews, first by the 1st Army commanding officer and then by a review board of Judge Advocate General's Office in Washington.

The 23-year-old Brooklyn soldier paled when the court gave its decision, but soon regained the composure he had maintained throughout the trial.

A 1st Army legal spokesman said Gallagher will be eligible for parole after serving ten years.

Camp Bully

Prosecution witnesses in the trial pictured Gallagher as a camp bully who threw two sick men out of the prisoners' hut and left them to freeze in the bitter Korean winter of 1951. They also told of his efforts to curry favor with his captors.

Other witnesses backed up Gallagher.

Delays Decision In Prowling Case

The charges of prowling and disorderly conduct against Omar Sloat, Adams House, are being "taken under advisement" by Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore, following a hearing Friday evening. Sloat renewed his $1,100 bail for appearance Sept. 12, at which time a verdict in the preliminary hearing is scheduled to be given.

Basehore said that he needed the extra time "to consult the district attorney and do some legal research" on points that were brought up at the hearing.

Borough police charged Sloat with trying to enter apartments at 17 N. Washington St. They arrested him earlier this week, after they saw a man emerge from the building and enter the Adams House. Sloat has denied the charges.

News Briefs

FORT BELVOIR, Va. (AP) — The Army today rushed seven water purification units to Scranton, Pa., which has been without drinking water because of floods.

Six of the units left Fort Belvoir shortly after midnight. The convoy was instructed to pick up a Maryland State Police escort to take it across that state and a Pennsylvania State Police escort to carry it into Scranton. Each of the units can produce 35 gallons of drinking water a minute.

Shortly after the first convoy left, Fort Belvoir dispatched a 50 gallon per minute unit mounted on a truck, with supplies for production of a million gallons of water.

The units were expected to be in operation in Scranton by 3 p.m. (EDT).

MATAMOROS, Pa., Aug. 20 (AP)—A $100,000 restaurant near this Pike County town burned early today in an aftermath of the floods which plagued the area.

The restaurant, built last summer and owned by George Numrich, was a part of the tourist village motel located between Milford and Matamoros.

The fire was attributed to waters from the flooding Delaware River which got into the basement and caused a short circuit.

DEATH TOLL IN RAIL CRASH 5

MARKED TREE, Ark. (AP)—The last four cars of a fast passenger train switched from the main line onto a siding yesterday, smashing a daycoach into parked boxcars.

Five persons, including a young mother and her baby, were killed. At least 21 others were hospitalized.

The smashup of the Frisco Railroad's Kansas City to Florida special came just outside this little east Arkansas town.

Most of the dead and injured were riding in the daycoach. The impact peeled and shredded the steel side of the car.

O. P. Rainey, Frisco traffic manager, said vibration apparently snapped a rod or pin, throwing the switch open.

APPEALS FROM

all of the 18,000 properties in the county were quickly spotted by the assessors when they checked the filled-out cards against the actual properties.

Sees Time Saving

Woods estimated that this fall, when the assessors again check the properties against the cards "the work should be done in much less time than this year. The system should result in savings to the county in the amount it needs spend for the assessment each year. For the most part the assessors will have only new developments and changes in present properties to worry about."

Woods added that while only 40 have appealed, a much larger number, running into the hundreds, have called at his office after receiving their notice of change in their assessment. "Ninety-eight out of a hundred were perfectly satisfied," he said, "after they had checked the figures. They were curious as to the reason for their new assessment, but when they checked the cards and found their properties were properly assessed, and checked the records of similar properties, they found they had been given a fair assessment."

The assessment books are open to the public and Woods noted that checks made by individual property owners have been valuable "in determining just how close we have come to establishing a fair value for properties."

Close Schools In Race Issue Furor

HOXIE, Ark. (AP) — The Hoxie School board summarily closed the public schools of this east Arkansas farm town yesterday to seek a way to calm the public furor over its admission of Negroes to the white schools.

In a terse statement, the board said, "the board votes to close the summer session of school at the end of six weeks in order to be able to give more careful consideration to the solution of the present school problem."

The schools weren't scheduled to shut down until Sept. 2. Classes start July 1 here, then recess during the cotton harvest.

RED SUSPECTS HIDE BEHIND AMENDMENTS

NEW YORK (AP)—A public relations man has cited five amendments to the Constitution in refusing to answer questions before the House Un-American Activities subcommittee probing Communist influence in the entertainment world.

Ivan Black, 53, appeared as one of the final witnesses yesterday in the windup session of the subcommittee hearings headed by Rep. Francis E Walter (D-Pa). The committee heard 23 witnesses in four days.

Black, once a Broadway press agent and now a public relations consultant to industrial firms, carried a copy of the U.S. Constitution as he took the witness stand

While a Broadway publicity man, Black said, he was once known as the 'No 1 Starmaker" through his publicizing of theatrical people.

When asked whether he had been a member of the Patrick Henry Communist Club of New York City about 1936, Black — refusing to answer — invoked the First, Fifth, Sixth, 10th and 14th amendments

Denies Red Ties

Harold J Salemson, 44, a foreign film importer and former Hollywood free lance writer, denied being a Communist but refused to comment on his associations or beliefs prior to July 1, 1948. He invoked the First (freedom of speech) and Fifth (involving possible self-encrimination) amendments

Of the other amendments cited, the sixth relates to the right of a speedy public trial, and the 10th reserves to the states powers not delegated to the federal government

Salemson also said he would have been more inclined to cooperate with the committee had not Walter "associated himself on Monday night with elements which I feel should be investigated."

The witness was referring to the chairman's speech at a New York rally of the Alliance, Inc, described as an anti-Communist organization

"Political Meeting"

Salemson termed the rally "a biased political meeting," adding:

"Obviously this committee is here not to investigate but to convict The chairman associates with un-American elements."

Walter replied:

"I was proud to be at the meeting Monday night and I assure you there was no person there who would ever invoke the Fifth Amendment"

David Kanter 46, production stage manager, was the final witness

Frank S. Tavenner Jr, committee counsel, read from minutes of the Aug 1 closed session in Washington at which the question of possible immunity for Kanter had been raised.

"That offer of the committee stands good today," Tavenner said.

Trapped By Reds

Kanter rejected the offer, saying. "Sir, I must tell you that I must take the same position that I took before"

Walter, summing up the hearings after adjournment, said: "I am sure the people of this community now have a picture of how innocent people are enlisted into the Communist conspiracy."

Walter also disclosed that Elizabeth Bentley, self-admitted former Russian spy ring courier, had been hired by the committee two weeks ago as a paid consultant. He said her job was temporary and would last about another month. Her salary is $500 monthly

Walter has said that hearings would resume in Washington in about a month.

Capture Cop Killer In Biggest Chicago Manhunt Since Dillinger

By CHARLES BANKS

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's greatest manhunt since the days of gangster John Dillinger ended last night with a 26-year-old cop killer begging.

"Don't shoot Don't shoot."

Despite the plea, ex-convict Richard Carpenter fought his captors to the end, though unarmed He wrestled with policemen who dragged him out of a tear-gas-filled third-floor apartment.

Driven Out By Gas

"No doubt about it. He was driven out by tear gas. The apartment was just loaded with it." said Detective Elwood Zuley, 40, one of the first policemen to grab Carpenter.

Zuley said the fugitive, who within a 72-hour period killed one policeman, critically wounded another and terrorized a family for 23 hours, made an apparent gesture of surrender by sticking both hands out through an open door

The detective said he grabbed one outstretched hand Patrolman John Kennedy, 54, grabbed the other. Together they yanked Carpenter into a narrow hallway

No Gun Found

The two policemen, aided by several other officers, wrestled Carpenter to the floor to escape a steady stream of gunfire and tear gas shells pouring into the apartment. No gun of Carpenter's was found in the apartment.

Kennedy said the slightly built gunman, described by his mother as harboring a passionate hatred for policemen, battled fiercely when handcuffed Carpenter was not wounded by police bullets.

But, said Zuley, Carpenter kept pleading: "Don't shoot. Don't shoot"

"Of course," Zuley added, "no one shot

Block From Theater

Carpenter was quicly hustled into a squad car under heavy guard and taken to the nearby North Avenue police station Milling crowds shouted "Kill him' as he was taken to the lockup.

He was captured just a block north of the Biltmore Theater where, on Wednesday night, he had critically wounded policeman Clarence Kerr, 26, in a gun duel. Kerr suffered a lung wound while Carpenter suffered a bullet wound in his right thigh

Kerr had tried to arrest him for the slaying, some 50 hours earlier, of Detective William Murphy, 34, in a subway station Police said Carpenter admitted slaying Murphy, who had arrested him on a subway train The young gunman was wanted in connection with a series of robberies.

Held Family Prisoner

After shooting Kerr, Carpenter fled the theater safely and ran a block to 2040 Potomac Ave. There, he forced himself into the second-floor apartment of Leonard Powell, 31, a truck driver Powell's wife Stella, 30, and their children, Robert, 7, and Diane, 3, were present.

Powell quoted the intruder as saying: "I'm Carpenter I just shot a policeman in the Biltmore Theater You've got to hide me."

From Wednesday night until his capture 23 hours later, Powell said, Carpenter kept his family virtual prisoners. He permitted Powell to go to work yesterday so as not to arouse suspicion.

"He acted like a little God," said Mrs Powell, recalling the experience "He was nervous at first But when he calmed down he began to brag of how he killed one policeman and wounded another He said he was smarter than they were."

Outmaneuvered

Carpenter's determination not to arouse neighbors' suspicions proved to be his eventual undoing. Their captor, Powell said, allowed the children to go out and play last night and he also permitted Mrs. Powell to sit on the front steps of the apartment building, as was her custom Once his wife was outside, Poell continued, he asked Carpenter if he might join her He said it might arouse neighbors' suspicions otherwise

Once outside, Powell huddled with his wife momentarily and decided on a plan. She took the children and moved out of gun range from the apartment window Powell scooted out of range also. He ran to a cigar store and called police.

It was only a few minutes later that Carpenter finally was captured, bringing to an end the biggest manhunt since police trapped Dillinger 21 years ago as he emerged from a movie theater. Nearly 500 policemen had been hunting the fugitive.

WORLD-FAMED KOREAN-YANK REFUSED HOME

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Dr Sammy Lee, world-famed Korean-American who twice won an Olympic diving championship, has twice been refused purchase of a home in Garden Grove the Chronicle said today in a copyrighted story.

Real estate operators in Southern California's Orange County refused to sell to Lee, now a U S Army major, because of his Korean ancestry, the Chronicle said

Lee announced several months ago he planned to practice in the area after he retires this fall. He is an eye, ear and nose specialist in the Army Medical Corps.

The Chronicle's Michael Harris said Gordon Tripp a Garden Grove real estate salesman, told him Lee was refused a $12,000 home because:

Line 8 Feet Apart

"This is a tract home. These people live eight feet apart. These people are not open-minded If we had a colored or Oriental family here, all hell would be raised

"I would rather have Dr. Sammy Lee myself than half the families here, but if you have one — a nice one — then you'll have others, including a little guy from a produce market who smells like hell"

The Lees tried to buy another house for $27,000 The promoter, H. J. Johnston, didn't sell

"I asked the neighbors whether they minded if I sold to Sammy," said Johnston. "They didn't say they objected, but they sure wished I wouldn't sell.

"The people right next door moved here from Long Beach because Japanese moved into their neighborhood. I have 10 lots to move. Every cent I've earned since I left the service is in this property"

Hurts My Country

From Ft. Carson, Colo., where he is winding up 12 years of Army service, Lee told the Chronicle:

"This doesn't hurt me, it hurts my country.

"Of course I'll fight it As a matter of principle Besides, I was raised down there and I belong there"

He's a graduate of the University of Southern California and interned in Orange County. He and his wife expect their first child soon

Lee won the Olympic diving championship in 1948 and 1952. He was serving in Korea last year when he was recalled to receive the Sullivan memorial award as the man who contributed most to American amateur sports in 1953

The State Department subsequently sent him on a three-months tour of Asia and the Middle East On that tour, Lee wrote from Ceylon to relatives here:

"Last night I had an argument with a rabid Communist who said the capitalistic world had subjugated the colored races long enough.

"Then I said if this is so why am I, a member of the colored race, sitting here as a world champion and a doctor of medicine?"

Co. G of the 109th Infantry with two days of field rations rolled out of the military reservation for its home armory at Stroudsburg to aid in flood evacuation The company is commanded by Capt. Gerald J. Shanley of East Stroudsburg.

The company interrupted its summer field training here to help in the flood areas

The infantry convoy consisted of four personnel carriers, a kitchen truck and two jeeps. State police escorted the convoy.

Maj. Gen. Henry K. Fluck, 28th Division commander, also ordered a helicopter to Stroudsburg to evacuate injured from East Stroudsburg to the Stroudsburg hospital to send down divers.

The war fleet was sent by Athens against Corinthian-held Siracusa, once Greece's greatest colony, in the days of Alcibiades.

The Siracusians defended themselves well in their fortress-guarded bay and the Athenian commanders decided to withdraw. Because of superstition, however, they waited until after the eclipse of the moon on Aug. 27, 413 B. C.

By then it was too late. The Siracusians trapped them by blockading the mouth of the harbor with the hulks of old ships. All but 13 of the Greek ships were sunk.

The Athenian shore force of 6,000 men was decimated and its survivors were sold into slavery.

Plan For Horse Show

A planning of the Carroll-Adams Riding Club was held on Thursday evening in the clubhouse at "Sunset Hill Farm," Littletown R. 1. The group completed plans for the program to be given at the club's second annual horse show on Sunday, Sept. 4. The show will be held on the club grounds, along the Menges Mill Road, and will begin at 11 a.m. on Sept. 4, with Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 5, as the rain date. The affair is being held for the benefit of the Hoffman Orphanage, near town, and the children of the home will be guests of the club for the show.

It was decided to conduct a refreshment stand, with homemade foods available, at the horse show. Each member is asked to be responsible for a dozen cup cakes or individual pies for the stand. It was reported that a fence has been erected at the grounds for the show. The area has been graded and a pump will be installed in the near future.

Thomas L. Cookson Jr. will serve as ringmaster for the show. Judges will be Ruth Bowers and Bud Stitely. Lawrence Haines will serve as master of ceremonies with Clyde W. Crouse as assistant. There will be 20 classes with each to be separately sponsored. Anyone desiring to sponsor a class is asked to contact Charles Humes, Hanover; Jean Heltzell, Gettysburg, or Clyde W. Crouse, Littlestown.

Sales Tax Embezzler Jailed And Fined

LEWISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A recently dismissed state employe pleaded guilty to charges of embezzling $1,809 in state sales tax receipts yesterday and was sentenced to four months in Mifflin County Jail.

Judge Paul S. Lehman also fined Graffius A. Barr, 46, Lewistown, $300 and ordered him to make restitution for the amount stolen.

David M. Barron, defense attorney, turned over a certified check to the court to cover funds missing while Barr was manager of the state sales tax bureau in Lewistown.

It was the first such action taken since the sales tax, due to expire Aug. 31, became law 22 months ago. Barr, dismissed June 11, was charged with 20 counts of embezzlement.

Jersey Auto Crash Kills State Airman

WEEHAWKEN, N.J. (AP)—A 29-year-old Coatesville, Pa., airman died in North Hudson Hospital yesterday from injuries suffered in an auto crash.

He was identified as Arthur Green (of 574 Coats St.).

Police said Green's car skidded into another auto Thursday night, throwing the serviceman beneath the second car. The other driver, identified as Albert Van Horn of Lyndhurst, was not injured.

Green was stationed at Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D.C.

During the 1954 season the Milwaukee Braves hit 29 home runs against the second place Brooklyn Dodgers. But they smacked only nine against last place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Rain-Swollen

flood victims, flew in from Army, Navy and Coast Guard stations.

Stroudsburg Hardest Hit

Flood waters apparently hit hardest at Stroudsburg, Pa., with at least 20 counted dead, and Waterbury, Conn., where at least 15 persons were reported to have lost their lives.

The Naugatuck River roared through Waterbury, tearing out power lines and sweeping away buildings. It was "the worst disaster Waterbury has ever seen," said Fire Chief Francis T. Scully.

Stroudsburg, a resort center in the Pocono Mountains, was left with all its bridges and main roads washed away. There was no drinking water or household gas for heating and cooking.

Trenton In Bad Shape

While Stroudsburg began the messy job of bailing out, cities further down the Delaware River system awaited the full fury of the torrent. At Easton, Pa., 40 feet of water broke a 53-year-old Delaware River flood record of 38.6 feet.

Further downstream lay Trenton, capital of New Jersey, reported already in "bad shape," with worse to come. Water swirled into the city's streets and civil defense officials declared an emergency.

Beyond that was populous Philadelphia on one side of the river and Camden, N. J. on the other, both anxiously watching the oncoming mighty flood.

Sand Bags On Blackstone

In Rhode Island the rain-swollen Blackstone and Mill Rivers burst through Horseshoe Dam and poured into Woonsocket, flooding a densely populated tenement section of the city. Five hundred families were evacuated just before the churning water moved in.

At Pawtucket further downstream, sandbag dikes were raised along the Blackstone's banks.

Hundreds of children at summer camps in southeastern New York were evacuated to high ground by helicopters and rescue boats.

Port Jervis, N. Y., a railroad center at the confluence of the Delaware and Neversink Rivers, was left with damage estimated at more than a million dollars after both rivers flooded the town.

Fire And Flood Together

Putnam, Conn., had both a fire and flood problem at one time. A magnesium plant caught fire during the day and burned late into the night. "The explosions have been terrible," reported Mayor John Dempsey.

At the same time, he said, the city was "absolutely helpless from the flood water of the Quinebaug and French Rivers. We've been evacuating people all day."

The devastating floods first started in Virginia on the heels of heavy rains that poured down after Hurricane Diane wore herself out in the Carolinas.

The storms swept through Pennsylvania and New York and on into New England. Record rainfalls all along the storm belt soon raised streams and creeks to dam-breaking proportions. The heavy run-off fed into the larger rivers that drain the area, bringing crisis floods.

GETS "LAWLESS COUCH"

OMAHA (AP)—A divorce suit property settlement statement filed in District Court here yesterday had the court clerk's office bug-eyed.

It listed an item awarded the husband as "1 lawless couch."

Hundreds of gardens, averaging a 16th of an acre are cultivated on the rights of way of British railways and they produce about a million dollars worth of produce each year.

TENSION HIGH AT CASABLANCA

CASABLANCA, French Morocco, (AP)—Tension mounted throughout troubled French Morocco today on the second anniversary of the ousting of nationalist-minded Sultan Mohammed Ben Youssef.

Early this morning French paratroopers were rushed to Khenifra to beef up the security garrison there after reports were received that 2,000 Zaian horsemen were advancing on the town of 11,000 persons.

The Zaians, ardent supporters of Ben Youssef, are Berber tribesmen who live in the Middle Atlas Mountains.

French commandos were flown in from Marseille and troops were brought in from neighboring Algeria to reinforce local security forces.

Public sympathy was running strongly in favor of Ben Youssef, exiled in Madagascar, and against the present Sultan Ben Moulay Arafa, picked by the French to take over when Ben Youssef was deposed two years ago.

Thirteen Moroccans were killed and 34 were wounded in rioting yesterday. Two French police inspectors were ambushed and wounded.

U. S. Restricted

U. S. Air Force personnel were ordered to stay on their bases today and American civilians, who were required to leave their homes wore identifying American flags on their lapels.

Curfews were clamped on large cities.

Stranded Pike Flaps About Flooded Yard

PORT JERVIS, N. Y. (AP)—The grim saga of the flood was eased a bit by what happened in Austin Crane's back yard.

Crane lives along the bank of the Delaware River here, which surged over its banks yesterday.

Child Dies In Big Refrigerator

STEPPVILLE, Ala. (AP)—A large electric refrigerator from which the food had been removed was a death trap yesterday for a baby boy, but his two sisters were revived.

Coroner Grady Moss said Jerry O'Neal Burns, 19 months, was dead upon arrival at a nearby clinic. Geraldine Burns, 10, and Elaine, 6, revived when fresh air reached their lungs.

Moss said the children were left at their farm home while the parents worked in a field. He said Terry Odell Burns, twin of the dead boy, apparently closed the door on the three after they crawled inside.

The mother, Mrs. James O. Burns, found them when she noticed the food was out of the refrigerator.

Water Fountain Is Dubbed "Old Faceful"

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — The drinking fountain at the airport here is one of those that waits for people to bend down real close to get a drink, then spouts forth with unexpected power to splatter the face.

Airport authorities have finally put up a warning sign with local color.

Old Faithful, the geyser of Yellowstone Park, is but 70 miles to the northeast.

Herman Wehmeler, Philadelphia Phillies pitcher, likes to hurl against the Pittsburgh Pirates. He has won 16 of his last 17 starts against the Bucs.

CAB IS ASKED FOR OK ON LINES

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has been petitioned for permanent certificates by Allegheny Airlines, Washington, and Piedmont Aviation, Inc., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Recent legislation requires the board to make permanent at least half the routes of local service airlines. Previously, the lines were temporarily certified for periods of three to seven years.

Allegheny asked for CAB permanent authority at terminals at New York City, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Washington, Cleveland, Buffalo, Baltimore, Atlantic City and Huntington, W. Va., and at these intermediate points:

Jamestown, N. Y., Hagerstown and Salisbury, Md., Wheeling and Parkersburg, W. Va., and the Pennsylvania cities of Harrisburg, Erie, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Altoona, Johnstown, Lancaster, Williamsport, Bradford, Oil City, State Franklin, DuBois and Bellefonte.

Allegheny asked for continued temporary authority at Lock Haven, Pa., Dover and Wilmington, Del., Asbury Park and Trenton, N. J., and Cumberland, Easton and Cambridge, Md.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The area of suspicion in the Atlantic some 2,500 flattened out and shows no signs of developing into a storm.

The Miami Weather Bureau said there is still some rain in the area and barometric pressure is relatively low, but there is nothing to indicate a storm development.

The season's fifth hurricane, if one develops, will be named Edith.

FIND GALLAGHER GUILTY ON FOUR KOREAN CHARGES

NEW YORK (AP)—A court-martial today found Sgt James C. Gallagher guilty of four charges involving unpremediated murders, mistreating and informing on fellow Korean War prisoners and collaborating with the Chinese Reds.

Gallagher, 23, of Brooklyn, was accused of throwing three Americans from a prison camp hut into frigid outside temperatures and leaving them to die.

The eight-man court announced its verdict at 12:15 p.m. after almost five hours of deliberation.

Unpremediated murder is the equivalent of second degree murder. The maximum penalty is life imprisonment at hard labor.

Gallagher was not sentenced immediately.

The court returned verdicts of innocent on two specifications.

It found him innocent in the death of one of three soldiers, an American prisoner of war, in 1951 in Korea.

It also found him innocent of an allegation that he had told his Chinese Red captors, in connection with Sgt. Lloyd W. Pate of Augusta, Ga., "If I was in your place, I'd shoot him."

College Receives Vedder Paintings

Gettysburg College has received a group of paintings and pastels by Elihu Vedder, noted American artist of the nineteenth century, as a gift from the American Academy of Arts and Letters. Best known for his paintings "The Lair of the Sea Serpent," "The Lost Mind," "The Questioner of the Sphinx" and his unique illustrations for Fitzgerald's translation of "The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayam," Vedder also painted mural decorations for the Congressional Library, Bowdoin College, the Carnegie Institute of Pittsburgh and many other public buildings. The pictures he left at his death were recently bequeathed to the American Academy, to which he was elected in 1908, by his daughter, Miss Anita Vedder.

Like the Academy's annual distribution of contemporary American paintings, purchased under the Hassam Fund for presentation to museums, the distribution of the Vedder pictures is part of a continuing program to further the interests of the fine arts in this country.

SEVERAL KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK THIS MORNING

MARKED TREE, Ark (AP) —The Kansas City-Florida Special, fast Frisco Railroad passenger train, was wrecked near here today. Several persons were reported dead and a number injured.

"They are still pulling people out of the wreckage," W. G. Key, superintendent of Marked Tree schools, said. "Several persons were badly hurt and I have been told there are some dead."

Key said the diesel - powered train, carrying 13 cars, remained partly on the rails.

Ambulances Called

"The last two or three cars are the ones in bad shape. One coach is about 50 per cent demolished, and the last part of the dining car has been destroyed, crushed right in."

The train left the rails on a 20-foot embankment southeast of the Marked Tree depot.

Ambulances and doctors were sped from Memphis, Tenn., 50 miles to the southeast. Other ambulances reached the scene from nearby Arkansas cities.

At Memphis, the railroad said that four cars were involved—two sleepers, the diner and one coach. It said the last four cars remained on the rails.

The wreck occurred at 9:30 a.m. The train had left Kansas City at 11:25 last night and was due in Memphis at 10 a.m.

PORT JERVIS, N.Y. IS SWAMPED BY FLOOD WATERS

PORT JERVIS, N.Y., (AP) — This southeastern city of New York state was virtually isolated today after torrential rains washed out highways and raised the Delaware River to flood stage.

At least 1,200 persons were evacuated from their homes.

7½ Inches Of Rain

Thrity-three children from Jubilee Ranch, a boys and girls camp in nearby Godeffroy, were rescued from their flood-surrounded camp by a helicopter from the Stewart Air Force Base at Newburg, N.Y.

Not far away at the confluence of the Neversink River and Runoff Brook, water lapped around Eddy's Farm, a summer resort, and an Army duck was brought in to rescue vacationers.

With 7½ inches of rain falling since Wednesday night, storm sewers in the city overflowed. Unofficial observers said the Delaware River crested to 25 feet, breaching a dike along the bank on the Port Jervis side in many places.

More than 250-300 homes were flooded, some almost to roof top, in the area known as the first ward section.

Traffic on the Erie Railroad was blocked west of Port Jervis because of washouts.

The flood waters ruined the newsprint supply of the Port Jervis Union Gazette and cut off telephones. The paper set up a teletype machine in the office of the Tri - State Associated Telephone Corp. to receive its Associated Press news report and copy boys were running copy to the news office where it was planned to get out a six page paper this afternoon. Linotype machines and presses were unharmed.

Damages were estimated in millions of dollars in Sullivan and Ulster counties where flood forced evacuation of many summer cottage areas.

At Goshen, the one-mile track on which the Hambletonian harness race was run two weeks ago, was all pond. In Orange County, a highly agricultural area, many farms were flooded. Below Middletown, some homes were flooded by the raging Wallkill River.

Along the New York Thruway, water was cascading down the mountainside between Suffern and Harriman. The water was running off into the Ramapo River, already far beyond its banks.

Sales Tax To End On August 31

Secretary of Revenue Gerald A. Gleeson today issued a reminder that the present 1 per cent sales tax will not expire until midnight, August 31 and that all persons required to collect the sales tax must continue their collections until the expiration date.

"The Department of Revenue is aware of the fact that some store owners have ceased to collect the tax," Gleeson said, "and these people are in violation of the law, and will be subject to audit by the Department."

RIOTS CONTINUE WITHIN MOROCCO

CASABLANCA, French Morocco (AP) — Looting and violence by Nationalist rioters kept pressure on the French government today during high-level talks aimed at granting more Moroccan autonomy.

French Resident Gen. Gilbert Grandval flew to Paris and went almost immediately into conference with Premier Edgar Faure this morning.

As they were talking, demonstrators put the torch to several European shops in a native quarter near Meknes and looted others.

Casualties toll in the protectorate rose almost hourly Thursday the figure was put at nine dead and many injured.

The tense atmosphere was reflected at the guarded palace of aging Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa, who has been granted a few more days to try and form a broadly based Cabinet to ease the situation. Few observers gave him a chance.

Motor Travel Tripled; Park Guests Hit New Peak On Sunday: State police here estimated that the volume of traffic on county highways over the weekend tripled over the average wartime flow and National Park records show the travel over the battlefield reached its peak since the rationing of gasoline began.

Motorists were taking advantage of the first weekend of unrationed gasoline since early 1942. Good weather weather helped increase the number of weekend motorists.

State police said only two mishaps were reported—both on Saturday.

Based on the actual count of guided trips over the battlefield on Saturday and Sunday it was estimated that 5,472 persons visited the battlefield over the weekend.

Town Observes War's Closing At Impressive Exercise Here: At simple, impressive 30-minute exercises in center square Wednesday evening, this community officially celebrated the end of the war.

Chaplains of the two World Wars delivered the principal addresses in which they called upon the audience that filled a large part of the square to give thanks to God for victory, remember the sacrifices that made victory possible" and to help build a world in which a just and lasting peace may continue."

Judge W. C. Sheely presided over the exercises which were marked with appropriate music and an impressive conclusion in which the crowd turned to the west with bowed heads in silent prayer as Mrs. Henry M. Scharf sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Bugler M/Sgt. W. L. Baldwin sounded Taps from atop the First National Bank building.

The principal addresses were delivered by Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, rector of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church and a chaplain in World War I and Chaplain (Major) Justus Liesmann, a chaplain of World War II who served with combat troops on the Normandy beaches.

Cost of the war—Almost $300,000,000,000 so far.

Casualties—Over 1,068,216 with more than 250,000 of them killed.

Price Controls—Soon to be lifted from items the demand for which will exert no inflationary pressure.

Food rationing—High military requirements likely to make it necessary for some additional time.

Unemployment—Some 5,000,000 workers in munitions, shipbuilding, aircraft and ordnance plants expected to be jobless within 60 days. Some due to leave labor market, with private industry likely to absorb much of the balance.

A cow may consume 150 to 200 pounds of grass daily if it is available.

Today's Talk

NATURE'S TEACHERS

Nature is so competent! It teaches with its endless numbers of teachers, but it never deceives. There is a regularity about it — it couldn't afford to be anything else! Nature lasts. It is endless, and all life within it is regulated, such as its animals, birds, insects and even the trees and flowers.

The farmer looks up to the sky, or takes note of the atmosphere, decides upon the direction of the wind, and then goes about his work, arming himself and preparing his work accordingly. He has faith in Nature — it's his silent partner.

At my summer island home I have for years tamed the red squirrels to come at my call and take peanuts from my hands, but they will eat sparingly, and invariably hide, or store, a whole peanut in the shell. If it is broken, then the squirrel will eat only as much as he wants at the time. Then he will bury or store the rest. I have noted that these friends of mine come regularly for their food: Three times a day — and the same as our dining hours — breakfast, lunch and dinner. Did they get that idea from us? Or were we the borrower?

An animal will not eat when it is ill; it devotes a great deal of time to resting and relaxation. Ever note a herd of cattle in a field, lying at rest in the afternoon, chewing their cuds? If a cow is frightened, it makes a difference with the milk. But it is not easily frightened!

There are so many things we may learn from Nature: The fish in the sea, the birds in the forest, the clouds in the sky, the chemicals in the earth — all teach us something. The good Earth is man's miraculous store-house and laboratory.

There is a bravery in Nature that is amazing — even in the inanimate things, like a tree, how it bends to the wind and storm, but lives on, even after it has been crippled and bruised. Some animals, like the fox, often defeat man's cruelty. I read of one caughte in a trap, that knawed all its legs off but one. It knew it couldn't do anything with but one leg — so died. Nature's first inventions are legion!

CRIBBAGE

With: "fifteen two and eight are ten"
Upon a narrow board
Three centuries, and more, good men
Their cribbage hands have scored.
And strangely, by the rules they made
Three hundred years ago.
The game today is being played
Without a change to show.

What throw the crib and what to hold
My father taught to me,
"Turn up the jack, take two," he told,
"Each run is good for three.
You get two points for every pair,
And as the game goes on
Remember here and everywhere
It's two for thirty-one."

Now this is what I'd like to know
And often wish I knew:
Who was it in the long ago
First counted "fifteen two?"
Who thought of "cribbage" for its name,
The pairs and double runs,
The pegs, the board, and left the game
For dads to teach their sons?

DELAWARE AT NEW HIGH AS FLOODS KILL 37

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The rampaging Delaware River surged toward Philadelphia today, setting up another blow at already groggy eastern Pennsylvania—where the spewing flood waters have cost at least 37 lives and left millions of dollars in damage.

The river was reported to have crested at 40 feet upstate smashing a 53-year-old record of 38.6 feet set at Easton. It was menacing Easton and then was expected to swing its weight at Philadelphia.

In the state's largest city, more flooding was anticipated just as cleanup details were starting to set in order the damage wrought by the storm which deluged the state on Thursday.

Lack Drinking Water

Meanwhile, the two most critically affected communities, Scranton and Stroudsburg, limped into their second day without drinking water, arterial highways, gas for heat and cooking and reduced power facilities. At least 20 were known dead in the Stroudsburg area.

Thousands were reported homeless in the areas surrounding the communities. A state of emergency was declared by local government officials.

Gov. George M. Leader made a flying trip to Stroudsburg last night to inspect the situation. After returning to Harrisburg, he wired President Eisenhower, asking that the northeastern part of the state be declared a disaster area and be made eligible for federal relief funds.

1,700 Homeless

Seventeen hundred persons were homeless in one segment of Bucks County, north of Philadelphia, and more faced evacuation as the Delaware bore down on Philadelphia.

All mines in the northeastern region, where hard coal is produced, were flooded and were expected to be out of operation for at least four or five days.

The State Highway Department said, road damage would be at least 10 million dollars. Reports from Stroudsburg said in Monroe County alone 47 bridges were washed out and completely destroyed.

"Watery Rummage Sale"

The Delaware was described like "a watery rummage sale of furniture and knick-knacks."

National Guard patrols were on duty in Tamaqua, another hard-hit coal community, and Stroudsburg.

The Hawley Dam overflowed flooding Hawley in Pike County, north of Scranton and Stroudsburg. Streets and the business center of Honesdale, a neighboring community were reported under at least three feet of water.

Navy helicopters rescued 400 Boy Scouts from Treasure Island, a Philadelphia boys camp in the Delaware River near Point Pleasant. Evacuation was then completed of 108 boys at camp Pennington, on another island on the river.

Railroads Restored

At Tamaqua, it was announced 10,000 electric blasting caps floated out the Atlas Powder Co. into the flooded Schuylkill River. State police warned that even though the caps are wet they are dangerous because they are wired to explode on impact.

The Pennsylvania Railroad said all service affected by the flooding had been restored to normal. The Reading Railroad said it hoped to have its operations completely back to normal Saturday.

"HASTY HEART" AT TOTEMPOLE

"The Hasty Heart," John Patrick's comedy-drama which the N. Y. Post has called "the best play to come out of the war," will open at the Totem Pole Playhouse on Monday evening. Although the action of "The Hasty Heart" is set in a British army hospital in Burma, and most of the play's characters are soldiers, the play is not essentially a war play, but rather one about a group of soldiers of many nationalities who just happened to meet because of a war.

An entertaining blend of heart-warming comedy and poignant drama, "The Hasty Heart" is the moving story of a young Scottish sergeant whose stubborn pride causes him to reject rudely the friendship offered him by fellow-patients and an equally sympathetic hospital nurse. Just as the soldier learns to take and give friendship for the first time in his isolated life, he finds out that he has only a few weeks to live, and is plagued by the feeling that what he is really being offered by his companions is pity.

Doug Robinson will be seen as the over-proud Sgt. Lachlen Mac Lachlen, who believes that "sorrow is born in the hasty heart," in Totem Pole's production of this Broadway hit. June Prud'homme will be seen as Margaret, the nurse, who accepts the dour Scot's proposal to marriage. Cliff Cothren, Harold Schwartz, and Chet Szajna will be seen respectively in the roles of American, Australian and New Zealander soldier-patients, and the other roles will be played by Sam Solito, David Ford, John Eames and Tom Vawter.

"The Hasty Heart," which has been staged by William H. Putch and designed by Tom Vawter will continue at the Totem Pole for seven performances through Saturday, August 27.

Returning Chinese Charge U.S. Cruelty

TOKYO (AP)—Three Chinese students, recently returned to their Communist homeland, told a story today of what they called "interrogations, persecutions, threats, arrests and jailings" while being detained 3½ years in the United States.

Peiping radio, in a lengthy propaganda broadcast, identified them and the schools they attended as:

Miss Sha Yi-shen, University of California; Huang Pae-tung, Texas A & M and Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, and Tu Yen-yae, Pennsylvania State University.

All said they lived in fear. They claimed there were others being held under similar conditions. Red China has made the same charge in ambassadorial talks now under way at Geneva to free citizens of the two nations.

The average number of people who have moved into California each year in recent years is 284,000, more than those moving out.

PRINCESS MAY BE BETROTHED

BALLATER, Scotland (AP)—Thousands of Scots jammed this hamlet today to picnic with the royal family and perchance find some hint whether Princess Margaret's 25th birthday tomorrow may set the stage for a bethrothal announcement.

There was no doubt the fateful birthday has whetted interest in the royal lawn festival beyond all expectations. At 25 Margaret will be free to marry—if she wishes—Peter Townsend, handsome 40-year-old wartime pilot and divorced father of two children.

On all lips was the unanswered question. Will she or wont she?

The bazaar, organized by Queen Mother Elizabeth to raise money for the nearby Crathie Church, was set up at Albergeldie Castle near the royal summer residence of Balmoral Castle. It is expected to draw some 10,000 visitors, particularly in view of the impending birthday.

Tin-base alloys are widely used in costume jewelry and such pieces as ornamental handles for tableware.

White Sox Split Double-header With Kansas City As Cleveland Climbs With Win Over Detroit

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

No matter who wins the pennant, it begins to look like the American League champion is going to be a reluctant ruler of the roost. The four contenders stay within first place, but they always manage to blow a chance to take command.

Boston started it, dropping the final game of a three-game set at New York after splitting the first two. Then Cleveland dissipated a two-game lead of last weekend by losing three in a row.

Next, the Yankees, who looked as if they were rolling, misfired after winning seven straight and, though still on top, settled for a slim one-game edge.

Chicago choked up yesterday, dropping the second game of a Kansas City 5-3 after slipping ahead of the Yanks, who were rained out at Boston, with a 6-2 victory in the first game.

Cleveland, meanwhile, climbed back to within a game of first place, and within three percentage points of the White Sox, by ending its slump with a 5-3 decision over Detroit.

The White Sox got two unearned runs for an early lead in the nightcap, but still couldn't get home safe. Vic Power smashed a tworun homer in the sixth off loser Harry Byrd to tie it. And after Sherm Lollar homered the sox back into the lead, 3-2, in the bottom half of the frame Byrd collapsed in the seventh.

Bill Renna doubled, Joe DeMaestri tripled and Wilbur Shantz singled for two runs and the A's had it. Arnie Portocarrero checked the Sox on six hits, but walked four—leaving 10 runners stranded.

Virgil Trucks won the opener, his 12th although forced out when hit by a line drive in the sixth. The Sox picked it up as the winning run scored on three singles in the fifth and Minnie Minoso smacked a two-run double in the seventh.

Cleveland waltzed in as two Tiger errors led the way to a four-run eighth. That broke up a 1-1 duel between rookie Frank Lary and Herb Score, the Indians's southpaw smash, who fanned 13.

Detroit, now 9½ games behind in fifth place, scored two in the ninth as Score walked two and gave up a double to Frank House, but Ray Narleski came on to save the young lefty by getting Harvey Kuenn on a pop fly.

Washington and Baltimore were not scheduled.

In the National League, Brooklyn broke out of its "slump" to score three runs on five hits while pasting Jim Hearn in the first inning and rumbled on to an 8-4 decision over the New York Giants. Jim Bessent won in relief as the Giants ousted Karl Spooner with two in the third and two in the fourth.

Redlegs Pass Cubs

Cincinnati moved back into fifth place, displacing Chicago with a 2-1 victory over the Cubs. Four singles after two were out in the sixth scored the Redleg runs off loser Paul Minner. Art Fowler gave six hits for the triumph.

The Milwaukee Braves defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 5-3 in the only night game. Warren Spahn recorded his second victory in four nights. Bill Bruton hit a home run with one mate on and Chuck Tanner hit one with the bases empty for the winners. Larry Jackson was the loser.

Jalopies To Race At Williams Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa.—Wheels will spin in hub-to-hub duels when daredevil jalopy drivers return for the 18th in the weekly series of thrill-a-second stock car races on Roy Richwine's half-mile Williams Grove Speedway tonight.

Postponed last week because of rain, the card will get underway at 8:30 p.m.

George Speck, Jonestown auto mechanic, will battle to protect his point lead when he meets Lyle Beahm, Campbelltown garage operator, and current runner-up in point standings, and other hard-riding chauffeurs in the large field.

Speck is now out in front with 1,400 points, with Beahm trailing with 1,209 points.

ONLY 35 REPORT FOR FIRST GHS GRID SESSION

There's going to be a manpower shortage on the Gettysburg High School football squad this season unless more candidates report for drills in the near future.

Coaches Howard Shoemaker and his assistants, Ray Ellis and Don Bickel, were disappointed Thursday evening when only 35 candidates reported at the gymnasium for the opening workout. They are hopeful more will decide to report this evening for the second practice session at 6:30.

The heavy rainfall Thursday forced the Warriors to abandon plans for an outdoor drill and confine activity to the gymnasium.

The program for the season was outlined, basic principles were discussed and the first play was given during the indoor drill. A blackboard discussion concluded the practice.

Gettysburg's opening game is listed for three weeks from tonight when Westminster will come here.

Ned Brownley, Junior High coach, assisted Thursday evening and will continue until his squad reports following the opening of school.

INDIA BREAKS WITH PORTUGAL

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India broke her last official links with Portugal today as a result of the killing of Indian marchers into Portuguese India Monday.

Prime Minister Nehru's government ordered Portugal to close its consulates in Bombay, Madras and Calcutta. Reports from Nova Goa, said the government there had ordered the Indian consul and his staff to leave.

Reports from Nova Goa, capital of Portuguese India, last night said 1,500 Indians were massing at the frontier, presumably intending another "peaceful invasion" in support of Nehru's demand that Portugal surrender her Indian territories and permit their merger with the Indian Republic.

Leaders of the "Free Goa" campaign said today, however, that there were only about 800 waiting to attempt an entry into Goa and all but 70 of these had been asked to return to their homes.

They said the step was taken to avoid further bloodshed and that the 70 will remain as representatives of all Indians demanding the Portuguese retire from India.

2 Teen-Agers In Junior Title Play

FLORENCE, S. C. (AP)—Two teenagers far from home, Carole Jo Kabler of Roseburg, Ore., and Joanne Gunderson of Seattle, Wash., met here today in an 18-hole match for the U.S. Golf Assn. girls' junior championship.

Each registered a 2 and 1 victory in yesterday's semifinals.

Carole Jo, whose awkward-appearing swing belies the strength of her game, eliminated Betsy Cullen of Tulsa, Okla., and Joanne prevailed over Anne Quast of Everett, Wash.

'Bolts Start Drills With 32 Candidates

Littlestown, undefeated co-champions of the Laurel Conference last season, opened pre-season football drills Thursday when a squad of 32 candidates reported to Coach Wilbur Gobrecht.

This morning the Thunderbolt squad worked out from 8:30 until 11 and an afternoon drill was held from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Littlestown will open its season Friday evening, September 16, when West York will play on the Bolts' field in a conference game. West York was co-champion with Coach Gobrecht's outfit last year.

CANNERS OPEN DRILLS WITH 34 CANDIDATES

Fifteen lads who took part in at least one varsity game last season were among the group of 34 candidates who reported at Biglerville High School Thursday evening for the start of pre-season workouts.

Thursday's session was confined to the gymnasium due to rain and consisted of mapping plans for the coming season and outlining plays.

This evening the Canners are scheduled to work out under the lights. Next Monday the squad goes into camp at the South Mountain Fairgrounds, near Arendtsville, for a week.

Squad Members

Among the candidates reporting for the opening workout were: Ends, Don Hartzell and Ed McGlaughlin; tackles, Ken Pitzer, Roy Schwartz, Bob Trimmer, Dennis Hess; guards, Ralph Mentzer, Bud Birgensmith, Howard Hensley, Pete Weigle and Dick Wickline, who transferred from Gettysburg last year; centers, Clair Fetters and Robert Clark; quarterbacks, Wallace Rice, Eugene Shaffer, Dick Byers and Ken Baltzley; left halfs, Ronald Koontz, Nelson Weber, Russell Bolen; right halfs, Bryant Roe and John Constable, and fullbacks, Jim May and Don Rentzel, another transfer from Gettysburg.

Graduation took its heaviest toll in the backfield and rounding out a capable ball-toting combination poses the biggest problem for Bill Coradetti who is starting his second season as pilot of the Canners.

Assisting Coradetti are William Krebs and Donald Sterner. The latter, a graduate of Gettysburg High School and college, is joining the Biglerville staff for the first time.

ARNOLD PALMER IN TORONTO LEAD

TORONTO (AP)—Arnold Palmer, a recruit to golf's money ranks, is heading towards an all-time low score in the Canadian Open championship. Right now, he's making a mess of par figures.

Palmer, 1954 U.S amateur champion from Latrobe, Pa., headed 102 golfers into the second half of the 72-hole tournament today with a 13-under-par 131 built on rounds of 64 and 67. At the rate he's going the 268 mark set by South Africa's Bobby Locke in 1947 is well within his reach.

Palmer's rounds were good enough to send him into a two-stroke lead over Jackie Burke Jr., of Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., who put together a 67 and a 66 for a 133. Charlie Stifford, the first-day leader with a record-equalling 63 for any one round in the 46-year history of the Open, blew sky high to a 74 over the 6,428-yard par 72 Weston Club course.

Thursday's best score was a 65 by Dave Douglas of Newark, Del., who won the Open two years ago.

5,000 Marksmen In Columbia Gun Meet

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Five thousand marksmen blast off at clay and canvas targets today with shotguns, rifles and pistols in two of the biggest national gun meets held.

One, the Grand American Trapshoot at Vandalia, will attract about 2,000 shotgun enthusiasts from every state, Canada, Mexico, Cuba, the Canal Zone and elsewhere. The National Rifle matches at Camp Perry will have a field of about 3,000 from every state and every foreign station where U.S. military forces serve. Each branch of service will be represented.

The trapshoot runs through Aug. 27. The Camp Perry affair through Sept. 10.

Guard Presents DSM To Gen. Stackpole

The Distinguished Service Medal of the National Guard Assn. will be presented to Maj. Gen. Edward J. Stackpole, Pennsylvania National Guard (retired), at the annual Governor's Day review Saturday.

The review will climax the first week of a two-week summer encampment at Indiantown Gap for Pennsylvania's National Guard.

Maj. Gen. A. J. Drexel Biddle Jr., state adjutant general said the presentation to Stackpole will be made by Maj. Gen. Milton A. Reckord, Maryland adjutant general, who will represent the national association.

Gen. Stackpole commanded the PNG in 1946-47.

Some 11,000 national guardsmen will march in Saturday's parade.

Michigan State's largest home football crowd was 52,472 for the Notre Dame game in 1952.

Two Softball Games Tonight

After two postponements because of rain, the Softball League playoffs are scheduled to be resumed this evening at the Recreation field.

In the opener at 7 o'clock the VFW and Texas Lunch will meet and the second game will pit the Moose against the Eagles. Both are best-of-five series. The Texas Lunch holds a 2-1 advantage over the Vets and the Moose lead the Eagles 2-0.

DELONE STARTS WITH 15 VETS ON GRID SQUAD

A squad of 51 candidates, including many promising youngsters from Gettysburg, reported for the opening football practice at Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown, Thursday. The first drill was held in the gym due to rain.

This morning the squad held an outdoor workout and repeated this afternoon.

Coach Alex Bell will send his Squires through morning and afternoon drills each day. Squad members will be served a noon day meal in the school cafeteria.

According to Coach Bell, the Squires will use the T-formation this year. Richie Hemler, a Gettysburg product, has particularly impressed Bell among the candidates for quarterback.

Plan Family Gathering

That led to an exchange of letters and the arrival of Mrs. Quinn here Wednesday to visit with her newfound relatives. Six of the original 11 children of the late Samuel Joseph McKinney, including Mrs. Quinn, are living. Several years ago the five others, believing they were the last survivors, held a reunion here. Mrs. Quinn was shown a picture taken of the other five at that time.

She also has been busy looking over hundreds of pictures showing the family and relatives, the cousins nephews, and nieces, who have been born since Mrs. Quinn left the family home 39 years ago for Fort Worth, Texas, and disappeared.

Mrs. Quinn plans to spend several weeks here, and is visiting relatives daily. In the meantime the family is planning another "family reunion" for the now six brothers and sisters.

Back Injury May Sideline Ashburn

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Outfielder Richie Ashburn of the Philadelphia Phillies, the National League's leading hitter, faced possible sidelining tonight in the Phillies' clash with the Brooklyn Dodgers because of a minor back injury.

Ashburn has been under heat treatments for the ailment, described by a club physician as an inflammation of a nerve root and muscle in the upper back. The Phillies said Ashburn might be in the lineup if the back responds to treatment.

He suffered the injury in Wednesday night's game with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

NAMED GRID COACH

Charles Albert Musselman, Hanover, who graduated from Gettysburg College in 1950, was appointed head football coach at Edgar Fahs Smith Junior High School, York, at a meeting of the York School Board Thursday evening. Musselman formerly served as a physical education and health instructor at Hanover Junior High School. He succeeds John H. Gross who resigned to accept at position at Enola High School.

CONFERRING ON NEW SITE FOR DODGER GAMES

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—President Walter O'Malley of the Brooklyn Dodgers and Mayor Robert Wagner went into a high-level conference today and on the results could hinge the future fate of the Brooks.

The Dodgers are going to play seven home games in Jersey City next season and that announcement whipped city officials into action. They know O'Malley means business in his efforts to have a new field with adequate parking facilities built for the Dodgers.

Before entering the mayor's chambers, O'Malley revealed that Ebbets Field would be sold at the end of the 1957 season.

City Bond Issue Out

"That means," he said, "we'll play 77 home games somewhere in 1958. I hope we'll play them in Brooklyn if things move fast enough."

O'Malley vetoed the idea that the city float a municipal bond issue to build a new stadium as has been done in Cleveland, Baltimore and Kansas City.

"That's out," he said emphatically. "I wouldn't want to have baseball tied up with politics in any way. All I ask of the city fathers is their help in condemning city property."

O'Malley has the site of the proposed new park all picked out. It is in downtown Brooklyn on the site of the present Long Island Railroad station. The Brooklyn official family thinks it can be done. Others aren't so sure.

One of the city's top legal authorities said:

"The city cannot condemn property for the Dodgers. The courts have decided time and again that professional baseball is not in the public interest."

This is a requirement if condemnation proceedings are to be instituted.

Meanwhile, both Jersey City, the neighboring borough of Queens, invited the Brooks to resettle.

O'Malley said the Brooks have six million dollars set aside to start the park. All they need is a place to build it.

SAYS GIANTS MAY MOVE TOO

NEW YORK (AP) — Walter O'Malley, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said today that both the Dodgers and New York Giants might move their baseball franchises out of New York City.

The Brooklyn executive made his statement at a meeting with Mayor Robert Wagner and other city officials at Gracie Mansion, the mayor's residence.

O'Malley said if a suitable site isn't found for Dodger games, Brooklyn may move away. He added:

"Personally, I believe the problem is bigger than the Dodgers alone. If anybody went, the two teams (Dodgers and Giants) would go.

"But that doesn't mean we couldn't play within the general area of New York City."

The mayor promised the problem of a new baseball stadium would be discussed by the city's Board of Estimate, probably at its meeting next Wednesday.

Wenksville, Taneytown At Home For Opening Games Of South Penn Playoffs Sunday

Wenksville and Taneytown will be the home teams for the opening games Sunday of the annual semi-final playoffs in the South Penn Baseball League as the result of action taken at a meeting Thursday evening at the American Legion Home.

Third-place Bonneauville will be the opponent of the regular season titlists, Wenksville, while Hunterstown will play at Taneytown. All games will start at 2 p.m.

A flip of a coin decided the positions of Bonneauville and Taneytown in the playoffs. The teams finished the league season tied for third place with identical records of 12-9. The coin toss placed Bonneauville in third place and Taneytown in fourth place.

Best-Of-Three

Each series will be a best-of-three affair with a similar series to be staged between the winners to decide the playoff champion. A coin will be tossed to decide the site of the third game if required.

The league will notify umpires for Sunday's games and thereafter arrangements for officials will be up to the home team. Two umpires from the Cumberland Valley Association will handle the semi-final tilts while three officials will be used for the final series.

Norbert Felix, league president, presided at the meeting which was attended by all officers and managers of the four top teams which will take part in the playoffs.

Pen-Mar Finishes Season On Sunday

A pair of postponed games in the Pen-Mar Baseball League, scheduled for Thursday evening, were rained out and it is doubtful if they will be played—depending upon the outcome of final games listed for Sunday. Thursday's rainouts included Cashtown at New Windsor and Union Bridge at New Oxford.

Concluding regular season games listed for Sunday are as follows:
Blue Ridge Summit at Cashtown.
Thurmont at New Oxford.
New Windsor at Emmitsburg.
Fairfield at Union Bridge.

RAIN FORCES TENNIS DOUBLES TOURNEY INSIDE

BROOKLINE, Mass., (AP)—Men's play in the 75th National Doubles Tennis Championships moved indoors from Longwood's waterlogged grass courts today in an unprecedented shift forced by a two-day rain and a withdrawal threat by U.S. and Australian Davis Cup players.

It is the first time in the long history of the doubles tournament sponsored by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn. that the men's competition has been moved indoors on covered courts.

The decision was made yesterday after Billy Talbert, U.S. Davis Cup captain, informed officials he would withdraw his four players if the tournament ran past Monday.

Talbert said, "My job is to get the boys ready for the Davis Cup matches — not the national doubles." He told officials he needed time to prepare the U. S. team for defense of the cup against Australia in the Challenge Round starting next Friday in Forest Hills, N. Y.

Under the new arrangements, the tournament should end Monday instead of the original Sunday finish. The men's competition was scheduled to resume today on the covered courts. Women's doubles, already at the quarterfinal stage, have been put off until the grass courts again are ready.

U. S. Davis Cuppers Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas, top-seeded among domestic entries in defense of their national doubles title, also held the national indoors doubles championship.

Australia's Rex Hartwig and Neale Fraser, the top-seeded pair among foreign entries, are competing in the doubles at Longwood.

Old Timers Game Recarded Sunday

The Old Timers' baseball game, originally scheduled to be played this evening at Littlestown between Littlestown and Hanover, has been rescheduled for Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock due to wet grounds.

At 1:30 p.m. Sunday a parade, including the Littlestown High School Band, players in the Littlestown Little League, and Old Timers, who will ride in antique cars, will leave the high school building and journey to Memorial Field for additional ceremonies prior to the game.

The Littlestown squad will drill Saturday at 1 p.m. Any squad member needing a uniform is asked to get in touch with Marvin Breighner.

Bulldog Popularity

The present-day appearance of the bulldog is almost entirely the deliberate work of man. It has been achieved through some 700 years of effort by breeders to produce the perfect bulldog. Perfect, that is, for the purpose for which he originally was bred: bullbaiting. His pushed-back nose, for example, was developed to allow him to breathe while retaining an iron grip on the bull's nose. The shifting of the shoulders to the outside of the body, a phenomenon not duplicated in any other breed, made it possible for the dog to crouch low to the ground away from the bull's horns.

The breed, once scorned by decent society as the associate of rogues and vagabonds, has been enjoying a new wave of popularity since Ch. Kippax Fearnought won the Best-in-Show at the Westminster dog show last February. SPORTS ILLUSTRATED, which carried an article on the breed in a recent issue, calls them the most misunderstood and maligned members of the canine world. The magazine article points out that despite their ugly, sluggish and menacing appearance, bulldogs are among the most amiable and even-tempered of breeds. They make excellent pets and house dogs, and are particularly good with children thanks to an inherited stoicism that makes them almost impervious to abuse.

All the points contained in the breed's standard of perfection today were at one time useful and essential for the bulldog to perform its man-assigned chores of fighting other dogs, bears and bulls, starting in the 13th century.

It was among the butchers that bullbaiting first sprang up but the infamous sport was quickly taken up by royalty and commoner alike. In breeding to get the best fighting dogs butchers worked to produce a smaller, quicker animal physically equipped to pin and throw a bull 40 times its weight.

Robin Roberts Wins 20th Game For Sixth Straight Season; Beats Dodgers 3-2

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Robin Roberts pitched the National League back into the headlines last night—shoving the American League race into the shadows for the moment—as he matched the record of four modern-era baseball immortals by winning 20 games in six consecutive seasons.

To do it, the Philadelphia ace out-dueled Brooklyn's big Don Newcombe for the second time in six days, beating the league-leading Dodgers 3-2

Only Lefty Grove, Christy Mathewson, Walter Johnson and Mordecai (Three Finger) Brown—all Hall of Famers—had managed the six-year success since 1950

AL Scrap Unchanged

The battle between Roberts and Newcombe (18-4) at Philadelphia and its record-equaling climax took the play from the AL scrap, which remained unchanged as all four contenders won.

New York's Yankees maintained a full game lead over Chicago and Cleveland by whipping Baltimore 8-0 behind Whitey Ford's two-hitter. The White Sox stayed three percentage points up on Cleveland by defeating Detroit 3-0 while the Indians went 11 innings to edge Kansas City 2-1.

Gives One Walk

Boston, still 3½ games shy, walloped Washington 8-0.

Roberts, the meticulous right-hander combined his usual control with tight fielding support and some luck to win No. 20. He walked only one, but gave seven hits—one Roy Campanella's 27th homer—and needed three double-plays to hold Brooklyn's lead to 2-0 going into the eighth.

Then Newcombe, beaten by the same score by Roberts last Sunday, gave way. After checking the Phils on two hits and retiring 15 men in order, the Dodger right-hander was smacked for singles by Eddie Waitkus, Jim Greengrass and Andy Seminick and his lead was trimmed to 2-1.

In the ninth, Newk didn't even get a man out, and enabled the tying run to score on his own throwing error. Then Willie Jones laced a single to left, driving in the winning run and handing Newk who didn't walk a batter, his fourth loss in a row.

The 29-year-old Roberts, who came up in 1948 and since 1950 has won 20, 21, 28, 23 and 23, made it tough all around for Newcombe, The Dodger ace, a hitter in his own right, fanned twice

The Yankees bombed Baltimore with home runs by Gil McDougald and Mickey Mantle (his 31st) for a 2-0 lead in the first. Only Dave Philley's great stab saved Jim Wilson from giving up three homers in succession as Yogi Berra lined one toward the right field stands between the McDougald and Mantle blasts.

Billy Pierce brought the White Sox home safe, nolding the Tigers on six hits while striking out six and walked one while Walt Dropo delivered a two-run homer off Steve Gromek in the fourth. The Tigers now are 10½ games behind.

Indians Hold Pace

The Indians stayed on pace as Don Mossi and Ray Narleski saved the day. Mossi relieved Mike Garcia with none out and runners on third and first in the 11th. He fanned Harry Simpson, Narleski then fanned Hec Lopez and got Jim Finigan on a force out to end the A's threat. Hal Naragon's lead-off single against reliefer Tom Gorman and pinch singles by Ralph Kiner and Dale Mitchell won it.

Sammy White got the Red Sox rolling with a sixth-inning homer that broke up Frank Sullivan's duel with Bob Porterfield. Sullivan won his 15th as the Bosox got four in the seventh off Porterfield and three in the eighth off Dean Stone.

In the other National League games, Del Crandall and Hank Aaron each slugged two-run homers as Milwaukee beat Chicago 7-0 and moved to within 13 games of Brooklyn; Vern Law held on after homers by Willie Mays (38) and Johnny Antonelli and Pittsburgh rallied to beat the New York Giants 8-3, and Cincinnati spotted St. Louis three runs in the first before Johnny Klippstein choked off the spree in relief to win 7-5 behind homers by Gus Bell and Wally Post.

Martinsburg Moose Play Here Tonight

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Moose, regular season champions of the local Softball League, will meet the Martinsburg, W. Va., Moose on the Recreation Field.

Each year these teams clash in what has practically always turned out to be a close and well-played game and tonight's contest is expected to follow the same pattern.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The magic number is nine for the Reading Indians to clinch the Eastern League pennant.

Any combination of nine Reading victories and defeats for the second-place Williamsport Grays in the 18 games remaining will eliminate the Grays from the race.

Reading swept a doubleheader 4-0 and 4-1 at Williamsport last night to push the Grays to 11½ games off the pace and practically out of the running.

At this stage of the campaign rained-out games that cannot be played are as bad as losses for the contenders. The season ends Labor Day.

The number for the third-place Binghamton Triplets, a fraction of a point behind Williamsport and also 11½ games behind, is eight. Any combination of eight Reading triumphs and Binghamton losses will eliminate the Trips, who dropped a doubleheader 6-4 and 5-2 to the Albany Senators at Binghamton.

The Allentown Redbirds split with the Johnstown Johnnies, 3-5 and 4-3, to pick up a game moving into a near tie for second place. But the Birds have lost an extra game and their not-so-magic number is seven

At Schenectady the Blue Jays remained in contention by splitting with Elmira. A combination of six Reading triumphs and Schenectady losses will eliminate the Jays, who are 13 games out.

Elmira won the first game 11-5 and the Jays came back 5-4 in the second.

VFW Teener Tourney Finals On Tap Today

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Beatrice, Neb., and Johnston, R. I., lined up today for the championship game of the Veterans of Foreign Wars national teener baseball tournament.

Beatrice edged Clovis, Calif., 1-0 yesterday and Johnston nipped Gloucester, N. J., 4-0, in extra innings to enter the final.

Johnston scored all its runs in the ninth frame in its game with Gloucester. Teener games regularly run seven innings.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

QUICK CHIEF IS WINNER ON BAD LUCK OF RIVAL

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Quick Chief's bank roll was near the $10,000 mark today and he had a strong hold on the 3-year-old pacing title thanks to a bit of bad racing luck that threw his keenest rival out of contention in the $71,040 William H. Cane Futurity at Yonkers Raceway

The Chief, purchased by potato farmer John Froelich of Brookville, N.Y., for $5,500 as a yearling, upped his total earnings to $91,125.35 as he picked up $35,164.80 last night with a comparatively slow clocking of 2:11.1 for a mile and one sixteenth in the richest pacing event on record. The world record for the distance is 2:07 4-5 and the track mark 2:08.

Costly Break

But it might have been a different story if Libby's Boy, the Chief's most persistent rival all season, hadn't broke stride and lost at least three lengths as the leaders straightened out for the last sixteenth of a mile drive to the finish line.

At the time, Libby's Boy, driven by Clint Hodgins and owned by Dave Resnick's Peter Pan Farm of Washington, Pa., was only a half-length back and gaining fast.

As Libby's Boy broke stride, Meadow Ace from Octave Blake's Newport Stock Farm of South Plainfield, N.J., rapidly closed in on the Chief until only a neck separated them at the finish.

Libby's Boy regained stride in time to finish third.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Norristown and Ellwood City meet today for the Knee-Hi championship of the Connie Mack Baseball Youth Tournament.

The teams gained the finals yesterday on a wet diamond at Doylestown's War Memorial Stadium. Norristown beat Bishop Prendergast of Delaware County, 2-1, and Ellwood City defeated Allentown Boys' Club, 4-1.

Amateur Baseball Field Cut To Eight

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The field of 16 teams was cut to eight today as the 11th annual All-American Amateur Baseball Assn. Tournament went into the fourth day of play.

Four of the eight teams boasted 2-0 records, including defending champion New Orleans.

Today's schedule, in the double knockout tournament, put Buffalo vs. Maryland State and New York vs. Waterbury in the lower bracket. All have 2-1 records.

The undefeated teams were scheduled this way: Milford vs. Allentown (Pa.) and New Orleans vs. Washington.

NEW YORK MAY BECOME GHOST BASEBALL TOWN IF CLUBS LEAVE

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—New York City today faced the alarming possibility of becoming a "ghost" baseball town housing just one major league team.

The Brooklyn Dodgers have threatened to move and Brooks' President Walter O'Malley predicted that if his club pulls out the New York Giants will, too. O'Malley pointed out that the Dodgers have drawn 350,000 spectators to the Polo Grounds in 11 games this year while the six other National League clubs have attracted 390,000 fans in 48 games.

"If one team goes, the other will go," said O'Malley. "It's unlikely that one team or the other would move."

Tossed A Bombshell

O'Malley tossed a bombshell into the baseball world earlier in the week when he announced the Dodgers would play seven home games in Jersey City next year. He followed that with a threat to pull out of Brooklyn if a suitable site is not found for a new park.

With that in mind, city officials, headed by Mayor Robert Wagner, called a meeting yesterday.

Out of it came the following:

1. O'Malley is serious in his threat to pull out of Brooklyn.

2. The Giants in the person of owner Horace Stoneham are behind O'Malley.

3. O'Malley's last hope for a site in downtown Brooklyn was shattered.

4. Talk of a great municipal stadium was revived.

5. City Hall is worried.

"We are willing to stand the gaff until 1958," O'Malley told the mayor in discussing declining revenues, "but not past it."

Meanwhile Bernard F. Gimbel, president and chairman of the Board of the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau, urged Wagner to consider building a city-owned stadium.

"Great events are presently bypassing New York City for lack of adequate stadium facilities," he asserted. "We might have obtained the 1960 Olympic Games with a stadium to seat 100,000. New York lost the Army-Navy game because of its lack of proper facilities."

Wagner said he would ask the Board of Estimated to appropriate $50,000 to study the problem.

PALMER LEADS CANADIAN OPEN, 21 UNDER PAR

TORONTO (AP)—Arnold Palmer, who abdicated the United States amateur golf title to try his luck with the professionals, has a golden opportunity today to win his first top-money prize.

With a five-stroke lead over the field, a man size blow-up by the 25-year-old Palmer seemed about the only thing that could keep him from taking the $15,000 Canadian Open, a turbulent tournament already churned up with ducking spectators who have become shot targets, a hole-in-one and the most fearful par-beating this suburban Weston Golf Club course has ever taken.

The Latrobe, Pa., golfer took his big margin into the final 18 holes with a third-round eight-under-par 64 yesterday. Coupled with his 64-67 in the opening rounds, his total is an almost incredible 195—21 strokes under par for the three rounds and the lowest 54-hole score ever carded in the 46-year-old tournament.

Needs 68

Palmer needs a 68 today to equal a 263 Canadian Open record set by a namesake, Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., who established the mark three years ago over the St. Charles layout at Winnipeg.

Qualifiers include Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., with 202.

He will get $300 extra for his football coaching duties and $200 as wrestling coach.

He will succeed Calvin A. Musselman, who has been named by the York School Board as head football coach at Edgar Fahs Smith Junior High School there.

Springers Lose Opening Playoff

York Springs dropped its opening game in the best-of-five semi-final playoff series in the Bi-County Baseball League at Newville Friday evening 6-5 after a three-run rally fell short in the final inning.

Friendship won its opening game with Centerville 2-1.

Jim Gilbert Makes Tennis Semi-Finals

Jim Gilbert won the third and deciding set from Hugh M. McIlhenny, 6-0, to enter the semifinals of the Teen-Age Tennis Tournament Friday evening. The two had split the first two sets, with McIlhenny winning the first and Gilbert the second. Gilbert will next play Rod Steinour, with the winner meeting Sid Steinour in the finals.

The attendance for the last week at the Recreation Field was held down by the rains. Officials estimated it as 460, as compared with 895 for the last week of last year.

YOUNGSTOWN, WASHINGTON PONY FAVORITES

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Youngstown (Ohio) and the host team representing this southwestern Pennsylvania community held favored positions today as the Pony League World Series hit the third round.

Two of the eight teams were eliminated yesterday as they suffered their second defeats in the double knockout event. If today's schedule is completed three more will fall by the wayside.

San Antonio (Texas) eliminated New Brunswick, beating the New Jersey outfit on the strength of a one-on homer by third baseman Charlie Davis in the sixth.

North Charleston (S. C.) eliminated Greensboro (N.C.) with a 9-3 victory.

Others Scheduled

Today's schedule had North Charleston meeting San Bernardino (Calif.) with one sure to be eliminated as each had 1-1 records. San Bernardino was edged 5-4 by Youngstown yesterday.

Two other teams with 1-1 records also were scheduled, these being San Antonio and the Chicago Marquettes. The Chicago team was an 8-3 loser to Washington yesterday.

Joint Action Needed On Tax Leader Says

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader contended today that it is "the joint responsibility" of both GOP and Democratic leaders to agree on some compromise tax program to replace his classified income tax, killed by Senate Republicans.

Leader's comment was in reply to Sen. Rowland B. Mahany, Republican floor leader, who said responsibility to institute any tax program rests with the Democratic-controlled House.

Another compromise tax conference is scheduled for Monday.

Texas Lunch And Moose Series Monday At 7:30 Will Open League Title

The Texas Lunch and Moose will meet Monday evening at 7:30 on the Recreation field in the first game of the best-of-five championship series for the playoff title of the Softball League.

Both teams gained the final series by registering victories Friday evening. The Texas Lunch trounced the VFW 19-9 in the opening game to capture its semi-final series 3-1 while the Moose made it three in a row over the Eagles in the nightcap 13-8 via a five-run rally after two extra innings.

In Friday's opening game the Texas Lunch took advantage of the wildness of Hoak and Bosak to tab seven runs and never trailed although the Vets came up with five runs in the top of the fifth frame to make the count 9-7 However, the Lunchmen put the game in the last of the same frame with eight runs, Timbers pounding a homer with a runner aboard to feature the attack.

Clarence Bartholomew gave the Vets but three hits, two to Buckley, but got in hot water several times due to nine passes. Clarence Dorm finished the game for the Vets after relieving Bosak in the first frame.

Dick Heintzelman rapped three singles and a double to lead the winners' attack Timbers poled two singles in addition to his homerun while Fissel collected a pair of triples and single.

The Moose, regular season champs, were forced to go nine innings before topping the Eagles 13-8 in the second contest.

After getting off to a 5-0 lead in the first inning and hiking their margin to 8-2 in the top of the third, the Moose yielded four runs in the bottom of the third and single runs in the fourth and seventh which enabled the Eagles to tie the county. The tying run resulted on walks to McGlaughlin and Everly, and an infield error.

McCauslin led off with a double to open the ninth He scored on McKenrick's single. Sam Staley then poled a homerun for two more tallies. A single by Bud Knox and doubles by Brennan and Decker accounted for the scoring of the final runs.

The Moose punched out 19 safeties with Bob Decker rapping three doubles and a single. Brennan and McKenrick each chipped in with a trio of safeties.

Little secured two of the seven hits gained by the Eagles.

HEARINGS BRING

County and an order had been entered there What she sought to do, she said, was to obtain additional support. She was told that she would have to seek an increase through the York County courts where the original order was entered.

However another case, which started in Fulton County, was handled in Adams County, because Judge W. C. Sheely is president judge in both counties, and arrangements could be easily made. The order in Fulton County against Ellworth E. Keefer, Shirleysburg, was for the support of one of the couple's five children. Mrs. Keefer, now a resident of Gardners R. D., was seeking support for the four other children who are now with her and formerly were with the father. The proceeding was a lengthy one which the court finally cut short by noting that "everyone is trying to turn this into a custody case, when what we have before us is a desertion and non-support case and that is all we can properly handle at present." The court directed that Keefer pay $28 per week for the support of the five children, and Judge Sheely said he will hand down an order in Fulton County ending the support order there for the one child.

Father To Pay

Ray Warren, Gettysburg, was scheduled to appear before the court Friday for a report on payments of support and costs, but the matter was continued to September 19.

Earl G. Hardman, Fairfield R. D., was directed to pay $8 per week for the support of a 12-year-old daughter and pay the costs, following a hearing on a support case.

Leroy C. Corbin, Fairfield R. 2, brought into court for failure to pay costs on a dismissed non-support case, told the court he had been out of work and unable to pay, paid $15 Friday and was given two weeks in which to pay the remainder of the costs.

Gets Six Months To Pay

Calvin L. Lovett, Breckenridge St., was given six months to pay the costs and make restitution on a charge of violation of the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation laws. He had previously paid $109 on the approximately $520 bill. He agreed to pay $90 more on Monday and pay off the balance in six months and was warned that failure to make prompt payments would cause him to go to jail.

The support order against William D. Stonesifer, 68 W. Middle St., was reduced from $15 to $10 per week for two children following his report of decreased earnings.

DR. SAMMY LEE WELCOME NOW IN GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. (AP)—Things will be different the next time Dr. Sammy Lee comes to Garden Grove.

Lee, an Army major, a physician and a two-time Olympic diving champion, was rebuffed twice—because he is an Oriental—when he tried to find a home in this quiet little city in lush Orange County.

But yesterday citizens of Garden Grove, aroused by the news, rallied to Lee's support.

Realtors, physicians and politicians urged Lee, now serving with the Army Medical Corps at Ft. Carson, Colo., to come to Orange County to find a home.

Believes In Americans

Said Lee: "My belief in the American people is substantiated."

The Long Beach Press-Telegram said the major had accepted its offer to fly him and his family here.

Lee said however, that an imminent addition to his family and studies for a medical speciality board examination might delay his return until October. He is due to be separated from the Army this fall.

His parents came to California from Korea 50 years ago. Because of his Oriental ancestry, two deals for homes fell through in Garden Grove, Lee said.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Four Veterans' Units Start Movement To Combine Holiday Observances; Sons Of Union Veterans, United Spanish War Veterans, American Legion And Veterans of Foreign Wars To Act On Resolution: A movement to combine and coordinate the efforts of the four veterans' organizations of Gettysburg—Sons of Union Veterans, United Spanish War Veterans, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars—to observe fittingly all holidays throughout the year got under way at a meeting of representatives of the four organizations in the parlors of the Hotel Gettysburg Tuesday evening.

It was stated at the meeting that observance of Decoration Day and Armistice Day in Gettysburg should be on a dignified basis and that by co-ordinating the efforts of all the veterans 'organizations all activities would embrace the various organizations and that the program might be enlarged or elaborated upon. It also was emphasized that by perfecting an organization or committee comprising representatives of the four organizations, observance would be assured for Gettysburg.

Says England Is Last Friend Of U. S. In World: Washington, Aug. 14 (AP)—Secretary Knox urged the House military committee today to approve compulsory military training legislation because he said if England should be defeated "we will be left without a friend in the world."

Repeatedly asserting that the United States faced the most serious crisis in history, the Navy secretary asserted:

"In the event that England goes down—and I pray to God that that won't happen—we'll be left without a friend in the world."

However, Knox said, in event of a British defeat, there would not be an immediate attack on the United States but rather a German effort to "calm our fears" and to "interrupt preparedness measures we are taking."

Ellen Spangler Becomes Bride In Local Church: Miss Florence Ellen Spangler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Spangler, Gettysburg R. 4, became the bride of Bernard S. Rehmeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Rehmeyer, New Freedom, in a wedding ceremony performed by candlelight at 7 o'clock Thursday evening in Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church here. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Howard S. Fox, pastor, before an assemblage of relatives and friends that filled the church to capacity.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Pauline Spangler, as maid of honor. The best man was David Rehmeyer, Philadelphia, brother of the bridegroom. Clyde Spangler, York, the bride's brother, and Earl Albig, Pittsburgh, were the ushers.

The bride graduated from Gettysburg high school in 1936 and for the last four years has been employed in the office of the Gettysburg Furniture companies. Mr. Rehmeyer graduated from New Freedom high school in 1933 and from Gettysburg College in 1937.

Today's Talk

THE BOOK APPEAL

A friend of mine and I were talking about how people got started in the reading of books. He told me of a chap who was presented with a copy of a book by Jim Tully. It was called "Beggars of Life." This boy had never read a book before in his life, but this one aroused his interest. He heard there were several of Tully's books in the New York Athletic Club library. So he got a job as bell boy there that he might explore those other Tully books.

Nearly every treasured book I have, by authors who wrote many books, came one else told me about or else some other books praised its worth, leading me to it. Many a wonderful book has introduced me to a new friend. Go into a good second-hand book shop and note how such a place becomes a natural democracy. No snobbery, no segregation, no boast among books. The great and unknown side by side in a library or book shop.

There have been written books for every type of mind and for every mood. Many have been the books that have changed the entire course of a life. The appeal of books is a universal one. Some one writer is always near to suggest something of interest or profit to us. I have never mentioned a book in this space that wasn't a good and worthy one — one that demonstrated itself to me first.

The friendship of books is something that never leaves one. At almost any moment, especially at home, a book can be called to you and, in a few minutes, everything is forgotten and your silent friend and you are one! You can't always get in touch with your human friend, but you and his book may go on an excursion together, or comfortably rest and silently converse.

There is no public institution that has a greater influence for good than the public library. It is an investment that no town, or city, can afford to be without. It has changed the course of many a life. It has enriched every city that has taken it to its heart.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Nature's Teachers"

Just Folks

CHANGE-WORKER

The baby came the other day.
Now there's a cry to hear.
And be as careful as they may
There will be pins to fear.

There will be moments of dismay
Which turn the blood stream cold,
When some one in an awkward way
The baby starts to hold.

There will be bills that must be paid or things they'll have to buy.
There will be changes to be made
And feedings to supply.

The baby came the other day
And this is plain to see.
Much different by night and day
Both life and home will be.

DEFENSE DEPT. OVERLOOKED RED POW TREATMENT

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The armed forces failed to prepare American servicemen, who became prisoners of war in Korea, for the Red Chinese technique of indoctrination and brainwashing.

This is acknowledged by the Defense Department's special committee—made up of high government officials and top trained officers — which has just issued a report on the POW problem.

It recommends the department begin a program to prepare American servicemen against Communist questioners if they are captured in the future. Any such preparation in the past, the committee said, was "decidedly inadequate."

Lessons Learned

There were some lessons to be learned from the Communists in World War II but the Defense Department either didn't learn them or failed to foresee the turn they'd take.

The committee, reviewing the treatment of POWs in World War II by the Axis powers and the Communists, reported:

1. The Germans' treatment of American prisoners was "fairly punctilious," although perhaps more from fear of American reprisals than public opinion.

Japanese Brutal

2. The Japanese were brutal but not "subtle" with American prisoners. In their tortures and atrocities they were being vicious for the sake of viciousness or were seeking military information. They were not trying to indoctrinate their captives or seduce their minds.

3. The Russians gave a hint of things to come by their treatment of German prisoners. They herded them into political camps and besieged them endlessly with Marxist teachings to indoctrinate them with communism.

4. The Red Chinese, in their civil war with Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Chinese, also put their Nationalist prisoners into political camps and tried to convert them to communism.

No Defined Code

That civil war continued until a few months before the Korean War. So when they got into that, the Red Chinese used the same methods of indoctrination on American prisoners, with some additions.

The armed forces, the committee said, have never had a clearly defined code of conduct for American prisoners after capture. So the committee produced a code which President Eisenhower laid down as the code for the future.

40 Chinese In U.S. Free To Leave

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials said today there probably are about 40 Chinese former students still in this country who want to return to Communist China.

But they emphasized that, unlike the 41 Americans held in Red China, the students here are free to leave at any time they wish.

The student issue has been raised by Red China in ambassadorial negotiations at Geneva, where the United States seeks freedom for Chinese-held Americans.

Government experts estimate that a black snake has a value of $3.75 for rodent control.

Ends Four Years In Navy Air Service

Paul Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Oyler, 162 York St., has returned here after serving four years in the air branch of the U. S. Navy. He was separated from the service last week at San Diego.

He served as a storekeeper and parachute rigger and for more than three years was stationed in Hawaii. He arrived home on Tuesday.

NAVY BOARD CALLS LANDY

MARCUS HOOK, Pa. (AP)—Eugene Landy, who was denied a Naval Reserve Commission on grounds his mother is a former Communist says he will accept a Navy Department invitation to appear before a board of review.

The 21-year-old honor graduate from the U. S. Merchant Marine Academy had just returned from 11 days at sea as a seaman aboard an oil tanker.

"I'm sure the Navy wants to be fair about this," Landy said last night. "Of course, I was bitter on graduation day when I failed to receive my commission. It was supposed to be my big day—and ... Wash...

"But I had a lot of time to think it over during my 11 days at sea and I'm not bitter now. I believe a mistake like this might do some good for others in a similar fix."

Landy was handed a letter dated Aug. 11 from the Navy Department inviting him to appear at his convenience before a review board of officers to be called by the secretary of the Navy. He said he would wire his acceptance. His mother lives in Bradley Beach, N. J.

Completes Week Of Special Training

Pvt. John A. Gantz, 19, son of A. C. Gantz, Aspers R. 1, recently completed a week of special training at Fort Crockett, Tex.

Highlighting the training schedule was a tactical road march through civilian areas. Units of the 1st Armored Division, regularly stationed at Fort Hood, use Fort Crockett as a summer training area.

Private Gantz, a loader in Company B of the division's 100th Tank Battalion, entered the Army in September, 1954, and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

NEW YORK (AP) — Bernard M. Baruch, financier and elder statesman, celebrated his 85th birthday today. His office said he intended to spend the day quietly with his family at their upper East side home.

People whose grandparents were all born in one area are more apt to be nearsighted or farsighted than those whose grandparents were born in communities far distant from each other, says the Better Vision Institute.

SOME SCHOOLS REMAIN WHITE

DOVER, Del. (AP) — The State Board of Education reported last night that of 62 school districts in Delaware, 15 have announced plans to integrate classes with the start of the fall term next month.

In addition, nine Negro schools said they were ready for immediate integration. Seven schools did not answer the board's request for integration plans.

The remaining 31, all white schools, said they were not ready for integration and gave "lack of facilities," "overcrowding" and "sociological pressures" as the main reasons.

After studying the replies, the board of education adopted a resolution rejecting "lack of facilities" as adequate reason for not formulating an integration plan.

Neither are "sociological pressures" adequate reason for not adopting integration, the resolution added.

Assistance Is Offered

The board said in districts where such pressures are claimed, "a prompt and reasonable start would require immediate steps to foster a climate in which orderly integration might take place."

The board offered assistance to all the local districts and asked frequent reports from those which are not integrating immediately.

Of the seven schools which did not reply, one is in Newcastle County, two in Sussex and four in Kent.

Milford, scene of last fall's boycott and demonstrations by Bryan Bowles and his National Assn. for the Advancement of White People, was among the eight Kent County districts rejecting integration at this time.

Milford is on the Kent-Sussex border.

IKE INVITES PRESS TO RANCH

FRASER, Colo. (AP) — President Eisenhower lowers the privacy bars a bit at his Rocky Mountain vacation ranch here today to provide a look at a relaxed kind of presidential life.

He invited newsmen, accompanying him from Washington and the Denver Summer White House, to visit the ranch for a glimpse of how he and his 7-year-old grandson David have been spending their time there.

Up until today the press has been barred from the President's secluded retreat. The President has not left the ranch since he arrived Tuesday afternoon from Denver, and newsmen have had to depend almost entirely on White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty for reports.

Those reports have been on a variety of activities—trout fishing, golf practice, pistol target shooting, work on an oil painting, cooking—and the official government business which always must be handled where a president is.

EYE NEW SUSPECT

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Forecasters watched an area of suspicion some 2,500 miles east-southeast of Miami today but there was no hint of a new storm.

"No development is indicated for the next couple of days, at least," said Gordon Dunn, chief storm forecaster in the Miami Weather Bureau.

The world population increased by 35 million people last year.

Much Damage Can Be Done To New Cars By Failing To Favor Them With Exact Service Needed

By FREDERICK C. RUSSELL

Unfortunately accidents are better at abolishing motorists than motorists are at abolishing accidents.

Calls For Exact Service

Time continues to demonstrate that considerable damage can be done to new cars by not favoring them with the exact service they require. Often a slight modification in specifications requiring a different technique. Factory changes are coming along faster than usual because cars are more complicated and more is demanded of them in the way of performance.

One company made a change in the intake manifolds after early 1955 production so as to accommodate two different makes of carburetors. A number of changes have been made in the current automatic transmissions. Factories regularly issue special bulletins to their dealers advising them regarding service operations. Some of this will differ enough from the service requirements of a previous model to make it a distinct handicap to try to service both models with the same methods.

The right way is always the easiest way and the least expensive. I am reminded of one owner who installed a set of new spark plugs after his car had traveled 8,000 miles not knowing that the factory recommended switching to a different heat type for better results.

Explains That Binding

A sensation of binding where a car is equipped with power steering is usually due to trouble with the steering system itself. There can, for instance, be a too tight steering gear adjustment. There can be binding in the steering shaft in the column. Lubrication may be badly needed. One of the advantages of power steering is the fact that it permits using a ratio which requires less movement of the steering wheel for changes in the direction of the front wheels. Should power assistance fail the car always can be steered manually but the driver would note a marked lack of ease. If tires were underinflated and the steering gear in need of lubricant a drop in hydraulic pressure or a leak in the power hydraulic lines would give the driver a feeling that something is binding just because steering then would require considerable more effort.

You May Have Noticed

Service men tell me that many of the noises which customers say are heard in the rear of the car actually come from the front section. Typical is the grinding noise which many mistake for a badly adjusted pinion gear. Often it is due to a rough front tire tread.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"You can get better gas mileage when on the open road if you will take the trouble to determine whether you're feeding more gas than is needed to keep the car rolling. When you feel that the car is traveling at about the desired gait slowly ease off on the accelerator. If there is then a drop in speed you can be sure that you are forcing the car to keep up this speed and are above the car's easy rolling speed. It will save gas to cut down speed under such conditions. Often, too, you'll find that the car will travel just as fast with less pressure on the pedal."

Testing For "Run-Out"

These days there isn't much a car owner can do by way of checking front-end alignment but a little test he can make to satisfy the old hunger for monkeying around the car is to check for wheel and tire run-out. This is a wheel's tendency to wobble, not because it is loose but because it is warped and eccentric.

Such testing is easily done by jacking the wheel and holding a piece of white chalk against the tire while spinning the wheel. If there are high points the chalk will leave a mark only at those spots, the low points being left unmarked.

Cover Up The Defects

Since power steering provides also for checking shock which would come up to the steering wheel of a conventional system it is important to have your service folk check steering parts, and the front wheels, occasionally. Fluid in the power equipment helps damp out road shock as well as shock from looseness in the steering linkage. There can be wear on front wheel bearings, or looseness of the wheels, without this being telegraphed up through the steering system to the wheel rim. Looseness at tie-rod ends also are damped out. Moreover you may not realize that the front tires are badly in need of air.

Two To Remember

If the car doesn't seem to be stopping well enough always pump again on the brake pedal. In fact, a pumping action is highly desirable. With power braking it would be just a mere dabbing of the pedal since a touch is about all you need to bring the brakes in action.

One of the common causes of after-firing in the exhaust system is too wide spacing of spark plugs. Unburned mixture gets into the muffler and is fired there by subsequent charges of hot exhaust gases. This after-firing is commonly and incorrectly called back firing.

Serve As A Warning

Hydraulic valve lifters are a handy indication of the situation with the engine's oil supply. If they start clattering be sure to stop the car for a careful check on the oil supply which will likely be found too low for comfort. Viscosity of the oil is important where an engine is equipped with these lifters, so if the supply of oil is low, the oil which remains will thin down to a point where oil pressure will not be normal. In many cases it is found that sudden noise from lifters means that there is oil leakage. Most common point of such leakage will be found to be at the cover of the oil filter.

Taking Down The Pan

Taking down the engine oil pan isn't the simple job it used to be on many cars. Usually it is necessary to remove the steering tie rod and in some instances a bit of jacking is necessary. One trick that applies to some motors is turning the engine crankshaft so that the counterweight for the throw nearest the radiator is in its "up" position. This gives the necessary clearance.

It's a good idea to know just how the oil pan can be taken down so that in event of emergency need for this you can tip off a roadside mechanic to the necessary tricks.

If the car has seen considerable service and it is planned to use additives to free up rings or sticky valves it is desirable to take down the pan to remove accumulated sludge manually.

In The Motor Mail

Q. After several thousand miles of driving the new timing chain in the motor of my car is noisy just like the old one it replaced. There is no adjustment for taking up slack. H. F. D.

A. Evidently the new chain was adjusted too tight or was not of good quality.

Q. I have been told that where the hand brake operates through the rear hydraulic brake it is advisable to press on the brake pedal while pulling up on the hand brake lever so that the hydraulic wheel cylinders are filled with fluid. I understand that air may enter the braking system unless this is done. L. McB.

A. This is advisable. However, it is also true that comparatively few drivers do this and there is little trouble because of it. Some people have all the luck, you might say.

Q. I always notice that there is a certain amount of clunking sound in the automatic transmission when putting the selector lever into Drive or Reverse when the car is first started. But should there also be this roughness when the car is slowing down and the transmission is shifting down? H. R.

A. No. The transmission needs checking for this sort of roughness.

Q. What would cause the carburetor float bowl to flood if the fuel level is correct and there is no evidence of dirt in the gasoline? N. Z.

A. Better check for excessively high fuel pump pressure.

Q. The front wheels of my car have developed a low speed shimmy which has become quite troublesome. I have had the power steering system carefully checked over. Nothing seems to be wrong with it. M. L. Jr.

A. I notice that you have driven this car an unusual distance considering the fact that it is a late model. You may have had to drive fast over rough roads, all of which probably has weakened the front springs I would check them for sag and replace them if necessary.

Q. Is it necessary to use a new gasket whenever taking off the bowl of the fuel filter to clean it out? K. W. J

A. Often you can get by with the old gasket but it is advisable to use a new one. If the old one has been compressed for any length of time you will find difficulty putting the bowl back in the same position, causing a gasoline leak.

Q. Since having the spark plugs replaced the engine seems to be using a lot more oil, and there is some tendency toward skipping. G. N. L.

A. You will probably find that one of the plugs is loose. If compression escapes around its gasket oil will be sucked up past the rings of that particular cylinder. Fouling of the points of this plug would account for the skippage.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St., West Hartford 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

Pressmen Stand In Water On The Job

PORT JERVIS, N. Y. (AP)—Pressmen stood in the water yesterday to get out the Port Jervis Union-Gazette, which hasn't missed an edition in 105 years.

The newspaper, its building sloshing with flood waters, moved its editorial operations and its Associated Press teletype printer to offices of the Tri-State Associated Telephone Corp., on higher ground.

Copy boys hustled stories down the water-filled street to the printers, who stuck to their undamaged linotypes and presses. Pressmen waded about, locking forms on the presses.

Tons of newsprint was soaked and ruined, but the paper came out with a six-page edition, instead of its usual eight pages, plus an advance-printed four-page supplement—and right on time.

SALES TAX YIELD FALLS BELOW EXPECTATIONS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's one per cent sales tax ends Aug. 31 with indications its total yield will be 127 million dollars, some 8 million below original estimates.

That was the forecast Friday of the revenue department, which said collections reported at the end of July totaled 101 millions. The returns for May, June and July are due Aug 20.

Upon expiration of the sales tax, strongly opposed by Gov. Leader and Democrats in the Legislature, the state treasury will lose about 5 millions monthly in revenue, with the two factions still deadlocked on what tax shall replace it.

Two Bills Up

Two bills now are before the Senate to wind up affairs of the sales tax bureau. One would set Sept. 20 as the deadline for reporting August sales, the last month. Another would permit auditors to check the books of suspected delinquents as much as two years after the tax expires.

The sales tax went into effect Sept. 1, 1954, for a 21 month period, with the law itself fixing Aug. 31, 1955, as the expiration date. Gov. Leader made the levy an issue in his campaign and said he would veto a bill renewing it, should the Legislature pass one.

Pencil makers estimate that pencils still do about 90 per cent of U. S. writing jobs.

Jack Benny Quits Air After 23 Years

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —After 23½ years on the air, comedian Jack Benny is quitting the weekly grind of live radio to concentrate on television.

There is a possibility, he said yesterday, that the best of his old radio shows will be repeated on the air by recording this fall. He said it's a question of CBS reaching agreement with a sponsor on price.

Benny will appear in a filmed television show every other week, starting in the fall. There will be in addition, he said, "I don't know how many" one-hour TV shows in which he'll either play parts in plays or be master of ceremonies

South Korean Ban On Trips To Japan

SEOUL (AP) — South Korea has "completely banned" Koreans from making any business or personal trips between South Korea and Japan the Foreign Ministry said Thursday.

Foreign Ministry officials said, "As a principle, no Koreans are allowed to make any private trips between the two countries . . because "the Japanese are giving protection and encouragement to elements opposed to the government of the Republic of Korea, to Korean national traitors and to pro-Japanese Koreans both economically and politically."

HOPE FOR THE EXILES
Isaiah 55

Key Verse: Incline your ear, and come to me: hear, that your soul may live. Is. 55:3.

The message of this week's lesson is taken from Isaiah 55 and consists of words of hope and encouragement spoken by one captive to the rest of his companions in Babylonia. But how could it have come from the pen of Isaiah who lived nearly two hundred years before? It is believed that Chapters 40-55 of the famous book of Isaiah were written by an unknown prophet called the Second Isaiah or the "Isaiah of Babylon" to distinguished him from the First Isaiah known as the "Isaiah of Jerusalem."

The long-drawn-out captivity of more than fifty years was irking the Jews and they longed for the time of return to Judah. Daniel had prayed God in their behalf, as he knew that it had been prophecied that the captivity would last seventy years. Both Jeremiah and Ezekiel had urged the people to be patient and lead normal lives.

Now this Second Isaiah, a man of great insight and religious zeal, inspires the people to firmer faith and true repentances. This he does in some of the sublimest language in all literature. He begins with an invitation to the thirsty to "come to the waters," the life-giving, soul-satisfying source which is God In the East it was, and still is, customary to sell water as it is much scarcer in the Orient than in western lands. God's gifts of spiritual refreshment are more important than mere bread and water. Peace can be found in devotion to God through Christ. The captives referred to frequently as the "suffering servant of God" grasped at these beautiful words of hope and his vision of the day when their long bondage would be broken

Had Special Mission

In order to clarify our thinking, let us recall that our study has been concerned primarily with the captivity of Judah in the days of the Assyrian Empire when Babylon was a dependency. When Isaiah was still a young man the Assyrians captured Samaria, Israel fell, and 200,000 were carried away. When he was an old man (701 B C.) the Assyrians under Sennacherib were stopped before the walls of Jerusalem, routed by an Angel of God. It was through his prayer and guidance of King Hezekiah that Judah was delivered. Judah's captivity had been prophesied 150 years before it really occurred

So the special mission of the Second Isaiah was to proclaim the power and majesty of God and issue a definite call to action. His understanding is noteworthy As one writer has well said. "He is surpassingly gentle when he comforts, overpowering when he describes the Lord's omnipotence, clear and forcible when he reasons, compelling when he sets forth his hope or calls to repentance, always beautiful, never dull or commonplace."

This great prophet of the exile made three very positive contributions to the life and faith of the captives of Judah. His presentation of God, his interpretation of history, and his clear definition of the destiny of God's people stand out as great biblical milestones in the history of the Jewish nation.

What Could Isaiah Say?

Isaiah of Babylon proclaimed the omnipotence of God in magnificent language. "I am the Lord Thy God." There is but one God, and in his words "There is no limit to God's power: who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span"

And God is Ruler of the world and as such He guides and directs the affairs of nations. "A universal God and a universal religion are the crown of history, the goal of the world" Have you ever seen God's hand molding the affairs of nations today? His will eventually will sway the people, as it did with the restive band of Judah's survivors God may punish his people but He never deserts them.

Earlier in Judah's history prophets could hold before the people a pledge of material prosperity if they would forget their idolatrous ways and turn back in repentance to God. But the situation was different now: Judah was overthrown, her people in bondage, and there could be no promise of material blessings. Then, what could Isaiah say? All he could say was that through suffering, repentance, and service they would eventually triumph.

Stole 100 Autos To Get Pretty Girls

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Two teenaged boys picked up on auto theft charges here yesterday admitted having taken some 100 cars, chiefly bright-colored convertibles.

The boys, 15 and 16, said the "sharp looking" cars made it easy "to pick up pretty girls."

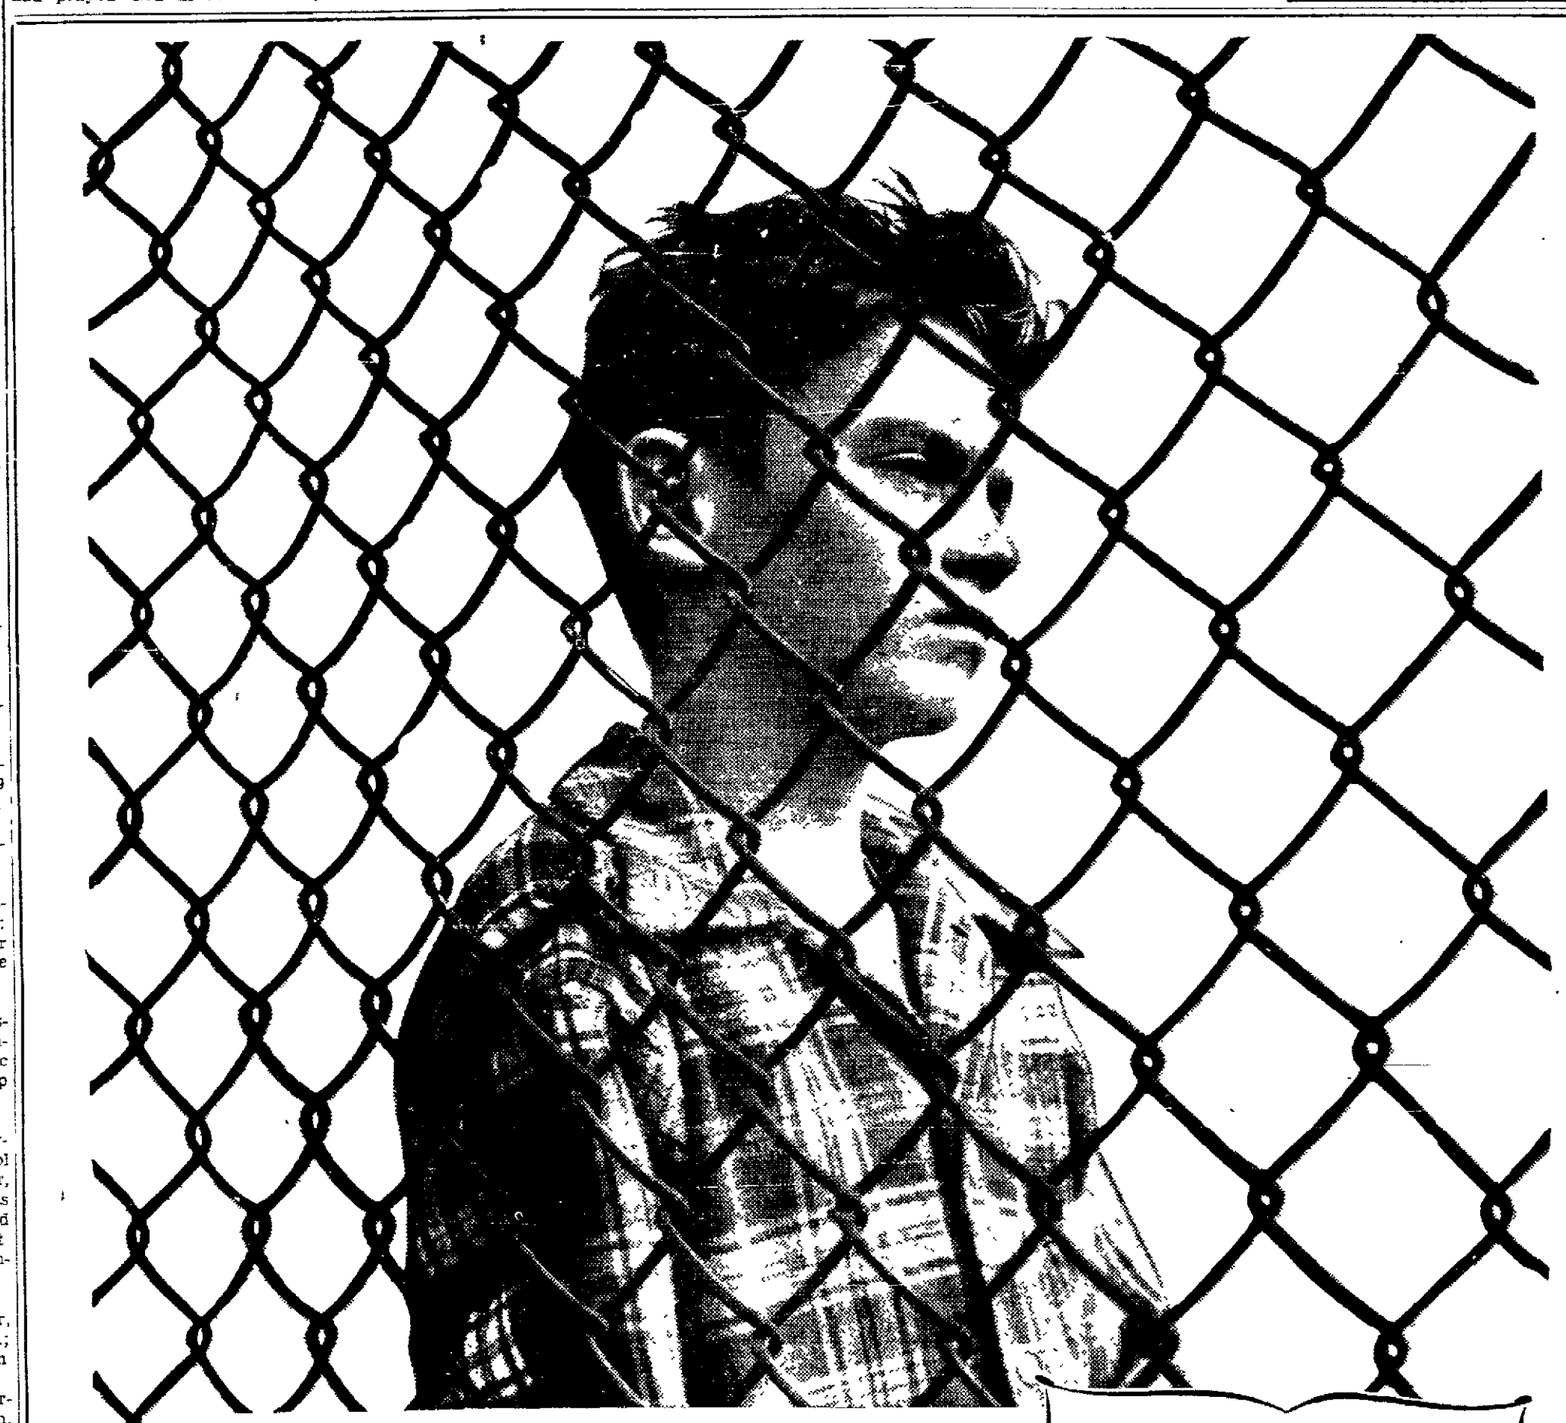
WGET (1450 KC) Sunday 8:15 A.M.



KNOW HIM ?

Juvenile delinquency was just a term until they sent the boy down the street to what they politely termed a "training school." Then it became real, because this boy wasn't just a statistic but a kid who had played with your kids. Why, only last Sunday you had gone fishing with his father.

So now . . . you wondered why. The boy came from a good home—or did he? There was money enough, luxury enough, but it's true that his parents sometimes left him pretty much to his own devices. There were his mother's clubs and his father's business, and they led an active social life.

You asked yourself why . . . and in your heart you knew the answer. It lay in those gaps that had been left in his upbringing—great chinks, that should have been filled with faith, spiritual guidance, and solid enduring values. Thinking about it, you made up your mind to start taking your own kids to church on Sundays without fail—no matter how good the weather was for fishing.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Senator Alarmed By Red Gestures

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robertson (D-Va) voiced alarm today that America's allies appear to be accepting Russian peace gestures at face value and relaxing vigilance against possible Communist aggression.

Robertson, a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, said in an interview before his departure for Europe:

"I'm sorry our Allies seem to think all the real danger to them has passed and are diminishing their contributions to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and are discussing cutting the length of their conscripts' military duty.

"The results of the summit conference were encouraging, but nevertheless the attitude of the Russians remains in the realm of an unsupported gesture. Until we have some signs of deeds to back up the smiles, the free world had better not let its guard down."

REPORT BOOST IN SALARY FOR COAL WORKERS

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new $2-a-day pay raise for many soft coal miners was reported ready for announcement today.

The boost, which would come in two stages, could set the pattern for the entire soft and hard coal industry.

John L. Lewis, 75-year-old president of the United Mine Workers Union, summoned his 200-man wage-policy committee for a late afternoon meeting, presumably to ratify a new coal labor pact.

The reported agreement was said to call for a 15-cents-an-hour increase effective Sept. 1 and a further 10-cent raise to take effect next April 1.

Private Agreement

Lewis was reported to have reached agreement privately this week with Harry M. Moses, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators Assn.

Moses represents northern commercial producers and the "captive" mines owned by the steel industry.

Details From Leak

Similarly, Lewis and Moses got together secretly in 1952, made a deal and the rest of the industry accepted it, although Southern coal mine owners did so reluctantly. The new agreement would replace that three-year-old contract.

Miners now make an $18.25 basic daily wage. The two-stage increase would raise this to $19.45 Sept. 1 and $20.25 on April 1.

WILSON ORDERS NEW HONOR CODE TO BE POSTED

By C. YATES MCDANIEL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson today ordered the new code of military honor "posted prominently" by every American unit, ship and post throughout the world.

At the same time, he told the three services that it is "vitally important" to develop plans and start "without delay" training American military men how to avoid capture and how to withstand captivity.

The code of conduct, proclaimed by President Eisenhower Wednesday, is designed to inspire American fighting men in combat and to strengthen them against mental and physical tortures of the type used by the Communists in Korea.

Each To Draw Plans

Wilson's orders to make it effective were contained in three strongly worded memoranda, to the secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Forces, the Joint Chiefs of Staff; and Asst. Secretary of Defense Carter L. Burgess, manpower chief and chairman of the committee which drafted the code.

Each service was directed to draw up its own plans for educating and indoctrinating its men. No time limit was fixed, but Wilson directed that even before it starts, each man be "thoroughly grounded in the salient features" of the code.

He called for support not only from the military but from civilian groups and other government agencies to aid in "dispelling the clouds of mystery and dread of the unknown which has surrounded Communist strategy and ideology."

Need Moral Strength

He told Burgess to seek such help from labor, industrial and agricultural groups and the Department of Health Education and Welfare.

Religious and civilian organizations can also help in preparing servicemen for the ordeals of combat or captivity, Wilson said, because moral character and a firm belief in the American way of life are largely formed before a man puts on a uniform.

Wilson declared that this moral training must be emphasized both before and after a man enters military service because there was much "disturbing evidence" that American prisoners in Korea lacked ability to combat and withstand Communist distortions.

Spells Out Goals

On the military side, he directed that preliminary instruction be given all servicemen about the international conditions which make necessary this restatement and re-[illegible] principles.

Although Wilson left it to the services to work out the basic forms of their education and training programs he spelled out certain goals that the programs must achieve.

He said every man must be specifically trained "to cope with enemy efforts against him." A "very important" part of this is implanting "basic truths and advantages of our democratic institutions and the fallacies of communism."

To Teach Resistance

Strong, effective leadership and loyalty to group and unit must be fostered by every means," he said and every American in uniform must be instructed about his conduct and proper courses of action when faced with captivity and as a prisoner."

Individuals and units he said, must be trained as what to do when they are isolated surrounded or cut off and not to "resist and avoid enemy interrogation and indoctrination."

Brazil has increased the number of her airports from 140 to 270 in the last five years, says the National Geographic Society.

U. S. AIR FORCE NEEDS MILLION SKYWATCHERS

As long as this nation needs air defense, it needs a strong Ground Observer Corps, according to General Nathan F. Twining, chief of staff of the U. S. Air Force. "Civilian plane spotters, radar and our interceptor planes are all part of our defense program of peace and security through air strength," General Twining said. "Weakness in any of these invites attack—strength discourages attack."

"One million civilian volunteers are urgently needed now to strengthen Operation Skywatch."

verely hampered bicycle touring. When the motor car appeared at the height of the bicycle craze demand for easy-to-read and accurate road maps mushroomed.

Early route books such as issued by the Automobile Club of America in 1900 often depended upon narrative description. "Go straight out to where the way ahead is blocked by irregularity of cross streets, where bend left and follow Shore road . . ." Some books included maps, but there were no standard highway markings. The first major numbering job was not done until 1917, in Wisconsin.

So motorists were as often frustrated as helped by early routings. One such was Otto G. Lindbergh. In 1912, his three-year-old General Drafting Company turned out the first road map of Vermont (an effort he now terms "pretty bad"). The next year a Pittsburgh advertising man sold Gulf Oil Company on giving away 10,000 maps of Allegheny County — the first known oil company distribution.

Ten years later — shortly after Lindbergh and associate Ernest Alpers spent most of a fishing trip trying to find out where they were — General Drafting landed its first really big job: 100,000 copies of a Massachusetts map for the First National Bank of Boston. Into that map went a host of new ideas — white background for the state, units for bordering states blue for water areas, type size adjusted to size of towns and cities, main routes distinctively marked.

Armed with that map, Alpers next year challenged Standard Oil Company of New Jersey: "Let us make a map of New Jersey. If it isn't the best map you ever saw, you won't owe us a cent." The present-day marketers of Esso took that challenge and the map — the first to be mass-distributed by an oil company.

With Rand McNally and Harry M. Gousha, General Drafting is one of three major U.S. mapmakers. Over half a billion maps have carried the company signature. That figure is swelling by some 20 million a year.

An accurate road map requires a data file listing all 4 digit U.S. areas and postal codes for foreign nations. Road maps are outdated as quickly as women's fashions. Maps must be updated two or three times a year and redone from scratch every five.

Today's highway-building boom merely adds to the realignment of new bridges and numbering changes. Corrections are going onto the maps right up until press time — and sometimes even then.

In view of mapmaking progress, it's little wonder that the map-reading literacy of some of us tends to dismay the mapmakers. Some demands, for instance, are willing to concede that it may be nice to have northern areas toward the top of a map — but why, they want to know, does east always have to go on the right? Those who ask for a routing from Seattle WEST to Los Angeles also occasion some misgivings. The business of helping people along the way does have its compensations, of course.

Safely buried in the files of Esso Touring Service is the exuberant thank-you note from the fellow who used an Esso routing to take his bride on a honeymoon trip to her native state. Along the way, the young husband heard all and more than he cared for about the delights of this particular bit of Old South. Consequently, he studied detour warnings for the area with special care — and bounced his unsuspecting bride over many a dusty mile until she gradually lapsed into silence.

There was also the flood of several hundred requests for routing to an obscure point in Tennessee called Oak Ridge, while that way station's atomic installation, barely off the drawing boards, was still Top Secret — and the frantic State Department request for all available maps of Costa Rica and Nicaragua just before the recent border flare-up there.

With or without a map, some of us will always have trouble finding the corner grocery. For us, there may be some comfort in the story told by author Carl Carmer. As Carmer tells it, he pulled up at a country general store and asked a lounger: "Friend, if you were me, how would you go about getting to Pleasantville?"

To which the man replied, after some thought: "Stranger, if I was you, I wouldn't move a gol durned inch!"

Worrilow To Quit GOP Finance Post

HARRISBURG (AP)—State Republican Chairman Miles Horst says William H. Worrilow Sr., Lebanon, will retire soon as chairman of the GOP-finance committee.

Horst said yesterday that Worrilow asked that he be replaced as chairman but agreed to remain as a member of the finance committee.

"I regret very much that Mr. Worrilow has reached this decision (to retire) for he has been of invaluable service to the Republican party of Pennsylvania and to me as state chairman during a very difficult period," Horst said.

LONE GUNMAN IS CAPTURED

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—A lone gunman, whom police said held up three employes of the Household Finance Co. office and fled with about $200, was in Cumberland County jail today following his capture in a police roadblock.

State police said Manual Moreno, 26, Crabtree, Westmoreland County, was apprehended about 20 miles west of Carlisle yesterday in one of several roadblocks set up throughout the area.

Moreno surrendered to troopers Michael Sabol and Paul Kleckner of the Chambersburg barracks at the intersection of Rts. 641 and 443 near Roxbury in Franklin County.

Dale Harbison, finance office manager, said the man, armed with a 45 caliber automatic pistol, entered the second-floor office and demanded "all the money."

The gunman took the money, Harbison said, and then forced the employes into another office while he made his getaway.

Clinton Weidner, Cumberland County district attorney, said a gun and money were found in Moreno's car after he was stopped by police.

Those in the office at the time of the holdup were James Wilburne 24, a field representative; Miss Fay Myers, 21, and Mrs. Robert Long, 30.

Henry Moreno is the only jockey to beat Native Dancer in a race. He was on Dark Star when that colt defeated Native Dancer in the Kentucky Derby.

IKE TEACHING DAVID TO GOLF AND CAST FLIES

FRASER, Colo. (AP)—Watching a proud grandfather always is a heartwarming thing, but it was something special seeing President Eisenhower with a young fellow named David.

Here was a man with a lot of the weight of the world on his shoulders, forgetting it all for a while to show off his seven-year-old grandson's skill as a fisherman, golfer and horseback rider.

It was difficult to tell, though, whether the President or David got the bigger kick out of it all. They were great pals together.

It all happened yesterday at the Rocky Mountain ranch where the small boy and his grandfather have been vacationing since Tuesday. Newsmen were admitted for the first time.

Dressed Western Style

When they arrived at the ranch David was dressed in true Western style—battered Hopalong Cassidy hat, cowboy boots, black sweater over a blue jersey shirt. The President was just as informal in a wide-brimmed Western hat, sports shirt with bright red, yellow and brown checks, tan slacks and rust shade loafer style shoes.

Eisenhower was swinging a golf club in front of his cottage, and he suggested that the newsmen might like to see a bit of David's golf. David was willing and he promptly hauled out a set of junior size clubs given to him at Christmas 1953 by former champion Bobby Jones.

With grandfather spouting a constant stream of advice, David banged away about 15 minutes at a chip net target set up about 20 yards off.

Praise From President

The youngster managed to miss the target nearly every time, but came close enough once or twice to win the President's praise. Once after a good shot the President called enthusiastically:

"That's right. Hit it like that and it'll go a country mile."

Some of Eisenhower's other remarks went like this:

"Keep your head down ... You're trying too hard ... You're topping them just a little ... Take your time."

Forty or more newsmen crowded around and cameramen shouted instructions at David, but it didn't seem to bother him.

Better On Horseback

He appeared quite oblivious to them, too, when he went on to display what he has learned about casting for trout ... His only disappointment was that he didn't catch a fish.

David never had done any casting before when he arrived at the ranch. The President, squatting on the bank of a pond stocked with trout which cost about $1.25 each, remarked with a satisfied smile that the boy was doing all right.

David did better at horseback riding than he did at either golf or fishing. No novice in the saddle, the boy brought back to the President memories of when he rode a horse as a youngster on the Kansas plains.

Snapping Dog Accepts Invitation To Church

GOLDSBORO, N. C. (AP) — A Goldsboro minister was working in his yard when a small dog ran up and began to bark and snap at his cuffs. The minister scolded the animal, telling him he was the meanest dog he had ever seen and suggesting that he needed to go to church.

The following Sunday after the minister had completed his sermon the little dog trotted down the aisle.

He paused briefly, turned around and jogged out of the church.

Dice leftover potatoes and add them to a package of frozen mixed vegetables (cooked and drained). Mix in a tangy French dressing and refrigerate to allow flavors to develop. Serve on crisp salad greens with sliced cold meat.

Leader Tax Bill Needs Solid Democratic Support To Swing GOP Backing In Show-Down

By JOHN KOENIG JR

HARRISBURG (AP)—Any new tax program put forth by Gov. Leader must have solid Democratic support before it can be expected to win any Senate Republican votes, Sen. Mahany (R-Crawford) said Thursday.

"It will be difficult to get Republicans to go for an administration tax if any Democrats drop out," the Senate GOP floor leader said.

Mahany and other Republican legislative leaders have joined joined their Democratic counterparts in conferences with Leader to iron out a substitute for the GOP-killed classified income tax.

Meet On Monday

With the Leader plan sidelined and continuation of the sales tax ruled out by Democrats, the conferees, who meet again in the governor's office next Monday must find a substitute to met the 1955-57 budget of $1,800,000,000.

While members of the bipartisan compromise committee refused to talk about specific taxes, there were some reports at the capitol that a mercantile or gross receipts tax was being discussed as a possible keystone levy for a new tax package to raise 357 million dollars.

Others mentioned in that connection were levies on restaurant meals, hotel rooms, soft drinks and telephone instruments.

Economy League

All of those taxes were included among the potential sources of revenue submitted to the compromise committee by the Pennsylvania Economy League. A tax on soft drinks was imposed several years ago but was dropped after two years.

A mercantile tax, at 3 mills for wholesalers and 6 mills on retailers, would raise an estimated $226,800,000 for a two year period. The estimated yield of the other levies would be restaurant meals, 3 per cent, $76,000,000, hotel rooms 5 per cent, $10,000,000; soft drinks, one cent, $27,400,000; telephone instruments, 20 cents, monthly, $16,80,000.

Mahany said that when agreement is reached at the compromise parley then other caucus members must be sold on the plan adopted.

Political Problems

"The first question will be how is Sen. So-and-so, a Democrat, going to vote on this," said Mahany.

If, for instance, he explained Democrats could line up only 1 votes for an accepted tax plan then the Republicans would have to provide 14 votes to put the plan through — which would be highly unlikely.

The implication here is that, tax programs being unpopular with the voters at home, GOP senators will not want to risk the chance of antagonizing their own constituents if Democrats don't.

Democrats Back Leader

Reluctance of some Democrats in the House — where that party holds a 112-98 majority — to go along with the Leader classified income tax is believed to have caused some doubts about voting for the measure even among Senate Democrats.

When the chips were down, however, all Democratic senators stood solidly behind Leader's tax program after it reached their chamber for a vote. In a strict party-line vote, it was knocked down, 26-23.

Republicans have maintained that as much as 250 million dollars can be lopped from the governor's budget estimates.

MANY USES IN INDUSTRY SEEN FOR TRITIUM

GENEVA (AP)—Tritium, an ingredient of the hydrogen bomb, may prove a valuable help to commercial laundries in cleaning greasy clothes.

W. G. Brown of the U. S Atomic Energy Commission's Argonne National Laboratory and three colleagues told the atoms-for-peace conference today that this radioactive form of hydrogen may also become widely used in dairy food processing, petroleum and other industries.

Tritium is the heavyweight of the three forms of hydrogen. The others are ordinary hydrogen and deuterium. Tritium is made in atomic reactors by bombarding a form of lithium with atomic neutrons. It exists only in minute quantities in nature.

Would Serve As Tracers

The AEC scientists explained that its potential use in industry would be as a radioactive tracer to study action and disposition of ordinary hydrogen materials in various processes.

Since tritium itself is a form of hydrogen, it could be mixed with materials containing hydrogen. And since it is also radioactive, it could be detected with a Geiger counter—thus allowing measurement of what happens to all hydrogen involved in a given process.

Thus in laundries, tritium could be put into a washing solution for greasy clothes and it would become distributed among the hydrogen atoms in grease.

Easily Detected

Later the clothes could be inspected with a Geiger counter to see whether all the grease has been removed.

The scientists said in their report that tritium is very sensitive to detection even when in dilutions of up to one part tritium in 10 billion billion parts of water.

"The low cost of tritium and the high dilutions which are permissible should lead to widespread use in industry," they reported.

They said tritium might have wide application industrially for measuring retention of dyes by fabrics, study of combustion processes in the petroleum industry, petroleum exploration and investigations of atmospheric pollution.

LEADER OFFERS HEALTH POINTS ON ANNIVERSARY

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Gov. Leader has outlined a four-point "prescription for health" which he said would provide "the best health possible" for every person in the commonwealth.

In a prepared address commemorating the 50th anniversary of the State Health Department, Leader listed his "prescription" as:

1. "A community consciousness of current health problems and a will to tolerate them no longer."

Very Best Information

2. "The very best and most current information that medical science can offer as to the best means available to attack each of the community health problems which plague us."

3. "A corps of trained and experienced public health professional and technical people representing the many disciplines required to staff a modern department of health."

4. "A tradition of reward for service within that professional and technical staff."

Gross Deficiencies

The governor declared that although the State Health Department has accomplished "much good" in its 50 year history, a recent American Public Health Assn. survey said "gross deficiencies" existed in many services offered to Pennsylvanians.

"It is my firm conviction," Leader said, "that many of those deficiencies were traceable to the lack of stature of the professional staff, a lack of stature which was imposed by a political patronage system reaching to every level of the department staff."

The governor contended that competent physicians and skilled health workers cannot be recruited or retained without a sound merit system.

Position Reclassification

He said a step was taken in that direction through position reclassification already approved by the executive board.

"Further adjustment," he added, "may be effected by the public administration survey which, at my direction, is being carried out for all departments."

Admitting that a "tradition of reward for service" is "perhaps the most difficult of the ingredients to procure," Leader said a new merit system already set up in the health department will provide:

Merit System Provisions

"An atmosphere of professional integrity not influenced by politics or politicians, a system which provides rewards for the competent and does not protect or perpetuate the incompetent."

Leader said his administration will contribute "a tradition of continuity in the professional and technical aspects of our health program" to attract trained personnel into the health department.

Urging the setting up of county health units in the state, the chief executive said a community consciousness of disease can "provide a base for the more sympathetic understanding of all our health problems."

County Health Units

County health units are now operating in Butler and Bucks counties.

In providing its citizens with information on disease, Leader said "Pennsylvania is remarkably fortunate" in having "superior" universities and professional schools.

"The willingness of these institutions to cooperate has been amply demonstrated in the past," he said, adding:

"With the help of the organized medical profession represented here today, the scientific 'know-how' is certainly at our disposal."

Leader reviewed the health department's fight against disease during its 50 years and pointed up the importance of preventing medicine in "safeguarding the continuing" health of persons in the state.

State Unemployment Checks Decreasing

HARRISBURG (AP)—A decrease of 404,464 unemployment compensation checks is reported by state Treasurer Weldon B. Heyburn for the month of July compared to the same time last year.

Heyburn said Thursday a total of 522,971 checks were sent out in July, 1955, as compared to 927,435 during the previous July. Monetary value of the checks written last month amounted to $13,097,593 compared to $23,589,040 in July, 1954.

1781 NEW CASES OF POLIO IN U.S. IN LAST WEEK

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Public Health Service said Thursday 1,781 new polio cases were reported to it last week. No reports were received from Vermont and Wyoming. Vermont had two cases in the preceding week, ended Aug. 6, and Wyoming had none.

The total represented an increase of 26 per cent over the corrected total of 1,412 cases in the week ended Aug. 6. It was 6 per cent below the 1,904 reported for the corresponding 1954 week.

Though Aug. 13, there were 9,720 cases listed this calendar year compared with 12,695 in the corresponding 1954 span. For the disease year which starts about April 1 there were 8,657 cases, compared with 11,142 a year ago.

Up 30 Pct, In New England

"Increases occurred in all geographic divisions except the West South Central and the Mountain (states)," the weekly communicable disease summary said.

"An increase of approximately 30 per cent occurred in the New England, Middle Atlantic, East North Central and the West North Central divisions."

States which have reported the largest number of cases per 100,000 population since April 1, and the rate in each, were: Idaho 23.9, Massachusetts 23.4, Nevada 20.6, Wisconsin 11.2, Texas 10.7 and New Hampshire 10.3.

114 In Boston

The report said that although Massachusetts reported a 30 per cent increase in cases in the week ended Aug. 13 as compared with the preceding week, the State Health Department reported little extension of the disease. The 411 cases occurred principally in communities which had been involved in previous weeks.

Cases in Boston totaled 114, compared with 84 in the previous week.

"The Cape Cod area, Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard and the rural areas in the western part of the state are still considered by state health officials to be comparatively safe for summer visitors," the summary said.

Gets 4-Pound Trout With Fly Swatter

NEWBERRY, Mich., (AP)—With the help of her two sons, Mrs. John Johnson caught a 4-pound, 24-inch trout with a fly swatter.

Seven-year-old Steve spied the fish yesterday near the shore of Round Lake. He called his mother.

She dashed out of the house with a fly swatter and took a cut at the trout. It jumped—right onto shore and between the legs of 12-year-old Johnny.

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — A semi-official voice of President Juan D. Peron's government proclaimed Thursday the start of a campaign for recruits and renewed vigor in the ranks of the Peronistas — The nation's ruling party.

As beefed-up police forces patrolled the streets of the capital in the wake of a three-day reign of disorders, the newspaper Democracia said in a front page statement the Peronista party had kept quiet for a month because of the "pacification" campaign which followed the June 16 revolt.

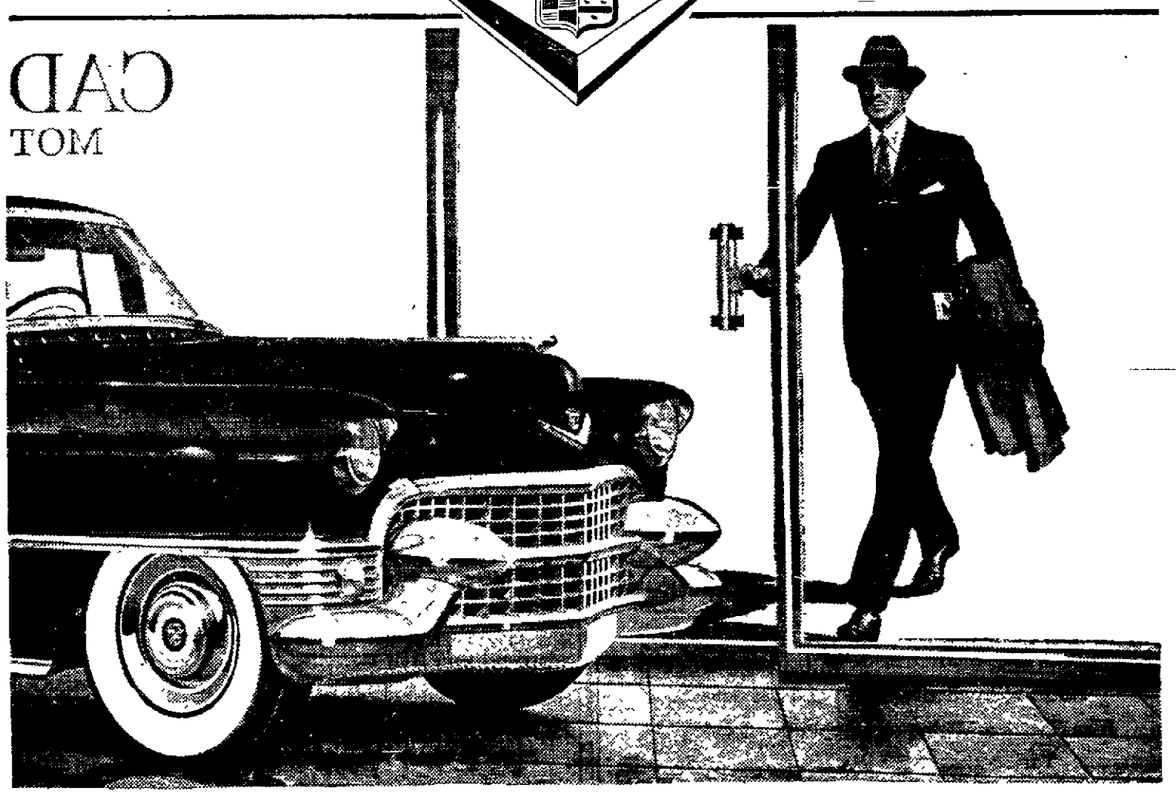
Cadillac



Figures He's Waited Long Enough!

The long-striding, fast-moving man you see in this picture has made the right decision at the right time!

For the past year or so, he has been thinking about a Cadillac—and he has finally made up his mind.

He is through with compromise and doubt and wonder. This time, he is going after the real thing!

And how lucky he is that he made that decision today! For wonderful news of a special nature is waiting for him.

He'll find, for instance, that Cadillac ownership is far more practical now than ever before. He'll learn, in fact, that the lowest-priced Cadillac can be purchased for little more than he might expect to pay for a goodly number of the so-called medium-price cars.

He'll also find that his dealer—because of a low used-car inventory—is in a position to offer him a very generous allowance on his present car.

And he'll discover that, because of Cadillac's greatly increased production during the current year, he can take title to his new Cadillac after a surprisingly short waiting period.

And all these special inducements, of course, are in addition to the other great Cadillac virtues—such as legendary dependability and long life . . . remarkable economy of upkeep and operation . . . and traditionally higher resale value.

All in all, he's walking in on the motor car opportunity of a lifetime!

And how about you? Have you been postponing your dreams of a Cadillac?

If so, there's no reason to wait any longer. Come on in and see us. Let us put you behind the wheel of a Cadillac . . . and give you the whole, wonderful story of the "car of cars." We think you, too, will decide that you've waited long enough!

SHAPIRO URGES TAX COMMITTEE TO STUDY NEEDS

HARRISBURG (AP) — A Senate Democratic committee called more witnesses today in its examination of Gov. Leader's proposed $1,800,000,000 budget after the Legislature was described as "putting the cart before the horse" on a tax-budget program.

State Secretary of Welfare Harry Shapiro said yesterday the Legislature was "putting the cart before the horse" by debating taxes before resolving the financial needs of the state.

"The attention of the legislature has been focused upon the nature of the taxes to be levied, before the value and necessity of the program has been determined or even examined," Shapiro told the eight-member committee.

Examine Needs

Shapiro said action on a tax program "might well be postponed until the needs of the departments have been examined fairly and determined finally."

He made his comments as a compromise tax conference prepared to meet next Monday for the third time in an attempt to wrap up a tax package to replace the administration's classified income tax, killed in the Senate two weeks ago.

Although the tax conferees have refused to talk about specific taxes under discussion there was speculation that a mercantile or gross receipts tax was regarded as a possible keystone to raise 357 million dollars in new revenue.

Letter Unanswered

Shapiro's statements were contained in a letter written to Sens. Mahany, Republican floor leader, and Taylor, president pro tem, last Aug. 1. The secretary said the letter, read to the committee, was never answered.

Sen. Yosko (D - Northampton), chairman of the committee, described Shapiro's testimony as:

"A powerfully packed indictment of Republican lethargy and neglect in the years they held the fate of state welfare in their hands."

chard Motel, which was purchased last spring. The store has been placed in the front of the property, which measures approximately one acre, and the motel units have been converted into apartments for store personnel. The firm of Weikert and Plank were the contractors.

The managers of the new store will be Mr. and Mrs Ralph Arendt, of Gettysburg. The owners are Col. J. Fuller Groom and Alexander P. Marshall, both of Alexandria, Va. This will be the first Stuckey's store that the pair owns.

Col. Groom said that he chose Gettysburg to build a store "because the tourist business is a year-round affair here In the winter many people from Canada and western New York and Pennsylvania head down Route 15 for the South. And in the summer, of course, you have the Battlefield."

Col. Groom said a distinctive feature about all Stuckey stores is the numerous roadside signs advertising it. He stated that "about 25" have been and are being built in the Gettysburg area

Higher Tariff On Bicycles Ordered

FRASER, Colo. (AP) — President Eisenhower today ordered an immediate 50 per cent tariff hike on all imported bicycles to protect American producers from "serious injury."

In announcing the action, the President's vacation headquarters here indicated it might raise the wholesale cost of imported models in the United States by from $1 to $3 if foreign manufacturers add the duty increase to their selling price

There were no figures available here on the effect at retail, but there appeared to be a good chance that any increase at wholesale probably would be passed on to bike riders

The White House said most bicycles come from Great Britain, West Germany, Austria, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

DELAY ISSUE IN ARGENTINA

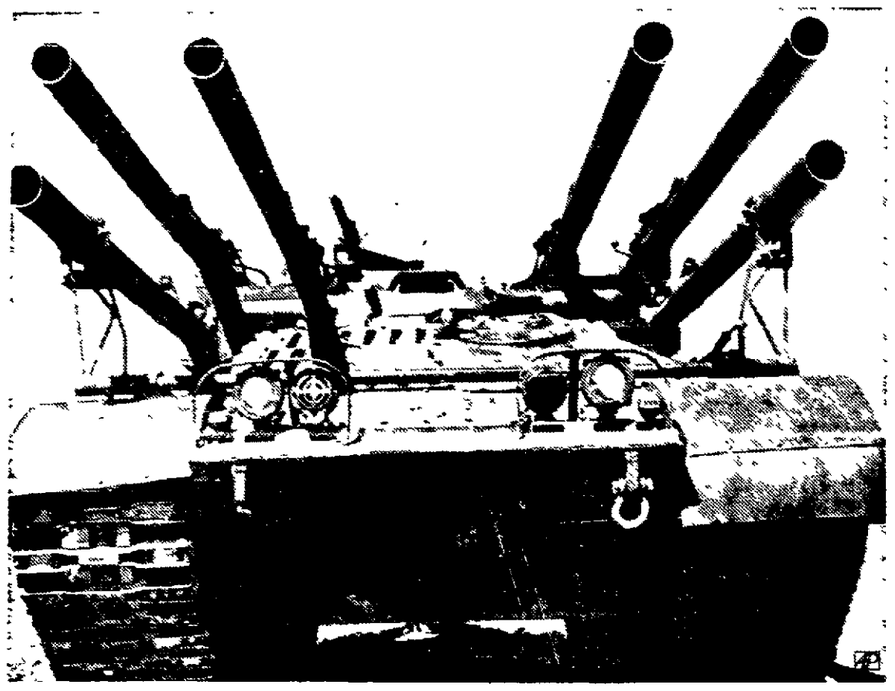
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, (AP)—Argentina's Senate has authorized President Juan Peron to delay action on the explosive issue of separating church and state even as the government renewed its dispute with Catholic leaders.

The Senate put its stamp last night on the government bill which already has cleared the lower house. If Peron signs it, election of a constitutional assembly to sever the church's official ties with the state could be held off until next May. The original law called for an election before Nov. 23

Under the present constitution, Roman Catholicism is Argentina's official religion and the President must be of that faith. The Vatican excommunicated Peron last June during his bitter feud with church leaders whom he accused of starting an insurgent political movement. They denied the charge.

The Senate acted less than 24 hours after Justice and Interior Minister Oscar Albrieu, in a blunt statement to newsmen, accused seven priests in Buenos Aires of using the pulpit to incite "a campaign of disobedience" against Peron. Albrieu said the government would resume its political campaign against church leaders, halted after the abortive June 16 rebellion against the President.

The Thing



The Army and Marine Corps announced Thursday that a $13,000,000 contract has been awarded for this new armored anti-tank vehicle for the Marines. Called Ontos, from the Greek "The Thing," it carries six 106mm recoilless rifles instead of one artillery piece and is lightly armored for speed and maneuverability. The 8.5-ton vehicle also carries four .50 caliber spotting rifles and one .30 caliber machine gun. The Army said that the number of "The Things" this amount would purchase is classified information. ATTLEE IS NOW RECOVERED FROM CEREBRAL CLOT

LONDON (AP) — Former Prime Minister Clement Attlee has recovered from a cereoral thrombosis, his wife said today.

"The thrombosis (blood clot on the brain) has now been resolved and all is well again," Mrs. Attlee told newsmen.

The illness of the 72-year-old Labor party leader did not become known publicly until last night.

The Labor party's press office said in London there was no reason to believe that Attlee would not fulfill his customary party duties, especially at the Socialists' annual conference in Margate Oct. 10-14. The House of Commons is in recess.

Attlee's wife said he is also troubled by a skin ailment.

"He is not keeping any engagements," she said. "We shall be going away next week for a holiday in Pembrokeshire."

Attlee, who served as Britain's first postwar Prime Minister, is resting at his home in Great Missenden, Buckinghamshire.

JERSEY RIVERS OVERFLOWING

NEWARK, N J (AP) — Torrential rains today pushed rivers and streams over their banks in many sections of New Jersey, causing widespread damage and forcing families to flee their homes.

Hardest hit was the western section of the state along the Delaware River, which was 36 feet above normal in the Phillipsburg area at 7 a m today and rising at a rapid pace.

Also heavily inundated were communities in Bergen and Passaic counties along the Ramapo River and in the Somerville and Clinton areas by the Raritan.

The Newark Weather Bureau said 2¼ inches of rain fell during the 24 hours between 8 30 a.m. Thursday and the same time today but the rainfall was heavier in other parts of the state The precipitation was expected to halt this morning but the flood danger would not be abated, the weatherman said

In towns and cities throughout the state, storm sewers were unable to hold the heavy water load and streets and cellars became flooded

Residents along the Delaware River from the northwest corner of the state at High Point down along the Sussex, Warren and Hunterdon county borders, faced danger from the rising waters.

NEW YORK — Alan Devoe, 46, a naturalist, staff writer for the Readers Digest and author of several books Born in Montclair, N J. Died Wednesday.

Really!... Gentlemen...

"Carbon, carburetors, pistons, fuel lines . . . they mean nothing to me. So it's rather pointless to go into detail about the 5 features of your New 5-D Gasolene. But I do know that your wonderful High Octane gasolene gets me started instantly . . . never embarrasses me with traffic light stalling or engine knock . . . gives me all the power I could possibly use . . . and a tankful seems to last forever. For the first three years in business, old timers will remember that he was also a harness maker. A grocery store was operated on the side prior to his entry into business.

He handles the name brands of shirts, hats, hose, work pants and shirts, shoes for the babies and in more recent years has added sweaters, slips and Ship 'N Shore blouses for the ladies. A corn bake preceded the semi-monthly business meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, held on Wednesday evening at the FOE Home on W. King St. It was planned to hold the corn bake outdoors, but due to the inclement weather, the affair was held at the Eagels home.

U.S. Farmers Tired After Russian Tour

MOSCOW (AP) — Twelve American farmers returned wearily to Moscow today after a 32-day swing deep into the Soviet Union. They said a drought threatened dust bowls, but that the vast cultivation schemes appeared to promise huge future grain crops.

The party, in Russia since July 15 on a Soviet-U.S. exchange arrangement, appeared tired and anxious to get home, but they were impressed with their inspection of virgin lands being brought under cultivation in northern Siberia and southern Kazakhstan.

PLAN STAG PARTY

The Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars will have a stag party on Saturday, August 27 at Myers' Grove, near Bonneauville. Plans for the affair will be furthered at the regular meeting of the VFW post on Tuesday at 8 p.m.

BOWERS REUNION

The annual reunion of the descendants of the late Samuel Bowers will be held on Saturday at Pine Mar Camp. A basket lunch will be enjoyed at noon.

Ten Die And

swelled the Delaware River.

Points along the Delaware River in northern New Jersey were also evacuated and other sectors had street and road flooding.

400 Scouts Trapped

Trapped on Treasure Island in the Delaware River near Philadelphia were 400 Boy Scouts. Their leaders reported to state police that the river was still 10 feet from a critical stage. The Weather Bureau said it was unlikely the river would rise that much. A little farther north, on Pennington Island, 200 youngsters attending a Presbyterian Church camp were in the same predicament.

As the rain continued to pour down in the northeastern section of Pennsylvania, National Guard, civil defense, state police and Red Cross units were pressed into service and emergency health precautions were ordered.

Details were sent to Scranton, a city of 140,000 population, where rescue missions went on continually and more than 50 persons were stranded atop manufacturing plant rooftops by the Lackawanna River, which went nine feet above flood stage with the rains still pouring.

Evacuate Some Areas

Bethlehem officials ordered Lehigh River areas evacuated as the river passed three feet over the 17-foot flood stage and was rising still toward an expected peak of 26 feet.

Tamaqua, a community of 12,000 in the east-central Pennsylvania hard coal mining area, reported that waters which coursed through its business district at a depth of five feet last night had receded.

Hardest hit points other than Scranton and Bethlehem in Pennsylvania were the tiny towns of Honesdale and Hawley in northeastern Pennsylvania.

A dam overflowed at Hawley and its waters rose so fast that it was first reported the dam had burst. Hawley and nearby Honesdale were cut off from the outside.

Troops Are Called

Maj. Gen. A. J. Drexel Biddle, commander of Pennsylvania's National Guard units, now in training at Indiantown Gap, dispatched units to stricken eastern areas as calls for help arrived.

The reports of inundation and evacuation were similar to those which came earlier from Virginia, where the tempest caused untold crop damage, blocked main and secondary roads and caused the death of a man who slipped from a bridge into the Shenandoan River.

And in Connecticut, Gov. Abraham Ribicoff ordered units of the National Guard to Torrington, where the Naugatuck River and its tributaries were swollen. Flash floods developed in the Connecticut River Valley from Montague City southward.

Trains Derailed

Massachusetts reported numerous highway floods and train derailments at Medford and Russell caused by loosened ground beds. Thirty persons suffered minor injuries in the Russell accident.

Media Borough, suburban Philadelphia, issued a warning to its citizens that all drinking water must be boiled. Seepage from a creek into the town water works was blamed.

Skytop Lodge, a Pocono resort alerted its lodgers to be ready to move out by boat. Every major artery in the Pocono area was closed as were main roads from northeast Pennsylvania to southern points.

From throughout that area came reports of bridges out, roads under several feet of water, power lines out.

Phone Service Cut

Telephone communication was cut off for hours at a time to the northeast, giving rise to rumors of some disasters that later proved unfounded.

The greatest deluge was at Hazleton, where 9.35 inches of rain fell in 21 hours. The city, located on high land, reported only minor flooding.

In Philadelphia where the Schuylkill and Delaware rivers rose swiftly, low-lying areas were covered. An overflowing stream cut loose a number of propane gas tanks from their moorings. All but a few were quickly recovered. Police barricaded the area and were forbidden to transmit from their car radios less a spark create an explosion.

Call 200 Sailors

Throughout the stricken areas, rescue crews and emergency workers prepared for daylong tasks.

The Naval Air Development Center and Naval Air Station at Johnsville near Philadelphia, rescued three unidentified men by helicopter in the Neshaminy Creek vicinity.

The center said it received reports that one woman was swept from a perch in a tree.

More than 200 sailors from both Johnsville and the Willow Grove Naval Air Station took part in rescue operations. The Navy said at least 20 persons were retrieved from automobile roofs and trees.

Six sailors were lost briefly on a raft during a rescue attempt and had to be rescued themselves.

Many Roads Closed

State police in northeastern Pennsylvania said every major highway southward was closed. Flooded roads, gradually being reopened, included Rts. 309, 6, 611, 307, 502 and 11.

In Lackawanna and Luzerne counties, police ordered all traffic off the highway and roads were barricaded overnight.

The Pennsylvania Railroad reported 8 to 10 landslides on its freight line between Wilkes-Barre and Sunbury and 2 roadbed washouts—one at Elwyn the other at Glen Mills — between Media and West Chester.

The railroad said it would establish temporary bus service for commuters between Manayunk and Norristown. Six inches of water covered tracks at one spot on the Norristown run, the railroad reported. It said through service was uninterrupted.

Drowns Chasing Car

Howard Allen, 30, of Tamaqua saw his car being washed away, ran out, and was swept into the swirling waters. His body was found later. Another Tamaqua man reportedly drowned in his cellar.

Near Hazleton, Waldron Fredericks, 6p, of Conygham and Maurice Spangenberg, 50, of Sugarloaf Twp., perished in Conygham Creek in an attempt to rescue three women from a car on a bridge. The men's bodies were recovered by state police and borough rescue crews.

At Shickshinny on the Susquehanna River northwest of Hazleton, David Titus, 23, was electrocuted by a fallen wire while trying to aid a woman trapped by rising waters.

Thirteen - month - old Virginia Farnsworth drowned in Towbridge Creek near her Great Bend home in Susquehanna County.

Near Lancaster, eight-year-old Wesley Billing of Willoughby, Ohio, and an unidentified Puerto Rican worker were killed in a two-car collision on the rain-splashed Lincoln Highway.

An auto crash in Harrisburg killed John B. Ckelvey, 16, and injured two other teenagers. Their auto skimmed two trees and crashed into a curb during the storm.

Rescued From Tree With Helicopter

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A daring naval officer rescued three persons from tree tops today by descending from a helicopter sling over the swollen Neshaminy Creek, climbing into the tree himself and sending the trapped persons back into the helicopter. He was Lt. M. W. Alexander of Tow, Texas, stationed at the Johnsville Naval Air Station.

The precision rescue maneuvers were made from planes piloted by Lt. J. G. John Townsend of Moorehead, Minn.; and Lt. J. S. Chapman of Ivyland, Pa.

RIOT CONTINUES

SEOUL (AP) — Korean demonstrators agitating against Communist truce inspectors mixed rock throwing and pantomine today as the two-week old dispute dragged on in five port cities and this capital city.

At Pusan, 20 students appeared dressed in uniforms mimicking Czech and Polish members of the truce teams.

Americans guarding the nearby truce inspectors billets laughed at the antics.

TAX SWINDLER NABBED AGAIN

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Samuel N. Savitt, convicted tax swindler and ex-hero of the French Foreign Legion, was taken today to Rochester, N.Y., to face state charges the day after he was released from the federal penitentiary here.

Savitt was arrested on state charges of forgery and grand larceny when he completed serving a term in the federal penitentiary. He was held overnight in the Union County jail for arrival of Rochester officers.

Savitt joined the French Foreign Legion after disappearing from Rochester in 1950. Federal agents at the time were on his trial with charges that Savitt, as an income tax consultant, had swindled clients out of an estimated $100,000.

He was sentenced to three years at the Lewisburg federal penitentiary after pleading guilty to the forgery charge. He said the $100,000 figure was an exaggeration.

Federal officers traced him to Indochina and then to Paris where he had been hospitalized after being wounded in Legion fighting. He won a Legion medal for heroism.

New York state charged him with failing to turn over to the government customer money given him for tax payments, and of forging and cashing government refund checks to clients.

British Motorship Helpless After Fire

LONDON (AP) — The 7,133-ton British motorship Argobeam wallowed in the North Atlantic today 300 miles off the wild Outer Hebrides after a fire destroyed her engine room.

The Air Ministry meteorological office here said it had received a report that the Argobeam's crew of 45 had been taken aboard the 23,000-ton Swedish passenger ship Kungsholm.

There were no reports of casualties.

The Argobeam was en route from Norfolk, Va., to Copenhagen.

A spokesman for the Argobeam's managers, A. Lusi, Ltd., said the fire had been put out and that the ship was in no immediate danger. He said she would be towed to port.

APPEALS FROM ASSESSMENTS FAR BELOW '54

Adams County's new assessment program is apparently working out to the satisfaction of countians—at least, according to present indications, the number of appeals from assessments this year will be much lower than last year.

Last September, when the new assessment had gone into effect for the first time, the county commissioners heard approximately 600 appeals from property owners throughout the county.

This year, approximately 4,000 changes made in assessments of property throughout the county, but only 40 have been appealed so far.

275 Changes In Biglerville

Because most people planning appeals generally notify the commissioners almost immediately upon receipt of the notice of their change in assessment, it is not expected that many more appeals will be filed.

Notices of the changes in assessment went out last week. No notices were sent to owners whose assessments did not change.

The number of changes is far greater in some sections than in others. In Biglerville 275 out of 300 assessments were changed, with all but about two of the changes being revisions upwards.

Brought Into Line

Littlestown and one ward of McSherrystown were other sections in which a great number of changes occurred.

Those were among sections found last year to be "out of line" with the other districts of the county. Chief Assessor D. Walker Woods said the card system of listing the properties has been "a tremendous help in working toward equalization of assessments."

Errors that may have occurred last year when cards were made on

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thundershowers and showers were reported over widely scattered areas of the country this morning. In some areas, the rain brought temporary relief from the current heat wave in the midcontinent.

Light rain fell along the New England coast after heavy downpours drenched many Northeastern States. The Weather Bureau reported rainfall in 24 hours at Windsor Locks, Conn., amounted to 9.41 inches, and at Boston it measured 7.39 inches.

Showers and thundershowers were reported in the Rockies, the Northern and Southern Plains, the Great Lakes region, states bordering the Gulf and parts of the upper and middle Mississippi Valley.

Some Cooling

Some cooling came to the Northern Plains and it also was cooler from Nevada northwestward to the Pacific Northwest Coast.

But the hot weather of this week showed no general break in the midcontinent and South with temperatures in the 90s in prospect again today.

Temperatures this morning were in the 80s or above in the Far Southwest and in the 80s in the Central Plains, Illinois and southern Wisconsin.

In the cool belt readings were in the 50s from western Washington and the higher elevations of the Rockies to mostly in the 60s elsewhere. They were in the 70s in other sections of the country.

40 MISSING IN FLOODED AREA

STROUDSBURG, Pa. (AP)—An extensive search was launched at dawn today for about 40 persons missing from a private summer camp five miles north of here that was completely covered by swirling flood waters.

There was no indication whether the adults and children in the camp were trapped when Brodheads Creek overflowed Thursday night or made it safely to shore.

State Police who reached the camp sight this morning reported "no sign of anything." The site was under water. All 14 buildings in the camp — known as Camp David — were gone.

It was reported that all people in the camp were from Jersey City, Rutherford, West Paterson, and West Caldwell, N.J., and Staten Island, N.Y.

All 75 of the school buses in Adams County have passed inspection and are ready to transport children when school opens next month, state police reported today.

STATE TO TEST MILK HERDS IN 15 TOWNSHIPS

The second "ring test" of milk herds in 15 Adams County townships will begin next Tuesday, John A. Sheffer Jr., operator of the state's mobile testing unit, announced today.

Arrangements for collectors to obtain samples of milk for the testing were completed by the county agricultural extension office.

Sheffer, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheffer, Gettysburg R. D., will have the mobile testing unit at Sheffer's Park from Tuesday until the test is completed.

In the brucellosis eradication campaign, three testings of each herd are necessary before a brucellosis-free certificate can be granted.

Assign Collectors

The new test will not only be the second for those herds tested by the ring-test several months ago, but also will be used for those which were given individual tests previously as a second test. The "ring test" however will be applied only to those signed on the area plan for testing.

The collectors will report to the mobile unit Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock to secure bottles and equipment, then will visit the herds and bring back samples of the milk from each herd for the "ring test" which determines whether there is brucellosis within the herd. If the test shows a suspicion of the disease, then each animal in the herd is tested to determine which ones have the illnss.

The townships and the collectors secured so far include: Berwick, Stewart Lucabaugh; Butler, Martin T. Walter; Conewago and Straban, Fred Crouse; Cumberland, Howard Waybright and Clement Redding; Franklin, George E. Kane; Hamilton, Chester Loper; Highland, Walter Hay; Huntington, B. J. Griffie; Latimore, Paul King; Menallen, Myles Starner; Mt. Pleasant, Ralph Sanders; Reading, Raymond Spahr; Tyrone, Joel Carved and Wilmer Lady, and Union, James R. Erb Jr.

PEACHES ARE TOP PRODUCT ON MART TODAY

Peaches once again predominated at the Farmer's Market this morning, as the heavy rains reduced the expected supply of tomatoes, and the record rainfall during the past week cracked many of them.

The heavy yield of peaches were being sold at 20 and 25 cents a quart basket and 40 and 45 cents a quarter peck. The few tomatoes available were 20 to 30 cents a quart, and those in good condition sold out fast.

Summer Rambo apples were in fairly good quantity, and were selling at 25 and 30 cents a quarter peck and 45 to 55 a half peck. The smaller crabapples were bringing the same prices. Corn remained in short supply, with only Stowell's Evergreen available at 35 to 50 cents a dozen, depending upon the size and condition.

Other Market Prices

Some large specimens featured the other produce available. Giant beets were available at ten cents apiece. Other beets cost ten cents a bunch. Large Hubbard squash were bringing 15 cents each, while smaller ones went for five and ten cents each. Large green and red peppers sold at "three for ten."

New potatoes were plentiful, with the prices remaining at 10 cents a quart and 20 to 25 cents a quarter peck. The few plums that were available sold out rapidly at 25 cents a quart. Blueberries, probably the last of the season, remained at 30 cents a quart.

Here And There

News Collected At Random

American business has created close to nine million new jobs since World War II, neatly keeping pace with the demand, according to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

That, says the Chamber, should throw just about the last spadeful of earth over the grave of the notion that improved technology causes unemployment.

The nine million new postwar jobs cover all industries except agriculture. Government jobs are excluded. During the same period, the Chamber reports, the number of persons of working age also increased by about nine million.

These events took place during an era of expanded technology the like of which the world has never seen, the Chamber points out. New machines, new production methods, new sales and management skills exploded all over the industrial landscape.

The biggest boost in jobs came in the retail trades, in manufacturing, construction and the service industries. And while the number of farm jobs decreased due to increased productivity, these workers found jobs elsewhere, the Chamber points out.

The lesson these figures teach, the Chamber suggests, is that the net effect of better ways of doing things is to create rather than to destroy jobs.

Rain-Swollen Rivers Take Heavy Toll In Worst Flood In Area's History; 92 Dead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain-swollen rivers in the Northeastern States kept on rampaging over their banks today, rolling up a heavy toll in life and property in the worst flood of the area's history.

With the peak of the flood still to come in some sections, the number of known dead in seven states had mounted to 92. Many others were missing.

Thousands Homeless

While downstream communities built hasty sandbag dikes and evacuated low-lying districts, stricken cities upstream reported with relief that the flood crest there had been passed.

Thousands were homeless and whole cities went without drinking water, electricity and gas. There was no news, good or bad, for worried relatives outside some flood areas. Telephone circuits remaining in operation were reserved for emergency use.

The governors of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut declared a state of emergency.

Bridges Out, Dams Gone

Bridge after bridge was reported washed out. Dams burst and torrents of water tore mercilessly at buildings and anything else in the way. Hazardous rescues were routine.

Troops and facilities in the 1st and 2nd Army areas were ordered to give all aid possible to flood-ravaged areas. Bailey bridges to provide temporary river crossings were being moved in from as far away as Marion, Ohio.

Helicopters fluttered overhead dropping supplies and rescuing people from roof tops and isolated scraps of high ground. The aircraft, a welcome sight to stranded

They plan to rent additional canoes when they reach Bear Island, on Lake Tamagami, in Canada.

They planned to use sleeping bags for the first night's camping enroute to Canada. Tonight they will set up tents at Fort Niagara. They also plan to travel on the cable car over the Grand Rapids of the Niagara River and make the tour below the falls in the "Maid of the Mist."

Bear Island And Diamond Lake

North Bay is the next planned stop following attendance at church services Sunday morning. Monday they will be at Bear Island, according to their schedule, and will start out by canoes to Diamond Lake.

The group will sign with the Canadian officials at Bear Island and under arrangements made by the Canadian government for the protection of tourists in the Canadian wilderness, planes will check daily with the touring scouts and they have been assured that, in case of necessity, smudge fires would bring aid within "20 minutes" from the rangers.

They expect to return to Bear Island next Friday, August 26, and on their return trip here will visit the Toronto Fair, view Niagara Falls at night, and visit the Grand Canyon of Pennsylvania. They plan to attend church services at Buffalo, N. Y., next Sunday.

HEARINGS BRING LONG SESSION OF COURT ON FRIDAY

The Adams County court disposed of a number of domestic relations cases and other matters Friday afternoon in a session that ended at 5:30 o'clock, a half hour later than the usual closing time for court.

Daniel J. Scott, Gettysburg R. 3, was found guilty on a speeding charge following a hearing and was fined $10 and costs, with the fine to be paid to Cumberland Township.

Paul Wisler, Aspers R. 1, was found guilty of contempt of court because of an $199 arrearage on a support order of $32 per week for the support of four children. Sentence was suspended on the contempt charge however on condition he pay $40 per week until he had made up the arrearage. He was told that "failure to pay one week will cause the sheriff to lock you up on the contempt charge."

To Support Mother, 90

Following a rather lengthy hearing on a desertion and non-support case Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Eugene Austin, New Oxford R. D. agreed to "try again" to make their marriage successful and the case was continued generally.

The children of 90-year-old Louise C. Snyder, Gettysburg R. 3, reached an agreement in court by which each will pay $10 per month and the mother will reside with a daughter, Mrs. Myrtle B. Cassatt, New Oxford R. 2, who will receive $30 per month plus the mother's blind pension for her services. The remainder of the money will go into a fund to be administered by the probation officer for use in case of emergencies, such as sickness and for the funeral expenses. The children entering into the agreement included Mrs. Cassatt, Mrs. Emma V. Murray, Gettysburg R. 3; Harry W. Snyder and John S. Snyder, Philadelphia; Maurice C. Snyder, Harrisburg, and May S. Spellman, Gettysburg R. 3.

Richard M. Ripka, Emmitsburg, was ordered to continue paying $5 per week support, pay the costs and make up a $75 arrearage, following a long hearing.

Man In Wrong Court

James H. Smiley, Arendtsville, found himself in the wrong court, through no fault of his, when he appeared for a hearing on a desertion and non-support case brought by his wife. As the hearing progressed it was determined that Mrs. Smiley had previously brought a support suit against Mr. Smiley in York

Five Killed In Two-Car Crash

FREEPORT, Maine (AP)—A collision of two automobiles, described by police as a "slaughter," killed five persons and critically injured two others early today.

The accident, on the Freeport cutoff, raised to seven the fatalities on a half-mile stretch of road this week and to 92 the 1955 total.

The dead were five women ranging in age from 22 to 46.

The two injured men are reported in fair condition at Brunswick Hospital.

State Trooper Mortimer O'Connell said Rowe drove the car carrying the three men. The other car was owned by Mrs. Charest.

One of the bodies was found 90 feet from the wreckage.

Steele told police that he, Anderson and Rowe, were heading south on U. S. Route 1 and the car carrying the women was crossing that road at the intersection of State Route 136 when the collision occurred.

The scene is about 500 yards from where two men were killed five days ago in a collision of two automobiles.

Traffic Light Tragedy Ends As Ruined Victim Hangs Self

BALTIMORE (AP)—Louis Nezbed has added a pathetic paragraph to the story of a burned out traffic light.

One red signal burned out around midnight March 17, 1951.

Wrecks House

At 1:30 a.m. a big tractor-trailer truck breezed into the intersection, no light against it. A car, with the green, shot in from the left. They hit. The big truck careened into the building on the corner where Louis Nezbed ran a little plumbing supply shop and lived upstairs with his wife, Otila.

The Nezbeds were thrown from their bed. Louis almost was killed. His wife was hurt. The place caught fire. The shop and the house were a wreck. Louis Nezbed's hair turned white overnight.

He spent all his savings on medical bills and repairing the building. There wasn't enough left to get the business going again.

Awarded Appeal

The Nezbeds sued the trucker and a jury awarded them $21,000 in damages.

But the Maryland Court of Appeals at Annapolis said the accident was not the truck driver's fault. The burned out light was to blame — the city's responsibility. But the city cannot be sued for damages when something goes wrong in the exercise of its police powers. There was no way the Nezbeds could recover.

Everyone was sorry for them and a public subscription campaign raised $5,000.

Hangs Self

The Nezbeds bought another house and tried to make a new start. But Louis was 71. He still had aches and pains from his injuries. He brooded.

Late Thursday Mrs. Nezbed found him hanging by his neck from a rope in the garage.

SCHMIDT WILL SEEK DIVORCE, SON'S CUSTODY

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Airman Daniel Schmidt's lawyer says Schmidt will file "not later than Monday" for a divorce from the wife who married again while he was a prisoner of the Communist Chinese.

Atty. Howard P. Welch said he plans to start divorce proceedings for Schmidt "perhaps this weekend . . . Not later than Monday."

Daniel, 23, was one of 11 American fliers released recently by the Communists. He returned home last week to learn his 20-year-old wife Una had married logging worker Alford Fine, in the belief, she said, that Schmidt had died in Korea.

Welch said the petition for divorce will include a request that the court give Schmidt the custody of 2½-year-old Danny Jr., the son that was born while he was in a Communist prison.

At the same time, Welch confirmed Daniel's plans to drive to Portland this weekend to see his mother Mrs. Nellie Peters.

Mrs. Peters told reporters she had received a telephone call from her son telling her to expect him in Portland Sunday.

"We Are Through"

She said Schmidt told her over the phone he didn't intend to go back to Una.

"We are through. I don't even want to see her again," he said.

Mrs. Peters had said only Wednesday she was sure Danny and Una would patch it up again.

Alford Fine, the third party to the triangle, has left Una for a job in another town, said her attorney.

ARMY WILL BE READY SOON ON NEW PROGRAMS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army today put into effect one phase of the new reserve training program and announced it will be ready soon with others, including the enlistment of men 17-18½ years old for six months training.

The over-all program, which Congress cut down from President Eisenhower's requests, envisions creation of a strong and active ready reserve to supplement reduced regular forces. Reserves are to be built up over a period of years to 2,900,000 men from the present 800,000.

The Army said it will accept immediate six-year enlistments directly into the reserve by men who have not yet been ordered to report for induction under the draft.

Is Given Choice

Each man accepted must serve two years on active duty, take part in the ready reserve for three years and serve one year in the standby reserve — the same time as if he were drafted — but will have a choice of when he will serve his two years of active duty.

The Army said that it will be ready to start accepting enlistments for the short-term reserve training program in the "immediate future," which officials have said will probably mean Oct. 1.

President Eisenhower last week authorized an Army quota of 90,000 such enlistments and the Marine Corps 5,500 during the 10 months ending next June 30.

Would Miss Draft

The six months of active training must be followed up by 7½ years more in the active reserve.

Volunteers will be deferred from the draft throughout the full eight years if they take an active and satisfactory part in the reserve training. Otherwise they are subject to a two-year draft.

These short-term trainees will be paid $50 a month for the six months. High school students who volunteer may be deferred from the initial active duty training until they complete their high school courses or reach the age of 20, whichever is earlier.

Enlist Thru Units

Enlistments will be handled by the nearest organized reserve unit rather than regular recruiting centers, although recruiters will give information about the program.

The Army said it is also ready to carry out another provision of the new law which applies to men now on active duty who complete their tours before July 1, 1957. If they join a ready reserve unit when they get out and serve in it satisfactorily for one year, they will be transferred then to the standby reserve, where regular training is not required.

FREEMAN RITES SATURDAY

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Funeral services will be held Saturday for William C. Freeman, 74, of Philadelphia, former state legislator and secretary of banking in the administration of Gov. Martin.

Freeman died in Presbyterian Hospital yesterday following a short illness. Surviving are his widow and a daughter.

LANA TURNER INJURED

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Actress Lana Turner's physician has ordered her to bed for two weeks for treatment of a brain concussion suffered in a bathtub fall.

Her studio said she slipped while getting out of the tub last week in Acapulco, Mexico where she and her husband, actor Lex Barker, were vacationing. They returned Monday.

Damage Actions For $350,000 Are Filed

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Damage suits for $350,000 were filed against the United States government yesterday in behalf of relatives of two men killed in an explosion and fire last May 26 at the Publicker Industries, Inc., distillery.

The suits, filed in U. S. District Court, accused the government of neglect in the deaths of Albert Weinstein, 49, of Camden, N. J., and Edward C. Carrigan, 59, of Philadelphia.

The suits claim that part of the plant where the men were working was under the supervision and control of the government and that proper ventilating equipment had not been installed.

The Weinstein suit is for $250,000 and the Carrigan suit for $100,000.

Two other men also were killed in the explosion. The plant was severely damaged.

Experiments with deer show that even when plenty of food is available, they cut their consumption of food about half in winter and lose about 20 pounds in that season.

MILAN, Italy (AP)—Joseph Accardi, 46-year-old former New Jersey resident, vanished inside his native Italy yesterday after deportation from the United States.

Listed as a racketeer by the U. S. Department of Justice, Accardi was deported for illegal entry from Canada.

He was placed on a plane at New York Wednesday night and arrived in Milan yesterday. Police in this city said they were not interested in his whereabouts and did not know where Accardi went from the airport.

Plan For Horse Show

A planning of the Carroll-Adams Riding Club was held on Thursday evening in the clubhouse at "Sunset Hill Farm," Littletown R. 1. The group completed plans for the program to be given at the club's second annual horse show on Sunday, Sept. 4. The show will be held on the club grounds, along the Menges Mill Road, and will begin at 11 a.m. on Sept. 4, with Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 5, as the rain date. The affair is being held for the benefit of the Hoffman Orphanage, near town, and the children of the home will be guests of the club for the show.

It was decided to conduct a refreshment stand, with homemade foods available, at the horse show. Each member is asked to be responsible for a dozen cup cakes or individual pies for the stand. It was reported that a fence has been erected at the grounds for the show. The area has been graded and a pump will be installed in the near future.

Thomas L. Cookson Jr. will serve as ringmaster for the show. Judges will be Ruth Bowers and Bud Stitely. Lawrence Haines will serve as master of ceremonies with Clyde W. Crouse as assistant. There will be 20 classes with each to be separately sponsored. Anyone desiring to sponsor a class is asked to contact Charles Humes, Hanover; Jean Heltzell, Gettysburg, or Clyde W. Crouse, Littlestown.

Jersey Auto Crash Kills State Airman

WEEHAWKEN, N.J. (AP)—A 29-year-old Coatesville, Pa., airman died in North Hudson Hospital yesterday from injuries suffered in an auto crash.

He was identified as Arthur Green (of 574 Coats St.).

Police said Green's car skidded into another auto Thursday night, throwing the serviceman beneath the second car. The other driver, identified as Albert Van Horn of Lyndhurst, was not injured.

Green was stationed at Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D.C.

During the 1954 season the Milwaukee Braves hit 29 home runs against the second place Brooklyn Dodgers. But they smacked only nine against last place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Rain-Swollen

flood victims, flew in from Army, Navy and Coast Guard stations.

Stroudsburg Hardest Hit

Flood waters apparently hit hardest at Stroudsburg, Pa., with at least 20 counted dead, and Waterbury, Conn., where at least 15 persons were reported to have lost their lives.

The Naugatuck River roared through Waterbury, tearing out power lines and sweeping away buildings. It was "the worst disaster Waterbury has ever seen," said Fire Chief Francis T. Scully.

Stroudsburg, a resort center in the Pocono Mountains, was left with all its bridges and main roads washed away. There was no drinking water or household gas for heating and cooking.

Trenton In Bad Shape

While Stroudsburg began the messy job of bailing out, cities further down the Delaware River system awaited the full fury of the torrent. At Easton, Pa., 40 feet of water broke a 53-year-old Delaware River flood record of 38.5 feet.

Further downstream lay Trenton, capital of New Jersey, reported already in "bad shape," with worse to come. Water swirled into the city's streets and civil defense officials declared an emergency.

Beyond that was populous Philadelphia on one side of the river and Camden, N. J. on the other, both anxiously watching the oncoming mighty flood.

Sand Bags On Blackstone

In Rhode Island the rain-swollen Blackstone and Mill Rivers burst through Horseshoe Dam and poured into Woonsocket, flooding a densely populated tenement section of the city. Five hundred families were evacuated just before the churning water moved in.

At Pawtucket further downstream, sandbag dikes were raised along the Blackstone's banks.

Hundreds of children at summer camps in southeastern New York were evacuated to high ground by helicopters and rescue boats.

Fire And Flood Together

Putnam, Conn., had both a fire and flood problem at one time. A magnesium plant caught fire during the day and burned late into the night. "The explosions have been terrible," reported Mayor John Dempsey.

At the same time, he said, the city was "absolutely helpless from the flood water of the Quinebaug and French Rivers. We've been evacuating people all day."

The devastating floods first started in Virginia on the heels of heavy rains that poured down after Hurricane Diane wore herself out in the Carolinas.

The storms swept through Pennsylvania and New York and on into New England. Record rainfalls all along the storm belt soon raised streams and creeks to dam-breaking proportions. The heavy run-off fed into the larger rivers that drain the area, bringing crisis floods.

GETS "LAWLESS COUCH"

OMAHA (AP)—A divorce suit property settlement statement filed in District Court here yesterday had the court clerk's office bug-eyed.

It listed an item awarded the husband as "1 lawless couch."

Hundreds of gardens, averaging a 16th of an acre are cultivated on the rights of way of British railways and they produce about a million dollars worth of produce each year.

TENSION HIGH AT CASABLANCA

CASABLANCA, French Morocco, (AP)—Tension mounted throughout troubled French Morocco today on the second anniversary of the ousting of nationalist-minded Sultan Mohammed Ben Youssef.

Early this morning French paratroopers were rushed to Khenifra to beef up the security garrison there after reports were received that 2,000 Zaian horsemen were advancing on the town of 11,000 persons.

The Zaians, ardent supporters of Ben Youssef, are Berber tribesmen who live in the Middle Atlas Mountains.

French commandos were flown in from Marseille and troops were brought in from neighboring Algeria to reinforce local security forces.

Public sympathy was running strongly in favor of Ben Youssef, exiled in Madagascar, and against the present Sultan Ben Moulay Arafa, picked by the French to take over when Ben Youssef was deposed two years ago.

Thirteen Moroccans were killed and 34 were wounded in rioting yesterday. Two French police inspectors were ambushed and wounded.

U. S. Restricted

U. S. Air Force personnel were ordered to stay on their bases today and American civilians, who were required to leave their homes wore identifying American flags on their lapels.

Curfews were clamped on large cities.

Stranded Pike Flaps About Flooded Yard

PORT JERVIS, N. Y. (AP)—The grim saga of the flood was eased a bit by what happened in Austin Crane's back yard.

Crane lives along the bank of the Delaware River here, which surged over its banks yesterday.

Child Dies In Big Refrigerator

STEPPVILLE, Ala. (AP)—A large electric refrigerator from which the food had been removed was a death trap yesterday for a baby boy, but his two sisters were revived.

Coroner Grady Moss said Jerry O'Neal Burns, 19 months, was dead upon arrival at a nearby clinic. Geraldine Burns, 10, and Elaine, 6, revived when fresh air reached their lungs.

Moss said the children were left at their farm home while the parents worked in a field. He said Terry Odell Burns, twin of the dead boy, apparently closed the door on the three after they crawled inside.

The mother, Mrs. James O. Burns found them when she noticed the food was out of the refrigerator.

Water Fountain Is Dubbed "Old Faceful"

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — The drinking fountain at the airport here is one of those that waits for people to bend down real close to get a drink, then spouts forth with unexpected power to splatter the face.

Old Faithful, the geyser of Yellowstone Park, is but 70 miles to the northeast.

Herman Wehmeier, Philadelphia Phillies pitcher, likes to hurl against the Pittsburgh Pirates. He has won 16 of his last 17 starts against the Bucs.

CAB IS ASKED FOR OK ON LINES

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Board has been petitioned for permanent certificates by Allegheny Airlines, Washington, and Piedmont Aviation, Inc., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Recent legislation requires the board to make permanent at least half the routes of local service airlines. Previously, the lines were temporarily certified for periods of three to seven years.

Allegheny asked for CAB permanent authority at terminals at New York City, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Washington, Cleveland, Buffalo, Baltimore, Atlantic City and Huntington, W. Va., and at these intermediate points:

Jamestown, N. Y., Hagerstown and Salisbury, Md., Wheeling and Parkersburg, W Va., and the Pennsylvania cities of Harrisburg, Erie, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Altoona, Johnstown, Lancaster, Williamsport, Bradford, Oil City, State Franklin, DuBois and Bellefonte.

Allegheny asked for continued temporary authority at Lock Haven, Pa., Dover and Wilmington, Del., Asbury Park and Trenton, N. J., and Cumberland, Easton and Cambridge, Md.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The area of suspicion in the Atlantic some 2,500 flattened out and shows no signs of developing into a storm.

The Miami Weather Bureau said there is still some rain in the area and barometric pressure is relatively low, but there is nothing to indicate a storm development.

The season's fifth hurricane, if one develops, will be named Edith.

CUSTODY FIGHT OVER SCHMIDT BOY IS LIKELY

RED BLUFF, Calif. (AP)—A custody fight loomed today over the 2½-year-old son whom Airman Daniel Schmidt saw for the first time when he returned last week from a Red Chinese prison.

Schmidt, 22, grimly filed a divorce complaint here yesterday against his 21-year-old wife, Una, who says she married logger Alford Fine last September when she thought Schmidt was dead. Schmidt asked custody of the boy, Danny, charging Una with being an "unfit mother" and with "extreme cruelty."

She Won't Consent

Her attorney, Harold Berliner, said in Nevada City:

"Una won't consent to giving up her son."

Una and Fine, he said, will continue living apart as "both consider it inappropriate that they live together until this is settled."

Schmidt, after meeting Una briefly in Nevada City, was quoted last week as saying she had done a "terrific job" with the little boy and pointed out it wasn't easy for a girl to bring up a child all by herself.

Schmidt filed the divorce suit at the Tehama County Court House stopping here en route to Portland, Ore., where he will visit his mother, Mrs. Nellie Peters.

Schmidt is traveling with Una's mother, Mrs Walter F. Ferguson.

His attorney, Howard F. Welch of Sacramento, said he would serve Una with a copy of the divorce complaint as soon as he finds her. She is hiding out in the San Jose area with the little boy who, she says, calls Fine "daddy."

Schmidt's attorney, Welch, said the Air Force has advised him it is withholding the $200 monthly allotment from Schmidt which Una has been getting "until the matter is clarified." He said the divorce would be the usual California type—an interlocutory decree with a final decree after a year's wait.

JOHNSTOWN'S FLOOD IN 1889 IS RECALLED

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Some 66 years ago an earthen dam above this industrial and coal mining center in western Pennsylvania gave way with a tragic result that is recalled whenever the nation is confronted with a flood disaster.

Within an hour after the dam broke — May 31, 1889 — more than 2,000 persons in the Conemaugh Valley had been swept to their deaths.

Big Dam Broke

Twelve miles above Johnstown, then a city of 30,000, the dam on the south fork of the Conemaugh River filled to the brim. Spillways spewed water to their capacity.

The dam held back a lake 4,000 feet long and 500 to 3,050 feet wide. Its depth was estimated at about 70 feet. Millions of tons of water pushed against the earthen walls, reinforced with clay.

In the middle of the afternoon it gave way.

777 Unidentified

Water pushed down the narrow valley toward this city, standing at the junction of the Stony Creek and Conemaugh River, at 70 miles an hour.

Within an hour it had swept bridges, houses, communities into its churning waters — and people an estimated 2,200 of them. In Johnstown's Grandview Cemetery lie 777 victims of the flood, still unidentified.

The scene of horror and devastation has seldom been equalled in this country.

GALLAGHER CASE TRIAL VERDICT TO BE APPEALED

NEW YORK (AP)—Sgt. James C. Gallagher says he will go as high as the U S Supreme Court if necessary in appealing a court-martial verdict that convicted him of murdering two fellow prisoners of war.

The court-martial yesterday announced its verdict after deliberating five hours. In addition to the unpremeditated murder of two Americans in a Korean POW camp, Gallagher was found guilty of collaboration with the Chinese Reds in mistreating fellow prisoners and informing on them to gain favored treatment for himself.

The military court of eight officers then sentenced him to life in prison at hard labor, the maximum penalty. Unpremeditated murder is equivalent to second degree murder in a civilian court.

Subject To Reviews

The decision is subject to two automatic reviews, first by the 1st Army commanding officer and then by a review board of Judge Advocate General's Office in Washington.

The 33-year-old Brooklyn soldier paled when the court gave its decision, but soon regained the composure he had maintained throughout the trial.

A 1st Army legal spokesman said Gallagher will be eligible for parole after serving ten years.

Camp Bully

Prosecution witnesses in the trial pictured Gallagher as a camp bully who threw two sick men out of the prisoners' hut and left them to freeze in the bitter Korean winter of 1951. They also told of his efforts to curry favor with his captors.

Other witnesses backed up Gallagher.

Delays Decision In Prowling Case

The charges of prowling and disorderly conduct against Omar Sloat, Adams House are being "taken under advisement" by Justice of the Peace John H Basehore, following a hearing Friday evening. Sloat renewed his $1,100 bail for appearance Sept. 12 at which time a verdict in the preliminary hearing is scheduled to be given.

Basehore said that he needed the extra time "to consult the district attorney and do some legal research" on points that were brought up at the hearing.

Borough police charged Sloat with trying to enter apartments at 17 N Washington St. They arrested him earlier this week, after they saw a man emerge from the building and enter the Adams House. Sloat has denied the charges.

DEATH TOLL IN RAIL CRASH 5

MARKED TREE, Ark. (AP)—The last four cars of a fast passenger train switched from the main line onto a siding yesterday, smashing a daycoach into parked boxcars.

Five persons, including a young mother and her baby, were killed. At least 21 others were hospitalized.

The smashup of the Frisco Railroad's Kansas City to Florida special came just outside this little east Arkansas town.

Most of the dead and injured were riding in the daycoach. The impact peeled and shredded the steel side of the car.

O. P. Rainey, Frisco traffic manager, said vibration apparently snapped a rod or pin, throwing the switch open.

APPEALS FROM

all of the 18,000 properties in the county were quickly spotted by the assessors when they checked the filled-out cards against the actual properties.

Sees Time Saving

Woods estimated that this fall, when the assessors again check the properties against the cards "the work should be done in much less time than this year. The system should result in savings to the county in the amount it needs spend for the assessment each year. For the most part the assessors will have only new developments and changes in present properties to worry about."

Woods added that while only 40 have appealed, a much larger number, running into the hundreds, have called at his office after receiving their notice of change in their assessment. "Ninety-eight out of a hundred were perfectly satisfied," he said, "after they had checked the figures. They were curious as to the reason for their new assessment, but when they checked the cards and found their properties were properly assessed, and checked the records of similar properties, they found they had been given a fair assessment."

The assessment books are open to the public and Woods noted that checks made by individual property owners have been valuable "in determining just how close we have come to establishing a fair value for properties."

Robin Roberts Wins 20th Game For Sixth Straight Season; Beats Dodgers 3-2

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Robin Roberts pitched the National League back into the headlines last night—shoving the American League race into the shadows for the moment—as he matched the record of four modern-era baseball immortals by winning 20 games in six consecutive seasons.

To do it, the Philadelphia ace out-dueled Brooklyn's big Don Newcombe for the second time in six days, beating the league-leading Dodgers 3-2

Only Lefty Grove, Christy Mathewson, Walter Johnson and Mordecal 'Three Finger' Brown—all Hall of Famers—had managed the six-year success since 1950

AL Scrap Unchanged

The battle between Roberts and Newcombe (18-4) at Philadelphia and its record-equaling climax took the play from the AL scrap, which remained unchanged as all four contenders won.

New York's Yankees maintained a full game lead over Chicago and Cleveland by whipping Baltimore 8-0 behind Whitey Ford's two-hitter. The White Sox stayed three percentage points up on Cleveland by defeating Detroit 3-0 while the Indians went 11 innings to edge Kansas City 2-1.

Gives One Walk

Boston, still 3½ games shy, walloped Washington 8-0.

Roberts, the meticulous right-hander combined his usual control with tight fielding support and some luck to win No. 20. He walked only one, but gave seven hits—one Roy Campanella's 27th homer—and needed three double-plays to hold Brooklyn's lead to 2-0 going into the eighth.

Then Newcombe, beaten by the same score by Roberts last Sunday, gave way. After checking the Phils on two hits and retiring 15 men in order, the Dodger right-hander was smacked for singles by Eddie Waitkus, Jim Greengrass and Andy Seminick and his lead was trimmed to 2-1.

In the ninth, Newk didn't even get a man out, and enabled the tying run to score on his own throwing error. Then Willie Jones laced a single to left, driving in the winning run and handing Newk who didn't walk a batter, his fourth loss in a row.

The 29-year-old Roberts, who came up in 1948 and since 1950 has won 20, 21, 28, 23 and 23, made it tough all around for Newcombe. The Dodger ace, a hitter in his own right, fanned twice

The Yankees bombed Baltimore with home runs by Gil McDougald and Mickey Mantle (his 31st) for a 2-0 lead in the first. Only Dave Philley's great stab saved Jim Wilson from giving up three homers in succession as Yogi Berra lined one toward the right field stands between the McDougald and Mantle blasts.

Billy Pierce brought the White Sox home safe, holding the Tigers on six hits while striking out six and walked one while Walt Dropo delivered a two-run homer off Steve Gromek in the fourth. The Tigers now are 10½ games behind.

Indians Hold Pace

The Indians stayed on pace as Don Mossi and Ray Narleski saved the day. Mossi relieved Mike Garcia with none out and runners on third and first in the 11th. He fanned Harry Simpson. Narleski then fanned Hec Lopez and got Jim Finigan on a force out to end the A's threat. Hal Naragon's lead-off single against reliefer Tom Gorman and pinch singles by Ralph Kiner and Dale Mitchell won it.

Sammy White got the Red Sox rolling with a six-hit-inning homer that broke up Frank Sullivan's duel with Bob Porterfield. Sullivan won his 15th as the Bosox got four in the seventh off Porterfield and three in the eighth off Dean Stone.

In the other National League games, Del Crandall and Hank Aaron each slugged two-run homers as Milwaukee beat Chicago 7-0 and moved to within 13 games of Brooklyn; Vern Law held on after homers by Willie Mays (38) and Johnny Antonelli and Pittsburgh rallied to beat the New York Giants 8-3, and Cincinnati spotted St. Louis three runs in the first before Johnny Klippstein choked off the spree in relief to win 7-5 behind homers by Gus Bell and Wally Post.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The magic number is nine for the Reading Indians to clinch the Eastern League pennant.

Any combination of nine Reading victories and defeats for the second-place Williamsport Grays in the 18 games remaining will eliminate the Grays from the race.

Reading swept a doubleheader 4-0 and 4-1 at Williamsport last night to push the Grays to 11½ games off the pace and practically out of the running.

At this stage of the campaign rained-out games that cannot be played are as bad as losses for the contenders. The season ends Labor Day.

The number for the third-place Binghamton Triplets, a fraction of a point behind Williamsport and also 11½ games behind, is eight. Any combination of eight Reading triumphs and Binghamton losses will eliminate the Trips, who dropped a doubleheader 6-4 and 5-2 to the Albany Senators at Binghamton.

The Allentown Redbirds split with the Johnstown Johnnies, 3-5 and 4-3, to pick up a game moving into a near tie for second place. But the Birds have lost an extra game and their not-so-magic number is seven

At Schenectady the Blue Jays remained in contention by splitting with Elmira. A combination of six Reading triumphs and Schenectady losses will eliminate the Jays, who are 13 games out.

Elmira won the first game 11-5 and the Jays came back 5-4 in the second.

QUICK CHIEF IS WINNER ON BAD LUCK OF RIVAL

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Quick Chief's bank roll was near the $10,000 mark today and he had a strong hold on the 3-year-old pacing title thanks to a bit of bad racing luck that threw his keenest rival out of contention in the $71,040 William H. Cane Futurity at Yonkers Raceway

The Chief, purchased by potato farmer John Froelich of Brookville, N.Y., for $5,500 as a yearling, upped his total earnings to $91,125.35 as he picked up $35,164.80 last night with a comparatively slow clocking of 2:11.1 for a mile and one sixteenth in the richest pacing event on record. The world record for the distance is 2:07 4-5 and the track mark 2:08.

Costly Break

But it might have been a different story if Libby's Boy, the Chief's most persistent rival all season, hadn't broke stride and lost at least three lengths as the leaders straightened out for the last sixteenth of a mile drive to the finish line.

At the time, Libby's Boy, driven by Clint Hodgins and owned by Dave Resnick's Peter Pan Farm of Washington, Pa., was only a half-length back and gaining fast.

As Libby's Boy broke stride, Meadow Ace from Octave Blake's Newport Stock Farm of South Plainfield, N.J., rapidly closed in on the Chief until only a neck separated them at the finish.

Libby's Boy regained stride in time to finish third.

NEW YORK MAY BECOME GHOST BASEBALL TOWN IF CLUBS LEAVE

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—New York City today faced the alarming possibility of becoming a "ghost" baseball town housing just one major league team.

The Brooklyn Dodgers have threatened to move and Brooks' President Walter O'Malley predicted that if his club pulls out the New York Giants will, too. O'Malley pointed out that the Dodgers have drawn 350,000 spectators to the Polo Grounds in 11 games this year while the six other National League clubs have attracted 390,000 fans in 48 games.

"If one team goes, the other will go," said O'Malley. "It's unlikely that one team or the other would move."

Tossed A Bombshell

O'Malley tossed a bombshell into the baseball world earlier in the week when he announced the Dodgers would play seven home games in Jersey City next year. He followed that with a threat to pull out of Brooklyn if a suitable site is not found for a new park.

With that in mind, city officials, headed by Mayor Robert Wagner, called a meeting yesterday.

Out of it came the following:

1. O'Malley is serious in his threat to pull out of Brooklyn.

2. The Giants in the person of owner Horace Stoneham are behind O'Malley.

3. O'Malley's last hope for a site in downtown Brooklyn was shattered.

4. Talk of a great municipal stadium was revived.

5. City Hall is worried.

"We are willing to stand the gaff until 1958," O'Malley told the mayor in discussing declining revenues, "but not past it."

Meanwhile Bernard F. Gimbel, president and chairman of the Board of the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau, urged Wagner to consider building a city-owned stadium.

"Great events are presently bypassing New York City for lack of adequate stadium facilities," he asserted. "We might have obtained the 1960 Olympic Games with a stadium to seat 100,000. New York lost the Army-Navy game because of its lack of proper facilities."

Wagner said he would ask the Board of Estimated to appropriate $50,000 to study the problem.

PALMER LEADS CANADIAN OPEN, 21 UNDER PAR

TORONTO (AP)—Arnold Palmer, who abdicated the United States amateur golf title to try his luck with the professionals, has a golden opportunity today to win his first top-money prize.

With a five-stroke lead over the field, a man size blow-up by the 25-year-old Palmer seemed about the only thing that could keep him from taking the $15,000 Canadian Open, a turbulent tournament already churned up with ducking spectators who have become shot targets, a hole-in-one and the most fearful par-beating this suburban Weston Golf Club course has ever taken.

The Latrobe, Pa., golfer took his big margin into the final 18 holes with a third-round eight-under-par 64 yesterday. Coupled with his 64-67 in the opening rounds, his total is an almost incredible 195—21 strokes under par for the three rounds and the lowest 54-hole score ever carded in the 46-year-old tournament.

Needs 68

Palmer needs a 68 today to equal a 263 Canadian Open record set by a namesake, Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., who established the mark three years ago over the St. Charles layout at Winnipeg.

Qualifiers include Art Wall Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., with 202.

Texas Lunch And Moose Series Monday At 7:30 Will Open League Title

The Texas Lunch and Moose will meet Monday evening at 7:30 on the Recreation field in the first game of the best-of-five championship series for the playoff title of the Softball League.

Both teams gained the final series by registering victories Friday evening. The Texas Lunch trounced the VFW 19-9 in the opening game to capture its semi-final series 3-1 while the Moose made it three in a row over the Eagles in the nightcap 13-8 via a five-run rally after two extra innings.

In Friday's opening game the Texas Lunch took advantage of the wildness of Hoak and Bosak to tab seven runs and never trailed although the Vets came up with five runs in the top of the fifth frame to make the count 9-7 However, the Lunchmen put the game in the last of the same frame with eight runs, Timbers pounding a homer with a runner aboard to feature the attack.

The Moose, regular season champs, were forced to go nine innings before topping the Eagles 13-8 in the second contest.

After getting off to a 5-0 lead in the first inning and hiking their margin to 8-2 in the top of the third, the Moose yielded four runs in the bottom of the third and single runs in the fourth and seventh which enabled the Eagles to tie the county. The tying run resulted on walks to McGlaughlin and Everly, and an infield error.

McCauslin led off with a double to open the ninth He scored on McKenrick's single. Sam Staley then poled a homerun for two more tallies. A single by Bud Knox and doubles by Brennan and Decker accounted for the scoring of the final runs.

DR. SAMMY LEE WELCOME NOW IN GARDEN GROVE

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. (AP)—Things will be different the next time Dr. Sammy Lee comes to Garden Grove.

Lee, an Army major, a physician and a two-time Olympic diving champion, was rebuffed twice—because he is an Oriental—when he tried to find a home in this quiet little city in lush Orange County.

But yesterday citizens of Garden Grove, aroused by the news, rallied to Lee's support.

Realtors, physicians and politicians urged Lee, now serving with the Army Medical Corps at Ft. Carson, Colo., to come to Orange County to find a home.

Believes In Americans

Said Lee: "My belief in the American people is substantiated."

The Long Beach Press-Telegram said the major had accepted its offer to fly him and his family here.

Lee said however, that an imminent addition to his family and studies for a medical specialty board examination might delay his return until October. He is due to be separated from the Army this fall

His parents came to California from Korea 50 years ago. Because of his Oriental ancestry, two deals for homes fell through in Garden Grove, Lee said.

County and an order had been entered there What she sought to do, she said, was to obtain additional support. She was told that she would have to seek an increase through the York County courts where the original order was entered.

However another case, which started in Fulton County, was handled in Adams County, because Judge W. C. Sheely is president judge in both counties, and arrangements could be easily made. The order in Fulton County against Ellworth E. Keefer, Shirleysburg, was for the support of one of the couple's five children. Mrs. Keefer, now a resident of Gardners R. D., was seeking support for the four other children who are now with her and formerly were with the father. The proceeding was a lengthy one which the court finally cut short by noting that "everyone is trying to turn this into a custody case, when what we have before us is a desertion and non-support case and that is all we can properly handle at present." The court directed that Keefer pay $28 per week for the support of the five children, and Judge Sheely said he will hand down an order in Fulton County ending the support order there for the one child.

Father To Pay

Ray Warren, Gettysburg, was scheduled to appear before the court Friday for a report on payments of support and costs, but the matter was continued to September 19.

Earl G. Hardman, Fairfield R. D., was directed to pay $8 per week for the support of a 12-year-old daughter and pay the costs, following a hearing on a support case.

Leroy C. Corbin, Fairfield R. 2, brought into court for failure to pay costs on a dismissed non-support case, told the court he had been out of work and unable to pay, paid $15 Friday and was given two weeks in which to pay the remainder of the costs.

Gets Six Months To Pay

Calvin L. Lovett, Breckenridge St., was given six months to pay the costs and make restitution on a charge of violation of the Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation laws. He had previously paid $109 on the approximately $520 bill. He agreed to pay $90 more on Monday and pay off the balance in six months and was warned that failure to make prompt payments would cause him to go to jail.

The support order against William D. Stonesifer, 68 W. Middle St., was reduced from $15 to $10 per week for two children following his report of decreased earnings.

Motor Travel Tripled; Park Guests Hit New Peak On Sunday: State police here estimated that the volume of traffic on county highways over the weekend tripled over the average wartime flow and National Park records show the travel over the battlefield reached its peak since the rationing of gasoline began.

Motorists were taking advantage of the first weekend of unrationed gasoline since early 1942. Good weather weather helped increase the number of weekend motorists.

State police said only two mishaps were reported—both on Saturday.

Based on the actual count of guided trips over the battlefield on Saturday and Sunday it was estimated that 5,472 persons visited the battlefield over the weekend.

Today's Talk

NATURE'S TEACHERS

Nature is so competent! It teaches with its endless numbers of teachers but it never deceives. There is a regularity about it — it couldn't afford to be anything else! Nature lasts. It is endless, and all life within it is regulated, such as its animals, birds insects and even the trees and flowers.

The farmer looks up to the sky, or takes note of the atmosphere, decides upon the direction of the wind, and then goes about his work, arming himself and preparing his work accordingly. He has faith in Nature — it is his silent partner.

At my summer island home I have for years tamed the red squirrels to come at my call and take peanuts from my hands but they will eat sparingly, and invariably hide or store a whole peanut in the shell. If it is broken, then the squirrel will eat only as much as he wants at the time. Then he will bury or store the rest. I have noted that these friends of mine come regularly for their food. Three times a day — and the same as our dining hours — breakfast, lunch and dinner. Did they get that idea from us? Or were we the borrower?

An animal will not eat when it is ill; it devotes a great deal of time to resting and relaxation. Ever note a herd of cattle in a field, lying at rest in the afternoon chewing their cuds? If a cow is frightened, it makes a difference with the milk. But it is not easily frightened!

There are so many things we may learn from Nature: The fish in the sea, the birds in the forest, the clouds in the sky, the chemicals in the earth — all teach us something. The good Earth is man's miraculous store-house and laboratory.

There is a bravery in Nature that is amazing — even in the inanimate things, like a tree, how it bends to the wind and storm, but lives on, even after it has been crippled and bruised. Some animals, like the fox, often defeat man's cruelty. I read of one caught in a trap, that knawed all its legs off but one. It knew it couldn't do anything with but one leg — so died. Nature's first inventions are legion!

CRIBBAGE

With: "fifteen two and eight are ten"
Upon a narrow board
Three centuries, and more, good men
Their cribbage hands have scored,
And strangely, by the rules they made
Three hundred years ago,
The game today is being played
Without a change to show.

What throw the crib and what to hold
My father taught to me,
"Turn up the jack, take two," he told.
"Each run is good for three.
You get two points for every pair,
And as the game goes on
Remember here and everywhere
It's two for thirty-one."

Now this is what I'd like to know
And often wish I knew:
Who was it in the long ago
First counted "fifteen two?"
Who thought of "cribbage" for its name.
The pairs and double runs,
The pegs, the board, and left the game
For dads to teach their sons?

"HASTY HEART" AT TOTEMPOLE

"The Hasty Heart" John P Patrick's comedy-drama now in the N. Y. Post has called "the best play to come out of the war" will open at the Totem Pole Playhouse on Monday evening. Although the action of "The Hasty Heart" is set in a British army hospital in Burma, and most of the play's characters are soldiers the play is not essentially a war play, but rather one about a group of soldiers of many nationalities who just happened to meet because of a war.

DOUG ROBINSON

An entertaining blend of heart-warming comedy and poignant drama, "The Hasty Heart" is the moving story of a young Scottish sergeant whose stubborn pride causes him to reject rudely the friendship offered him by fellow-patients and an equally sympathetic hospital nurse. Just as the soldier learns to take and give friendship for the first time in his isolated life, he finds out that he has only a few weeks to live and is plagued by the feeling that what he is really being offered by his companions is pity.

Doug Robinson will be seen as the over-proud Sgt. Lachlen Mac Lachlen who believes that "sorrow is born in the hasty heart" in Totem Pole's production of this Broadway hit. June Prudhomme will be seen as Margaret the nurse who accepts the dour Scot's proposal to marriage. Cliff Cothren Harold Schwartz, and Chet Szajna will be seen respectively in the roles of American, Australian and New Zealander soldier-patients and the other roles will be played by Sam Solito David Ford, John Eames and Tom Vawter.

The "Hasty Heart" which has been staged by William H Putch and designed by Tom Vawter will continue at the Totem Pole for seven performances through Saturday, August 27.

Returning Chinese Charge U.S. Cruelty

TOKYO (AP)—Three Chinese students, recently returned to their Communist homeland, told a story today of what they called "interrogations, persecutions, threats, arrests and lashings" while being detained 3½ years in the United States.

Peiping radio in a lengthy propaganda broadcast, identified them and the schools they attended.

Miss Sha Yi-shen, University of California, Huang Pae-tung, Texas A & M and Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn, and Tu Yen-yue, Pennsylvania State University.

All said they lived in fear. They claimed there were others being held under similar conditions. Red China has made the same charge in ambassadorial talks now under way at Geneva to free citizens of the two nations.

The average number of people who have moved into California each year in recent years is 384,000, more than those moving out.

PRINCESS MAY BE BETROTHED

BALLATER, Scotland (AP)—Thousands of Scots jammed this hamlet today to picnic with the royal family and perchance find some hint whether Princess Margaret's 25th birthday tomorrow may set the stage for a betrothal announcement.

There was no doubt the fateful birthday was whetted interest in the royal lawn festival beyond all expectations. At 25 Margaret will be free to marry—if she wishes—Peter Townsend handsome 40-year-old wartime pilot and divorced father of two children.

On all tips was the unanswered question: Will she or won't she?

The bazaar, organized by Queen Mother Elizabeth to raise money for the nearby Crathie Church, was set up at Abergeldie Castle near the royal summer residence of Balmoral Castle. It is expected to draw some 10,000 visitors particularly in view of the impending birthday.

Tin-base alloys are widely used in costume jewelry and such pieces as ornamental handles for tableware.

Senator Alarmed By Red Gestures

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robertson (D-Va) voiced alarm today that America's allies appear to be accepting Russian peace gestures at face value and relaxing vigilance against possible Communist aggression.

Robertson, a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, said in an interview before his departure for Europe:

"I'm sorry our Allies seem to think all the real danger to them has passed and are diminishing their contributions to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and are discussing cutting the length of their conscripts' military duty.

"The results of the summit conference were encouraging, but nevertheless the attitude of the Russians remains in the realm of an unsupported gesture. Until we have some signs of deeds to back up the smiles, the free world had better not let its guard down."

REPORT BOOST IN SALARY FOR COAL WORKERS

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new $2-a-day pay raise for many soft coal miners was reported ready for announcement today.

The boost, which would come in two stages, could set the pattern for the entire soft and hard coal industry.

John L. Lewis, 75-year-old president of the United Mine Workers Union, summoned his 200-man wage-policy committee for a late afternoon meeting, presumably to ratify a new coal labor pact.

The reported agreement was said to call for a 15-cents-an-hour increase effective Sept. 1 and a further 10-cent raise to take effect next April 1.

Private Agreement

Lewis was reported to have reached agreement privately this week with Harry M. Moses, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators Assn.

Moses represents northern commercial producers and the "captive" mines owned by the steel industry.

Details From Leak

Similarly, Lewis and Moses got together secretly in 1952, made a deal and the rest of the industry accepted it, although Southern coal mine owners did so reluctantly. The new agreement would replace that three-year-old contract.

Miners now make an $18.25 basic daily wage. The two-stage increase would raise this to $19.45 Sept. 1 and $20.25 on April 1.

The Charleston, W. Va., Daily Mail said it learned details of the reported new agreement from highly placed industry sources.

Much Damage Can Be Done To New Cars By Failing To Favor Them With Exact Service Needed

By FREDERICK C. RUSSELL

Unfortunately accidents are better at abolishing motorists than motorists are at abolishing accidents.

Calls For Exact Service

Time continues to demonstrate that considerable damage can be done to new cars by not favoring them with the exact service they require. Often a slight modification in specifications requiring a different technique. Factory changes are coming along faster than usual because cars are more complicated and more is demanded of them in the way of performance.

One company made a change in the intake manifolds after early 1955 production so as to accommodate two different makes of carburetors. A number of changes have been made in the current automatic transmissions. Factories regularly issue special bulletins to their dealers advising them regarding service operations. Some of this will differ enough from the service requirements of a previous model to make it a distinct handicap to try to service both models with the same methods.

The right way is always the easiest way and the least expensive. I am reminded of one owner who installed a set of new spark plugs after his car had traveled 8,000 miles not knowing that the factory recommended switching to a different heat type for better results.

Explains That Binding

A sensation of binding where a car is equipped with power steering is usually due to trouble with the steering system itself. There can, for instance, be a too tight steering gear adjustment. There can be binding in the steering shaft in the column Lubrication may be badly needed. One of the advantages of power steering is the fact that it permits using a ratio which requires less movement of the steering wheel for changes in the direction of the front wheels Should power assistance fail the car always can be steered manually but the driver would note a marked lack of ease If tires were underinflated and the steering gear in need of lubricant a drop in hydraulic pressure or a leak in the power hydraulic lines would give the driver a feeling that something is binding just because steering then would require considerable more effort.

You May Have Noticed

Service men tell me that many of the noises which customers say are heard in the rear of the car actually come from the front section. Typical is the grinding noise which many mistake for a badly adjusted pinion gear. Often it is due to a rough front tire tread

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"You can get better gas mileage when on the open road if you will take the trouble to determine whether you're feeding more gas than is needed to keep the car rolling When you feel that the car is traveling at about the desired gait slowly ease off on the accelerator. If there is then a drop in speed you can be sure that you are forcing the car to keep up this speed and are above the car's easy rolling speed It will save gas to cut down speed under such conditions. Often, too, you'll find that the car will travel just as fast with less pressure on the pedal."

Testing For "Run-Out"

These days there isn't much a car owner can do by way of checking front-end alignment but a little test he can make to satisfy the old hunger for monkeying around the car is to check for wheel and tire run-out. This is a wheel's tendency to wobble, not because it is loose but because it is warped and eccentric.

Such testing is easily done by jacking the wheel and holding a piece of white chalk against the tire while spinning the wheel. If there are high points the chalk will leave a mark only at those spots, the low points being left unmarked

Since power steering provides also for checking shock which would come up to the steering wheel of a conventional system it is important to have your service folk check steering parts, and the front wheels, occasionally. Fluid in the power equipment helps damp out road shock as well as shock from looseness in the steering linkage. There can be wear on front wheel bearings, or looseness of the wheels, without this being telegraphed up through the steering system to the wheel rim. Looseness at tie-rod ends also are damped out Moreover you may not realize that the front tires are badly in need of air.

Two To Remember

If the car doesn't seem to be stopping well enough always pump again on the brake pedal. In fact, a pumping action is highly desirable With power braking it would be just a mere dabbing of the pedal since a touch is about all you need to bring the brakes in action.

One of the common causes of after-firing in the exhaust system is too wide spacing of spark plugs Unburned mixture gets into the muffler and is fired there by subsequent charges of hot exhaust gases. This after-firing is commonly and incorrectly called back firing.

Serve As A Warning

Hydraulic valve lifters are a handy indication of the situation with the engine's oil supply. If they start clattering be sure to stop the car for a careful check on the oil supply which will likely be found too low for comfort. Viscosity of the oil is important where an engine is equipped with these lifters, so if the supply of oil is low, the oil which remains will thin down to a point where oil pressure will not be normal. In many cases it is found that sudden noise from lifters means that there is oil leakage. Most common point of such leakage will be found to be at the cover of the oil filter.

Taking Down The Pan

Taking down the engine oil pan isn't the simple job it used to be on many cars Usually it is necessary to remove the steering tie rod and in some instances a bit of jacking is necessary One trick that applies to some motors is turning the engine crankshaft so that the counterweight for the throw nearest the radiator is in its "up" position. This gives the necessary clearance

It's a good idea to know just how the oil pan can be taken down so that in event of emergency need for this you can tip off a roadside mechanic to the necessary tricks.

If the car has seen considerable service and it is planned to use additives to free up rings or sticky valves it is desirable to take down the pan to remove accumulated sludge manually

In The Motor Mail

Q After several thousand miles of driving the new timing chain in the motor of my car is noisy just like the old one it replaced. There is no adjustment for taking up slack. H. F. D.

A Evidently the new chain was adjusted too tight or was not of good quality

Q. I have been told that where the hand brake operates through the rear hydraulic brake it is advisable to press on the brake pedal while pulling up on the hand brake lever so that the hydraulic wheel cylinders are filled with fluid I understand that air may enter the braking system unless this is done L. McB.

A This is advisable However, it is also true that comparatively few drivers do this and there is little trouble because of it Some people have all the luck, you might say.

Q I always notice that there is a certain amount of clunking sound in the automatic transmission when putting the selector lever into Drive or Reverse when the car is first started. But should there also be this roughness when the car is slowing down and the transmission is shifting down? H R.

A No. The transmission needs checking for this sort of roughness.

Q .What would cause the carburetor float bowl to flood if the fuel level is correct and there is no evidence of dirt in the gasoline? N Z

A. Better check for excessively high fuel pump pressure

Q. The front wheels of my car have developed a low speed shimmy which has become quite troublesome. I have had the power steering system carefully checked over. Nothing seems to be wrong with it. M L. Jr

A I notice that you have driven this car an unusual distance considering the fact that it is a late model. You may have had to drive fast over rough roads, all of which probably has weakened the front springs I would check them for sag and replace them if necessary.

Q. Is it necessary to use a new gasket whenever taking off the bowl of the fuel filter to clean it out? K W J

A Often you can get by with the old gasket but it is advisable to use a new one If the old one has been compressed for any length of time you will find difficulty putting the bowl back in the same position causing a gasoline leak.

Q. Since having the spark plugs replaced the engine seems to be using a lot more oil, and there is some tendency toward skipping G N L

A You will probably find that one of the plugs is loose If compression escapes around its gasket oil will be sucked up past the rings of that particular cylinder. Fouling of the points of this plug would account for the skipping

Mr Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern St, West Hartford 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

Pressmen Stand In Water On The Job

PORT JERVIS, N. Y. (AP)—Pressmen stood in the water yesterday to get out the Port Jervis Union-Gazette which hasn't missed an edition in 105 years.

The newspaper, its building sloshing with flood waters moved its editorial operations and its Associated Press teletype printer to offices of the Tri-State Associated Telephone Corp., on higher ground.

Copy boys hustled stories down the water-filled street to the printers, who stuck to their undamaged presses and presses Pressmen waded about, locking forms on the presses

SALES TAX YIELD FALLS BELOW EXPECTATIONS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's one per cent sales tax ends Aug 31 with indications its total yield will be 127 million dollars, some 8 million below original estimates.

That was the forecast Friday of the revenue department, which said collections reported at the end of July totaled 101 millions The returns for May, June and July are due Aug 20.

Upon expiration of the sales tax, strongly opposed by Gov Leader and Democrats in the Legislature, the state treasury will lose about 5 millions monthly in revenue with the two factions still deadlocked on what tax shall replace it

Two Bills Up

Two bills now are before the Senate to wind up affairs of the sales tax bureau One would set Sept. 20 as the deadline for reporting August sales, the last month. Another would permit auditors to check the books of suspected delinquents as much as two years after the tax expires

The sales tax went into effect Sept. 1 1954, for a 21 month period, with the law itself fixing Aug 31, 1955, as the expiration date Gov Leader made the levy an issue in his campaign and said he would veto a bill renewing it, should the Legislature pass one

HOLLYWOOD (AP) —After 23½ years on the air, comedian Jack Benny is quitting the weekly grind of live radio to concentrate on television.

There is a possibility, he said yesterday, that the best of his old radio shows will be repeated on the air by recording this fall He said it's a question of CBS reaching agreement with a sponsor on price

Benny will appear in a filmed television show every other week starting in the fall There will be in addition, he said, "I don't know how many" one-hour TV shows in which he'll either play parts in plays or be master of ceremonies
